Houses of Ill Repute Allison Glazebrook, Barbara Tsakirgis, 2016-03-31 The study of ancient Greek urbanism has moved from examining the evidence for town planning and the organization of the city state or polis to considerations of everyday life That is it has moved from studying the public fortifications marketplaces council houses gymnasiums temples theaters fountain houses to studying the private the physical remains of Greek houses But what of those buildings that housed activities neither public nor private brothels taverns and other homes of illicit activity Can they be distinguished from houses Were businesses like these run from homes Classical Athenian writers attest to a diverse urban landscape that included tenement houses sunoikiai inns diaitai pandokeia factories ergasteria taverns kapelia gambling dens skirapheia training schools didaskaleia and brothels porneia yet despite our knowledge of specific terms associating them with actual physical remains has not been easy One such writer Isaeus mentions tenement houses that hosted prostitutes and wine sellers while his contemporary Aeschines refers to doctors smiths fullers carpenters and pimps renting space Were tenement houses not simply multi inhabitant spaces but also multipurpose ones Houses of Ill Repute is the first book to focus on the difficulties of distinguishing private and semiprivate spaces While others have studied houses or brothels this volume looks at both together The chapters by leading scholars in the field address such questions as What is a house and Did the business of prostitution leave behind a unique archaeological record Presenting several approaches to identifying and studying distinctions between domestic residences and houses of ill repute and drawing on the fields of literature history and art history and theory the volume s contributors provide a way forward for the study of domestic and entertainment spaces in the Hellenic world Contributors Bradley A Ault Allison Glazebrook Mark L Lawall Kathleen M Lynch David Scahill Amy C Smith Monika Tr mper Barbara Tsakirgis
