The book then goes on to four selected case studies in information technology advanced computer architecture fiber optic communications software engineering and artificial intelligence. The text also talks about the effects of divestiture and deregulation on research education and human resources for research and development foreign information technology research and development and technology and industry. The text is recommended for students and researchers of information technology who wish to know more about the state of research and development in this field and the applications of this research in different areas Learning and Innovation @ a Distance Juliane Hartig, 2011-08-05 Juliane Hartig develops a framework of different forms of distance and discusses their impact and interplay for interactive learning and innovation. Her empirical study draws on a sample of international cooperation projects from German biotechnology SMEs. Combining quantitative and qualitative research she comes to new insights and offers practitioners tools on how to create proximity in order to derive the most from global cooperation The Other Latecomers Javier Papa, 2024-10-03 In recent years developing countries have seen the emergence of successful and innovative firms albeit often with state support. Argentina which faces challenges including industrial decline and macroeconomic turbulence offers an intriguing context for studying latecomer firms as few have managed to innovate and compete globally without significant state backing. This book examines why and how latecomer firms facing adverse policies and hostile macroeconomic conditions can nevertheless survive grow and catch up with global competitors while many other firms lag or fall further behind. It presents on one hand a theoretical framework that builds on contributions made by Gerschenkron 1962 and Hobday 1995 on latecomer catch up in economic development theory and on those by Nelson 1991 2008 on firm level differences in evolutionary theory on the other it provides a contextual framework for the catching up experiences of firms from East Asia and Latin America which ends with a description of Argentina's main detrimental policy regimes over the past 50 years. Further the book presents an statistical analysis of manufacturing firms performance along with the corporate characteristics that underlie it within the context of Argentina's worst economic crisis to determine which firm characteristics stood out during times of crisis e.g. innovation and organizational capabilities. To supplement the quantitative analysis and offer additional insights it introduces two in depth case studies on iconic latecomer firms TENARIS and IMPSA which bolstered by the examination of over nearly half a million newspaper articles illustrate their global success amidst numerous challenges. It emphasizes the importance of long term corporate strategy a flexible organizational structure and a coherent set of technological and organizational capabilities while also addressing policy implications making it a valuable asset for researchers policymakers and corporate managers alike
