Telecommunications Regulation:

Telecommunications Regulation John Buckley, 2003-07-18 Telecommunications Regulation discusses typical regulatory rules and the legal and administrative framework for regulation and looks at regulatory strategies market structures and approaches to price control     Telecommunications Regulation Clare Hall, Christopher Hood, Colin Scott, 2005-08-02 Using unprecedented access to the key actors inside the UK Office of Telecommunications OFTEL and supporting interviews this book explores how telecommunications regulation works from the inside     Australian Telecommunications Regulation Alasdair Grant, 2004 Australian Telecommunications Regulation provides an accessible but comprehensive review of Australia's telecommunications regulatory framework Written by experienced insiders it describes the laws and policies affecting competitors and consumers and the regulatory and self-regulatory bodies that administer them The third edition features a new chapter on interconnection pricing and incorporates all recent legislative reforms and policy initiatives including those affecting the telecommunications competition regime and discusses recent key decisions of the ACCC and other agencies     The Law and Regulation of Telecommunications Carriers Henk Brands, Evan T. Leo, 1999 In the wake of the Telecommunications Act of 1996 the true impact of this sweeping legislation is becoming increasingly evident This new casebook provides the first comprehensive up to date coverage of the radical effects this reform has had and continues to have on the entire telecommunications industry and on telephone companies in particular

Policy Diffusion and Telecommunications Regulation Véronique Wavre, 2018-01-22 This study investigates regulatory reforms in the telecommunications sector of Middle Eastern and North African MENA countries It explores telecommunications innovations in three developing economies Morocco Jordan and Egypt with a focus on regional and European trends in telecommunications policies Common knowledge suggests that the European Union and its member states are the main influential regulatory power in the MENA region However the empirical analysis of selected telecommunications regulations universal service obligation USO and spectrum management reveals that reforms are not always determined by European countries but may also originate from other developing countries such as Peru and Chile This finding attests to the rise of regulatory influence from the Global South which challenges traditional transfers of regulations originating from more industrially advanced countries     The Politics Of International Telecommunications Regulation James G Savage, 2019-06-26 This book explains the international telecommunication union and its role in the politics of international telecommunications It focuses on the key areas of frequency spectrum allocation the avoidance of deliberate interference and the setting of international telecommunications standards     The Politics of Telecommunications Regulation: The States and the Divestiture of AT&T Jeffrey E. Cohen, 2019-07-26 Originally published in 1992 This text is a work from a series entitled Bureaucracies Public Administration and Public Policy The Politics of Telecommunication regulation The States and the Divestiture of AT T is an example of high quality policy analysis conducted at state level It substitutes for simple theories of public policy more complex and interesting explanations and relies on massive and time consuming data gathering that gives careful attention to measurement issues providing a sophisticated empirical analysis to evaluate the utility of public policy theories

Regulating Telecommunications in the EU and China Bernd Holznagel, Junqi Xu, Thomas Hart, 2009 Chinese as well as European regulatory decisions need to consider regional particularities but insist on an implementation system that never loses sight of its goal In the area of electronic communications policy this goal is the establishment of a market environment that ensures innovation high quality and affordable prices The present survey aims at improving the process of knowledge exchange between European and Chinese experts and decision makers in Information Society law and policy The EU China Information Society Project asked the authors to assess both the EU's and the Chinese status quo and to bring together both perspectives together in a joint effort to learn from the EU experiences for the Chinese decision making process today

The Economics of Antitrust and Regulation in Telecommunications Pierre A. Buigues, Patrick Rey, 2004-01-01 Contributing to a convergence of legal and economic approaches The Economics of Antitrust and Regulation in Telecommunications integrates economic theory into current EU antitrust policy within the sector The book addresses the role of competition and regulatory policies on a number of key issues in telecommunications such as market definition collective dominance access to networks and allocation of scarce resources

Telecommunications Law and Regulation in Nigeria Uchenna Jerome Orji, 2018-12-19 The Nigerian telecommunications industry has continued to grow in a phenomenal manner following market liberalization reforms that commenced in the 1990s As of 2017 the telecommunications industry was one of the fastest growing economic sectors in Nigeria and the fourth largest contributor to the country's Gross Domestic Product The telecommunications industry however remains a highly technical and naturally dynamic industry that has not been a usual area for legal research in developing countries such as Nigeria This book bridges that gap in knowledge by providing an analysis of the legal and policy instruments that regulate the industry It comprises eleven chapters that discuss the historical evolution of telecommunications and its regulation the development of the Nigerian telecommunications industry from 1886 to 2017 the legal basis for the regulation of the industry the licensing and duties of service providers the regulation of network infrastructure the protection of consumers the regulation of competition interconnection universal access and environmental protection and the resolution of industry disputes This book will be useful to policy makers legislators regulators lawyers law students investors operators and consumers as well as any person interested in the Nigerian telecommunications industry

Multi-Level Regulation in the Telecommunications Sector D. Aubin, K. Verhoest, 2016-04-30 Through a comparison of the telecommunications sectors in four small EU countries an outstanding cast of contributors explore how regulatory authorities at international EU national and regional level within and between sectors coordinate their regulatory decisions in order to provide coherent regulation of markets

