definitions of social and political success in the United States Through a series of case studies that offer in depth examinations of fictional depictions of school shootings in film and literature it becomes clear that these stories are representative of a larger social narrative regarding the future of the United States The continuing struggle to understand youth violence is part of an ongoing conversation about what it means to raise future citizens within a cultural moment that views youth through a lens of anxiety rather than optimism

Untaming Girlhoods Cristina Santos,2023-03-31 This is an interdisciplinary examination of depictions of girlhoods through a comparative study of foundational fairy tales revised and reimagined in popular narrative film and television adaptations The success of franchises such as The Hunger Games Twilight and Divergence have re presented the young heroine as an empowered female and often a warrior hero in her own right Through a selection of popular culture touchstones this empowerment is questioned as a manipulation of feminist ideals of equality and a continuation of the traditional vision of female awakening centering on issues of personal choice agency physical violence purity and beauty By investigating re occurring storytelling frameworks and archetypes Untaming Girlhoods examines different portrayals of girlhoods in the 20th and 21st century Anglo American cultural imaginary that configure modern girlhoods beyond the fairy tale princess or the damsel in distress into refigurations that venture away from the well trodden path for a new breakaway path to authentic selfhood This will be a useful and enlightening text for students and researchers in Girlhood Studies Gender Studies Film Studies Popular Culture and Media Studies

Violence at the Intersection Toya Z. Like,2024-08-01 Violence at the Intersection The Interlocking Impact of Race Ethnicity Gender and Class on Risk and Resilience builds upon and expands recent scholarship on the intersectionality of race ethnicity gender gender identity and class and their multiplicative effects on violent offending and victimization Specifically the work examines how these intersections of identity not only affect risks for experiences with violence but also account for the development and expansion of social capital in the form of resilience and human agency among those at risk The results of the research provide a critical assessment of how embodied identities are commonly used to assess those at risk while largely ignoring that these individuals are simultaneously at resilience This work moves beyond the extant literature by considering the role of resilience in violence among disadvantaged groups The work also contributes to growing research on identity and its centrality to experiences with violence and provides an in depth understanding of varied pathways to human agency and the development of social capital even among those who are deemed disadvantaged in society This book will appeal to undergraduate and postgraduate students as well as postdoctoral researchers interested in fields including Criminology Criminal Justice Women Gender Studies Sexuality Studies Race and Ethnicity Studies and Violence Studies

Lose Your Mother Saidiya Hartman,2025-09-23 In Lose Your Mother Saidiya Hartman journeys along a slave route in Ghana following the trail of captives from the hinterland to the Atlantic coast She retraces the history of the Atlantic slave trade from the fifteenth to the twentieth century and reckons with the blank slate of her own genealogy There were no survivors of Hartman

s lineage nor far flung relatives in Ghana of whom she had come in search She traveled to Ghana in search of strangers The most universal definition of the slave is a stranger torn from kin and country To lose your mother is to suffer the loss of kin to forget your past and to inhabit the world as a stranger As both the offspring of slaves and an American in Africa Hartman too was a stranger Her reflections on history and memory unfold as an intimate encounter with places a holding cell a slave market a walled town built to repel slave raiders and with people an Akan prince who granted the Portuguese permission to build the first permanent trading fort in West Africa an adolescent boy who was kidnapped while playing a fourteen year old girl who was murdered aboard a slave ship Eloquent thoughtful and deeply affecting Lose Your Mother is a powerful meditation on history memory and the Atlantic slave trade
