Fokwang: Cultivating Moral Citizenship D. Fokwang, 2023-02-14 In Cultivating Moral Citizenship ethnographer Jude Fokwang unpacks the meanings mechanisms and processes through which young people in an inner city of the West African nation of Cameroon respond to local and global challenges as they seek to position themselves as social adults Faced with the decline of old predictabilities the diminishing capacity of the postcolonial state to control its destiny and the precarity of waithood young people instrumentalise the opportunities and resources afforded by associations to build reciprocal relationships that advance their individual and collective pursuits in a community that has increasingly become transnational In positioning themselves as moral actors the young people in this ethnography invest in high profile social and communal projects including the enforcement of moral orthodoxies that enable readers to appreciate the ways in which moral citizenship is engendered expanded and eroded simultaneously Youth Ministry in Africa Nathan H.

Chiroma, 2025-08-18 Across the globe there is a need to empower young people to live out their faith within the complexities of their own diverse contexts This is particularly true in Africa the continent with the world's youngest population Yet despite the general popularity of youth ministry there is a lack of relevant resources addressing the specific challenges and opportunities faced by young people growing up on the African continent This book seeks to address that gap Written specifically by African authors for an African context this collection of essays provides a biblical and theological framework for culturally relevant youth ministry Each chapter examines the cultural socio economic and spiritual factors that shape the experiences of young people on the continent and contributors highlight the importance of addressing such issues as identity sexuality community development social justice and digital media all while remaining faithful to the gospel Filled with practical concepts for ministry and action this book seeks to empower African youth by equipping them with the biblical knowledge and leadership skills they need to become agents of change in their own communities This resource is designed for pastors youth leaders and anyone passionate about nurturing the next generation of believers and providing them with the tools to cultivate vibrant resilient faith in the face of modern challenges in Africa and beyond Teens in South Africa David Seidman, 2008-07 A look at world geography and contemporary culture from the perspective of young people

International encyclopedia of adolescence Jeffrey Jensen Arnett, 2007 Publisher description

Routledge Handbook on Human Rights and the Middle East and North Africa Anthony Chase, 2016-11-10 Recent events such as Iran's Green Revolution and the Arab Uprisings have exploded notions that human rights are irrelevant to Middle Eastern and North African politics Increasingly seen as a global concern human rights are at the fulcrum of the region's on the ground politics transnational intellectual debates and global political intersections The Routledge Handbook on Human Rights and the Middle East and North Africa emphasises the need to consider human rights in all their dimensions rather than solely focusing on the political dimension in order to understand the structural reasons behind the persistence of human rights violations explores the various frameworks in which to consider human rights conceptual political and transnational international discusses issue areas subject to particularly intense debate gender religion sexuality transitions and accountability contains contributions from perspectives that span from global theory to grassroots reflections emphasising the need for academic work on human rights to seriously engage with the thoughts and practices of those working on the ground A multidisciplinary approach from scholars with a wide range of expertise allows the book to capture the complex dynamics by which human rights have had or could have an impact on Middle Eastern and North African politics This book will therefore be a key resource for students and scholars of Middle Eastern and North African politics and society as well as anyone with a concern for Human Rights across the globe

Vanguard or Vandals Jon Abbink, 2021-11-29 This book contains a range of original studies on one of the major challenges in Africa today the controversial role of youth in politics conflict and rebellious movements The issue is not only the drafting of child soldiers into insurgent armies or predatory militias as in Somalia Sierra Leone or Congo but more generally that of the problematic insertion of large numbers of young people in the socio economic and political order of post colonial Africa Even educated youths are being confronted with a lack of opportunities blocked social mobility and despair about the future Many of the political antagonisms and conflicts in which youths are involved do not only exist at the discursive level but are being produced by current demographic and socio political contradictions in Africa African youth while forming a numerical majority largely feel excluded from power are socio economically marginalized and thwarted in their ambitions They have little access to representative positions or political power which is making for a politically volatile situation in many African countries The authors address several case studies from across Africa the Mungiki movement in Kenya youth agency in southern Sudan in times of war the challenges of re integrating youthful ex combatants in Sierra Leone and street children in Togo A common aim is to try to explain why patterns of generational conflict and violent response among younger age groups in Africa are showing such a remarkably uneven spread across the continent and to advance the comparative study of youth and generational conflict beyond mere description of the varied empirical cases Adolescent Psychology Around the World

Jeffrey Jensen Arnett, 2012-04-05 This book paints a portrait of adolescent psychology in 4 major regions Africa the Middle East Asia the Americas and Europe Featuring 24 revised and updated chapters from the International Encyclopedia of Adolescence 2007 readers are introduced to the way the majority of the world's adolescents actually live Most contributors are indigenous to the country they review As a whole the book paints an engaging panorama of adolescent life around the world broadening students cultural perspective All chapters follow the same template to make it easier to compare topics across countries Background including demographics ethnic diversity and political system Period of Adolescence Beliefs Gender the Self Family Relationships Friends and Peers Youth Culture Love and Sexuality Health Risk Behavior Education Work Media Politics and Military and Unique Issues Each chapter contains a map and photos and a list of references and suggested readings The introductory chapter explains why the countries were selected and introduces the book's common themes The section on Africa and the Middle East introduces students to teen life in Cameroon one of the few places left where adolescents go through formal puberty rituals In addition readers learn about adolescent life in Ethiopia Israel Morocco Nigeria and Sudan Next we travel to Asia China India Indonesia and the Philippines Here readers see how economic growth in India and China is creating opportunities for young people In The Americas readers are introduced to life in Argentina Canada Chile Mexico Peru and the United States The book concludes with adolescent life in Europe including the Czech Republic France Germany Italy the Netherlands Russia Sweden and the UK Intended for courses in adolescent psychology lifespan development and or cultural cross cultural psychology taught in departments of psychology human
