Napalm Robert M. Neer,2013-04-01 Napalm was invented on Valentine s Day 1942 at a secret Harvard war research laboratory It created an inferno that killed over 87 500 people in Tokyo more than died in the atomic explosions at Hiroshima or Nagasaki and went on to incinerate 64 Japanese cities The Bomb got the press but napalm did the work Neer offers the first history

Landmines and Unexploded Ordnance Rae McGrath,2000-03-20 If the scourge of landmines is ever eradicated much of the credit must go to Rae McGrath and this meticulous principled book reminds us why John Pilger Landmines and unexploded ordnance continue to kill maim and impoverish innocent civilians in many of the world s poorest countries Rae McGrath s authoritative book is an invaluable resource for anyone wanting to understand the impact of these persistent killers and how best to respond to them Richard Lloyd UK Working Group on Landmines Written by a Nobel Peace Prize co laureate who is one of the leading voices in the anti landmines campaign this timely book is a comprehensive practical guide to landmines and unexploded ordnance

International Law, Politics, and Inhumane Weapons Alan Bryden,2013 This book contributes to contemporary debates on the effectiveness of international humanitarian law IHL in regulating or prohibiting inhumane weapons such as landmines Two treaties have emerged under IHL in response to the humanitarian scourge of landmines However despite a considerable body of related literature clear understandings have not been established on the effectiveness of these international legal frameworks in meeting the challenges that prompted their creation This book seeks to address this lacuna An analytical framework grounded in regime theory helps move beyond the limitations in the current literature through a structured focus on principles norms rules procedures actors and issue areas On the one hand this clarifies how political considerations determine opportunities and constraints in designing and implementing IHL regimes On the other it enables us to explore how and why ideal policy prescriptions are threatened when faced with complex challenges in post conflict contexts This book will be of much interest to students of international humanitarian law global governance human security and IR in general

Sowing the Dragon's Teeth Philip C. Winslow,1998-10-01 Each year an estimated twenty six thousand people are killed or maimed by land mines more than 100 million of them sown like the mythical dragon s teeth in over seventy countries These weapons are designed to maim soldiers but most victims are civilians especially the rural poor Winslow writes about these people and the Campaign to Ban Landmines which was awarded The Nobel Peace Prize in 1997 He tells about the efforts to pull the dragon s teeth from the earth so that it can be restored to those who live on it

Killer Robots Armin Krishnan,2016-04-22 Military robots and other

potentially autonomous robotic systems such as unmanned combat air vehicles UCAVs and unmanned ground vehicles UGVs could soon be introduced to the battlefield Look further into the future and we may see autonomous micro and nanorobots armed and deployed in swarms of thousands or even millions This growing automation of warfare may come to represent a major discontinuity in the history of warfare humans will first be removed from the battlefield and may one day even be largely excluded from the decision cycle in future high tech and high speed robotic warfare Although the current technological issues will no doubt be overcome the greatest obstacles to automated weapons on the battlefield are likely to be legal and ethical concerns Armin Krishnan explores the technological legal and ethical issues connected to combat robotics examining both the opportunities and limitations of autonomous weapons He also proposes solutions to the future regulation of military robotics through international law Crash Course H. Bruce Franklin, 2018-09-03 Growing up during the Second World War H Bruce Franklin believed what he was told that America's victory would lead to a new era of world peace Like most Americans he was soon led to believe in a world wide Communist conspiracy that menaced the United States forcing the nation into a disastrous war in Korea But once he joined the U S Air Force and began flying top secret missions as a navigator and intelligence officer what he learned was eye opening He saw that even as the U S preached about peace and freedom it was engaging in an endless cycle of warfare bringing devastation and oppression to fledgling democracies across the globe Now after fifty years as a renowned cultural historian Franklin offers a set of hard learned lessons about modern American history Crash Course is essential reading for anyone who wonders how America ended up where it is today with a deeply divided and disillusioned populace led by a dysfunctional government and mired in unwinnable wars It also finds startling parallels between America's foreign military exploits and the equally brutal tactics used on the home front to crush organized labor antiwar and civil rights movements More than just a memoir or a history book Crash Course gives readers a unique firsthand look at the building of the American empire and the damage it has wrought Shocking and gripping as any thriller it exposes the endless deception of the American public and reveals from inside how and why many millions of Americans have been struggling for decades against our own government in a fight for peace and justice Arms Control Jozef Goldblat, 2002-09-24 A unique and indispensable work that serves both as a basic introduction to the disarmament scene and a reference book for experts Disarmament Times This compendium of the history and achievements of arms control and disarmament efforts is unique in its kind and is likely to remain so This for three reasons first because of its unparalleled comprehensiveness second because of the outstanding quality of its presentation and third because of its author Jozef Goldblat one of the world's leading experts in the field This triad makes the updated Second Edition of Arms Control The New Guide to Negotiations and Agreements a must for all concerned with international security in general and arms control in particular Curt Gasteyger Graduate Institute of International Studies Geneva The thesaurus of arms regulation and disarmament a precious tool for negotiators and treaty makers Ambassador V Petrovsky Former Secretary General of the

