Telecommunications Competition The Last Ten Miles Aei Studies:

Telecommunications Competition Ingo Vogelsang, Bridger M. Mitchell, 1997 The local and short distance telecommunications markets the last ten miles of the telecommunications industry are the target of this study Information is provided about telecommunications technology and network structure and their relationship to t Universal Service Obligations in Utility Concession Contracts and the Needs of the Poor in Argentina's Privatizations Omar O. Chisari, Antonio Estache, 1999 The structural changes that come with privatization may induce a reconsideration of the regulations defined during the early stages of privatization Cover International Trade in Telecommunications Ronald A. Cass, John R. Haring, 1998 The authors consider whether any special circumstances justify departure from free trade in telecommunications equipment Telecommunication Markets Brigitte Preissl, Justus Haucap, Peter Curwen, 2009-06-12 Telecommunication markets are characterized by a dynamic development of technology and market structures The specific features of network based markets convergence of previously separate spheres and the complex task of market regulation put traditional theoretical approaches as well as current regulatory policies to the test This book sheds light on some of the challenges ahead It covers a vast range of subjects from the intricacies of market regulation to new markets for mobile and internet related services The diffusion of broadband technology and the emergence of new business strategies that respond to the technological and regulatory challenges are treated in the book s 24 chapters The American Economic Review, 1996 Competition, Regulation, and Convergence Sharon E. Gillett, Ingo Vogelsang, 1999-09-01 The telecommunications industry has experienced dynamic changes over the past several years and those exciting events and developments are reflected in the chapters of this volume The Telecommunications Policy Research Conference TPRC holds an unrivaled place at the center of national public policy discourse on issues in communications and information TPRC is one of the few places where multidisciplinary discussions take place as the norm The papers collected here represent the current state of research in telecommunication policy and are organized around four topics competition regulation universal service and convergence The contentious competition issues include bundling as a strategy in software competition combination bidding in spectrum auctions and anticompetitive behavior in the Internet Regulation takes up telephone number portability decentralized regulatory decision making versus central regulatory authority data protection restrictions to the flow of information over the Internet and failed Global Information Infrastructure initiatives Universal service addresses the persistent gap in telecommunications from a socioeconomic perspective the availability of competitive Internet access service and cost modeling The convergence section concentrates on the costs of Internet telephony versus circuit switched telephony the intertwined evolution of new services new technologies and new consumer equipment and the politically charged question of asymmetric regulation of Internet telephony and conventional telephone service Is Free TV for Federal Candidates Constitutional? Lillian R. BeVier, 1998 If some members of Congress and the Federal Communications

Commission have their way they will mandate free television for federal candidates Journal of Economic Literature ,1997

Emerging Competition in Postal and Delivery Services Michael A. Crew,Paul R. Kleindorfer,2013-03-09 Emerging Competition in Postal and Delivery Services brings together practitioners postal administrators the courier industry regulators academic economists and lawyers to examine important policy and regulatory issues facing the postal and delivery industries This volume reviews such topics as cost and productivity analysis universal service and entry demand analysis and the structure of postal payment system price regulation and competition Vertical Integration in Cable Television David Waterman,Andrew Weiss,1997 The authors address claims that vertical ownership ties reduce programming diversity restrict entry of competitors to cable or have other socially undesirable effects Public Policy Toward Cable Television Thomas W. Hazlett,Matthew Laurence Spitzer,1997 This book analyzes the effectiveness of the federal government s vacillating regulatory policy toward the cable television industry A Critical Account of Article 106(2) TFEU Jarleth Burke,2018-03-22 A Critical Account of Article 106 2 TFEU Government Failure in Public Service Provision offers a sceptical perspective on how EU law applies to public services Article 106 2 provides that other Treaty rules may be disapplied in order to sustain a Service of General Economic Interest SGEI The rhetorical presentation of Article 106 2 is as a strict exception As a result Article 106 2 is often presented as a threat to Europe s public service tradition This book challenges those shibboleths by using the concept of government failure It is concerned with instances of government intervention that are unnecessary generate avoidable inefficiencies or that can be bettered so as to realise general interest goals more efficaciously As an element of the government failure critique a market feasibility test incorporating the concept of market failure is used to expose laxity in the review of general interests under Article 106 2 Complementing that the process of disapplying other Treaty rules under Article 106 2 is shown to have evolved from being strict to being highly indulgent of SGEI providers with a relatively recent but only partial correction post Altmark Overall the strict exception label for Article 106 2 does not hold Moreover it is contingent and presents no legitimate general interest related threat to the organisation and delivery of public services A comprehensive re orientation of Article 106 2 on issues of proof is required as is greater reliance on market counterfactuals and much more careful separation of objectives and means in SGEI operation and design Through these measures the toleration of government failure can be stemmed and Article 106 2 s contingency reduced

Challenges and Reforms of Economic Regulation in MENA Countries Imed Limam,2003 Focuses on the challenges faced by MENA economies to improve their competitiveness in the world economy The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1995

Interconnecting the Network of Networks Eli M. Noam,2001-08-17 This book describes the transformation of telecommunications from national network monopolies to a new system the network of networks and the glue that holds it together interconnection By their very nature monopoly owned networks provided a small number of standardized nationwide services Over the past two decades however new forces in the world economy began to unravel this traditional system The driving force behind the change was the shift toward an information based economy Especially for large organizations the price control security and reliability of telecommunications became variables requiring organized attention Thus monopoly began to give way to the network of networks the foundation of today s telecommunications and Internet infrastructure Taking a broad multidisciplinary perspective Eli Noam discusses the importance and history of interconnection policy as well as recent policy reforms both within the United States and around the globe Other important topics he discusses include interconnection prices the unbundling of interconnection and the technology of interconnection He concludes with an examination of social and policy issues including the free flow of content universal service and privacy protection and the future of telecommunications Deregulatory Takings and the Regulatory Contract J. Gregory Sidak, Daniel F. Spulber, 1997-11-28 This 1998 book addresses deregulatory policies termed deregulatory takings that threaten private property in network industries without compensation Yardstick Competition, 2000 Controlling Market Power in Telecommunications Damien Geradin, Michel Kerf, 2003 Controlling market power is a crucial issue in liberalised telecommunications markets By comparatively analysing five countries this book explores how the regulatory framework should be designed Is the Telecommunications Act of 1996 Broken? J. Gregory Sidak, 1999 Influential industry and government leaders speak out on the first major overhaul of US communications policy in over 60 years Contributors include F Duane Ackerman William P Barr Thomas J Bliley Paul W MacAvoy Richard D McCormick Gregory Sidak Robert D Willig and John D Zeglis Internationalizing the Internet Byung-Keun Kim, 2005-01-01 This compelling book focuses on the global formation of the Internet system It contests the common belief that the Internet s adoption was inevitable and instead examines the social and economic processes that allowed it to prevail over competing standards and methods for achieving a global information infrastructure Researchers and academics involved with science and technology policy industrial and corporate change and the information society will welcome this insightful original and highly pertinent book It will also be of value for anyone with an interest in how the backbone of the digital economy was formed BOOK JACKET