The Cable and Telecommunications Professionals' Reference Goff Hill, 2012-07-26 This book is for any telecommunications convergence professional who needs to understand the structure of the industry the structure of telephony networks and services and the equipment involved With the growing variety of networks and technologies now on offer it is inevitable that some convergence will take place between different networks services and products New VOIP voice over internet protocol networks must interwork with traditional networks For instance mobile phones can offer data services wireless broadband connections to laptops will allow VOIP phone calls away from base users could have the option of convergent phones that can be used on a landline when at home or business but which can be used as a mobile when on the move and so on The Politics of Telecommunications Regulation: The States and the Divestiture of AT&T Jeffrey E. Cohen, 2019-07-26 Originally published in 1992 This text is a work from a series entitled Bureaucracies Public Administration and Public Policy The Politics of Telecommunication regulation The States and the Divestiture of AT T is an example of high quality policy analysis conducted at state level It substitutes for simple theories of public policy more complex and interesting explanations and relies on massive and time consuming data gathering that gives careful attention to measurement issues providing a sophisticated empirical analysis to evaluate the utility of public policy theories Vietnam Telecom Industry Business Opportunities Handbook Volume 1 Strategic, Practical Information, Regulations IBP, Inc., 2010-08-06 2011 Updated Reprint Updated Annually Vietnam Telecommunication Industry Business Opportunities Handbook National Regulation and Trade Liberalization in Services Markus Krajewski, 2003-01-01 Like tariffs and other border measures national regulatory barriers impede international trade Unlike tariffs however such barriers usually indicate an important domestic policy choice This conflict of interest has emerged as a crucial issue in international law particularly with regard to services such as telecommunications and health services This study is the first to analyze the potential impact of incompatibilities between national regulatory regimes and the rules and obligations imposed by the General Agreement on Trade in Services GATS In the process of arriving at his challenging concluding theses the author investigates such relevant concepts as the following the political and ideological dynamics of GATS negotiations services trade liberalization in regional integration systems particularly in EC law policies common to diverse national regulatory systems the notions of deregulation and privatization the human rights implications of international trade law the GATS obligations of market access national treatment and most favoured nation treatment the role of the WTO s dispute settlement organs GATS transparency obligations Professor Krajewski s study is of enormous significance to specialists in regulatory policies and instruments at all national and sectoral levels especially in the context of ongoing GATS negotiations As the author warns Unless GATS negotiators and national regulators have a thorough understanding of the relationship between GATS obligations and regulatory policies and instruments they cannot effectively use the flexible elements of GATS and could reach an agreement which they may later regret Macao Telecommunication Industry Business Opportunities Handbook - Strategic Information, Regulations, Opportunities IBP. Communications Sector Liyang Hou, 2012-09-01 This book brings satisfying definition and clarity to this field at last Exploring the substantive differences between competition law and sector specific regulation after the methodological integration it presents the first detailed analysis of the many hundreds of notifications and Commission letters generated under the Article 7 procedure identifying the most relevant cases dealing with market definition market power and remedies It compares these decisions with relevant competition law cases and highlights elements with a bearing on sector specific regulation It also offers hugely valuable guidance through the vast amount of documents in the Commission's CIRCA database Topics and issues raised include the following definition of product markets delineation of geographic markets including sub national different practices in relation to assessing single market power and collective market power and competition problems such as refusal to deal margin squeeze non price discrimination and excessive pricing There can be little doubt that this is the new reference point for researchers and practitioners in this domain By systematically categorizing the concepts and legal criteria and building a solid theoretical framework on the intersection of competition law and sector specific regulation the author has created a resource that is sure to be welcomed by all those involved in regulation of electronic communications markets and network industries in general academic scholars telecommunications regulators at the EU and Member State levels competition authorities law firms specializing in IT communications law practitioners in IT and telecommunications companies and consultants in the sector The book will also prove very useful for scholars and practitioners in other parts of the world interested in comparing the EU system with their own Modern

Economic Regulation Christopher Decker, 2023-06-08 Economic regulation affects us all shaping how we access essential services such as water energy and transport as well as how we communicate with one another in the digital world Modern Economic Regulation describes the core insights of economic theory on which regulatory policies are based and connects this with evidence of how regulation is applied It focuses on fundamental questions such as why are certain industries regulated What principles can inform regulation How is regulation implemented Which regulatory policies have been more or less effective in practice All chapters in this second edition are fully updated to reflect the latest research and evidence while five new chapters cover behavioural economics and the regulation of rail aviation payment systems and digital platforms Each chapter contains discussion questions and topical case studies and online materials include over 60 applied exercises that explore real life regulatory problems from around the world Communications Regulation in the Age of Digital

Convergence Stefan Seifert, 2009 European Telecommunications Liberalisation Kjell A. Eliassen, Marit Sjøvaag Nfa, Marit Sjøvaag, 2013-03-04 This book examines the process and consequences of telecommunications liberalisation in the context of an ever closer European Union The creation of a single market for telecommunications and of a wider European single market mirror one another Telecommunications are also something of a test case for the privatisation process as this sector has traditionally been a state monopoly The volume approaches the European experience from three angles the politics of regulation and the process of liberalisation in the EU including case studies of the UK France and Germany increasing global economic interdependence makes international comparisons essential and the volume compares the EU experience with that of the Czech Republic Israel and Thailand the consequences of technology and continuous innovation