Conference on Disarmament Being the most comprehensive and authoritative compilation and analysis of arms control agreements available this is an indispensable reference volume for students and practitioners of arms control and international security The author has spent a lifetime in the study and practice of international security affairs where international law and arms control agreements are concerned there is no one better qualified than him Sverre Lodgaard Norwegian Institute of International Affairs Oslo The revised and updated edition of Arms Control The New Guide to Negotiations and Agreements contains the most authoritative and comprehensive survey ever published of the documents related to arms control All major agreements reached since the second half of the nineteenth century through to mid 2002 are critically analysed and assessed The assessment is made in the light of the international security environment the developments in the field of weapon technology the threat of nuclear chemical and biological weapons proliferation and the efforts to strengthen the humanitarian law of armed conflict The accompanying CD ROM reproduces full text and carefully selected excerpts of treaties conventions common understandings statutes charters binding decisions of international bodies final acts of international conferences exchanges of letters and diplomatic notes Multilateral agreements are followed by a list of parties Enriched with new maps tables and figures as well as an expanded glossary and bibliography the book will remain the definitive resource for students of international relations journalists diplomats and military strategists Jozef Goldblat the author is Vice President of the Geneva International Peace Research Institute GIPRI Resident Senior Fellow of the UN Institute for Disarmament Research UNIDIR and Associate Editor of Security Dialogue published by SAGE for the International Peace Research Institute Oslo PRIO He has studied the problems of arms control since the 1950s and has been involved in arms control negotiations From 1969 to 1989 he directed the arms control and disarmament programme of studies at the Stockholm International Peace Research Institute SIPRI He has lectured at various universities and has written reports articles and books on the arms race and disarmament His latest publications include The Nuclear Non Proliferation Regime Assessment and Prospects The Hague Academy of International Law 1997 and Nuclear Disarmament Obstacles to Banishing the Bomb I B Tauris 2000 Moral Entrepreneurs and the Campaign to Ban Landmines Frank Faulkner, 2007 This work advances the proposition that traditional top down politics is being challenged by grass roots civil society based bottom up politics in that most sensitive areas the national security arms control dichotomy The book uses the example of the International Campaign to Ban Landmines ICBL that has succeeded in reversing or altering the national policies on landmines in over 130 countries globally The book cites the efforts of what the author calls moral entrepreneurs that is people who have adopted the risk taking characteristics of business and social leaders to bring this state of affairs about As a new polity that challenges old assumptions about the state's preserve in matters of national security and moral force the ICBL has set the benchmark for a fresh twenty first century paradigm in arms control Foreign Aid and Landmine Clearance Matthew Breay Bolton, 2010-01-30 In the decade since the signing of the Ottawa Treaty which banned the production and use of anti personnel mines governments have spent over 3 billion on clearing up and mitigating the security threat of mines cluster munitions and other unexploded ordnance in the world s current and former war zones However this flow of cash into regions dominated by violent social structures raises numerous political issues Through detailed archival and field research this book explores the politics behind the allocation and implementation of foreign aid by the US and Norway for demining in Afghanistan Bosnia and Sudan It is an essential resource for practitioners and policymakers working in the field of landmine clearance and for students and researchers of Development Studies and post war reconstruction

