realist narrative have assumed that realism promotes the values of sameness against those of otherness and that it does so by use of a narrative mode that excludes certain epistemologies ideologies and ways of thinking However the truth is more complex than that as the essays in this volume all demonstrate Realism s Others examines the various strategies by which realist narratives create the idea of difference whether that difference is registered in terms of class ethnicity epistemology nationality or gender The authors in this collection examine in detail not just the fact of otherness in some canonical realist and canonical magical realist and postmodern novels but the actual means by which that otherness is established by the text These essays suggest that neither realist narrative nor narratives positioned as anti realist take otherness for granted rather the texts discussed here actively create difference and this creation of difference often occasions severe difficulties for the novels representational schema How does one represent different types of knowledge other aesthetic modes or other spaces for example in texts whose epistemology has long been seen as secular and empirical whose aesthetic mode has always been approached as pure descriptive mimesis and whose settings are largely domestic These essays all begin with a certain collision of nationalities of classes of representational matrices of religions and go on to chart the challenges that this collision presents to our ideas or stereotypes of realism or to the possibilities of writing against and beyond realism This question motivates examination of key realist or social realist texts in some of these essays by Honor de Balzac George Eliot Franz Grillparzer Theodor Storm Gottfried Keller Theodor Fontane Wilhelm Raabe Mar a Amparo Ruiz de Burton Henry James William Dean Howells Charles Chesnutt Theodore Dreiser H T Tsiang Alan Sillitoe and Richard Yates However it is no less central a question in certain non realist texts which engage realist aims to a surprising degree often to debate them openly some of these essays discuss in this light fantastic magical realist and postmodern works by Abram Tertz Paul Auster Alejo Carpentier Toni Morrison Gabriel Garc a M rquez Salman Rushdie and A S Byatt Realism becomes more than an aesthetic aim or narrative mode It becomes rather a value evoked and discussed by all of the works analyzed here in order to reveal its impact on fiction s treatment of ethnicity nationality ideology space gender and social class

Oedipus in the Trobriands Melford E. Spiro, 2017-07-12 Spiro challenges the argument of Bronislaw Malinowski that the matrilineal society of the Trobriand Islands produced a psychological constellation a matrilineal complex different from Freud s Oedipus complex and the generalization regarding the restrictive provenance of the Oedipus complex to which it gave rise Spiro undertakes a reanalysis of Malinowski s data and shows that there is enough to suggest the presence of a strong Oedipus complex Melford E Spiro is professor emeritus of anthropology at the University of California San Diego where he founded the Anthropology Department in 1968 His other works include Gender and Culture Oedipus in the Trobriands and Culture and Human Nature

Beowulf's Popular Afterlife in Literature, Comic Books, and Film Kathleen Forni, 2018-08-06 Beowulf s presence on the popular cultural radar has increased in the past two decades coincident with cultural crisis and change Why By way of a fusion of cultural studies adaptation theory and monster theory Beowulf s Popular Afterlife examines a wide range of Anglo American retellings and appropriations found in literary texts comic books and film The most remarkable feature of popular adaptations of the poem is that its monsters frequently victims of organized militarism male aggression or social injustice are provided with strong motives for their retaliatory brutality Popular adaptations invert the heroic ideology of the poem and monsters are not only created by powerful men but are projections of their own pathological behavior At the same time there is no question that the monsters created by human malfeasance must be eradicated

Incest in contemporary literature Miles Leeson,2018-08-06 This is the first edited collection of essays which focuses on the incest taboo and its literary and cultural presentation from the 1950s to the present day It considers a number of key authors and artists rather than a single author from this period The collection exposes the wide use of incest and sexual trauma and the frequency this appears within contemporary literature and related arts Incest in contemporary literature discusses the impact of this change in attitudes on literature and literary adaptations in the latter half of the twentieth century and early years of the twenty first century Although primarily concerned with fiction the collection includes work on television and film Authors discussed include Iain Banks A S Byatt Angela Carter Simone de Beauvoir Ted Hughes Doris Lessing Ian McEwan Iris Murdoch Vladimir Nabokov Andrea Newman and Pier Pasolini and Sylvia Plath Feminism, Literature and Rape Narratives Sorcha Gunne,Zoe Brigley Thompson,2012-08-06 The essays in this volume discuss narrative strategies employed by international writers when dealing with rape and sexual violence whether in fiction poetry memoir or drama In developing these new feminist readings of rape narratives the contributors aim to incorporate arguments about trauma and resistance in order to establish new dimensions of healing This book makes a vital contribution to the fields of literary studies and feminism since while other volumes have focused on retroactive portrayals of rape in literature to date none has focused entirely on the subversive work that is being done to retheorize sexual violence Split into four sections the volume considers sexual violence from a number of different angles Subverting the Story considers how the characters of the victim and rapist might be subverted in narratives of sexual violence In Metaphors for Resistance the essays explore how writers approach the subject of rape obliquely using metaphors to represent their suffering and pain The controversy of not speaking about sexual violence is the focus of The Protest of Silence while The Question of the Visual considers the problems of making sexual violence visible in the poetic image in film and on stage These four sections cover an impressive range of world writing which includes curriculum staples like Toni Morrison Sarah Kane Sandra Cisneros Yvonne Vera and Sharon Olds Writing the Survivor Robin E. Field,2020-07-15 Writing the Survivor The Rape Novel in Late Twentieth Century American Fiction identifies a new genre of American fiction the rape novel that recenters narratives of sexual violence on the survivors of violence and abuse rather than the perpetrators The rape novel arose during the women s liberation movement as women writers collectively challenged the traditional erasure of female subjectivity and agency found in earlier representations of sexual violence in American fiction The rape novel not only foregrounds survivors and their stories in a textual centering that affirms their dignity and self worth but also develops new narratological strategies for portraying violent disturbing subject matter In bringing together many key women s texts of the last decades of the 20th century the rape novel demonstrates the centrality of sexual assault to women s fiction of this era The rape novels of the 21st century continue the political activism inherent in the genre educating readers offering community to survivors and encouraging social activism as the stories of male survivors are increasingly told A radical reconsideration of late twentieth century American novels Writing the Survivor underscores the importance of women s activism upon the novel s form and content and reveals the portrayal of rape as rape to be an interethnic imperative