The Formation of the Treaty Rules Applicable in Non-international Armed Conflicts Laura Perna,2006 The purpose of this work is to trace the processes that led and continue to lead to the formation of the treaty norms applicable in non international armed conflicts If the purpose of humanitarian law is to achieve a balance between military necessity and humanitarian considerations and to prevent unnecessary suffering and destruction humanitarian law rules should be equally applicable to both international and internal armed conflicts Whilst however there are a huge number of treaty provisions applicable to international armed conflicts very few provisions are specifically designed to regulate non international armed conflicts despite the dramatic increase in the number of such conflicts The study investigates the reasons behind the differences by analysing inter alia questions such as Where does the international law of internal armed conflicts come from Why did it evolve differently from the law regulating international armed conflicts Where is the international law of internal armed conflicts going

Bombing Civilians Yuki Tanaka,Marilyn B. Young,2010-08-03 Bombing Civilians examines a crucial question why did military planning in the early twentieth century shift its focus from bombing military targets to bombing civilians From the British bombing of Iraq in the early 1920s to the most recent policies in Kosovo Afghanistan Iraq and Lebanon Bombing Civilians analyzes in detail the history of indiscriminate bombing examining the fundamental questions of how this theory justifying mass killing originated and why it was employed as a compelling military strategy for decades both before and since the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki

American Reckoning Christian G. Appy,2016-01-05 Christian G Appy explores how the Vietnam war was managed reported packaged and consumed the myths that were created why decisions were made who if anyone got left behind America s accountability for atrocities and how the real Vietnam syndrome has played out in popular culture and our foreign policy He reports across newspaper accounts TV coverage Pentagon stats and position papers memoirs movies novels and more to create a completely fresh account of the meaning of the war asking the hard questions

Another American Century Nicholas Guyatt,2003-11 How does the US media propagate the myth of a good superpower waging war on evil Can an open ended War on Terror make the world safe For whom Another American Century draws on our knowledge of the past decade to outline the effects and consequences of the USA s formidable power It looks at how US policymakers understand their role in the world and the ideologies that enable them to pursue policies with often harmful consequences for people outside North America

Proceedings of the Technology and the Mine Problem Symposium Albert M. Bottoms, Barbara Honegger, 1996

Globalization, Social Movements, and Peacebuilding Jackie Smith, 2013-07-02 Each year governments spend billions of dollars on peacekeeping efforts around the world and much more is spent on humanitarian aid to refugees and other victims of armed struggle Yet research shows that nearly one half of all countries experiencing civil war have renewed violent conflict within five years of a peace agreement How do we account for such a poor track record The authors in this volume consider how global capitalism affects fragile peace processes arguing that the international economic system itself is a major contributor to violent conflict By including the work of anthropologists economists sociologists and political scientists this book presents a broad yet thorough exploration of the complexities of peacebuilding in a global market economy Included in the volume are specific studies of Africa Asia and the Middle East as well as considerations of conflicts on a global scale

The Barbarization of Warfare George Kassimeris, 2006-09 The images from Abu Ghraib prison in Baghdad have been a grim reminder of warfare s undiminished capacity for brutality and indiscriminate excess What happened in Abu Ghraib has happened before the World War II and more recent wars and insurgencies in Algeria Congo Angola Vietnam Bosnia Kosovo Chechnya and many others all bear witness to the ever present human capacity to commit barbaric acts if circumstances allow What drives people to mistreat humiliate and torment others In an age when real time war violence and torture are becoming addictive forms of entertainment it is now more critical than ever to deepen our understanding of the extraordinary distortions of the human psyche and spirit that occur in wartime Eight distinguished scholars explore in this first collective effort the effects of the barbarization of warfare on our cultures and societies
