The Utility of Proximity-Based Herbicide Exposure Assessment in Epidemiologic Studies of Vietnam Veterans Institute of Medicine,Board on Military and Veterans Health,Committee on Making Best Use of the Agent Orange Exposure Reconstruction Model,2008-04-15 A fundamental challenge in past studies evaluating whether health problems experienced by Vietnam veterans might be linked to wartime use of Agent Orange or other herbicides has been a lack of information about the veterans level of exposure to these herbicides To address that problem researchers developed a model to assess the opportunity for herbicide exposure among these veterans The Utility of Proximity Based Herbicide Exposure Assessment in Epidemiologic Studies of Vietnam Veterans presents the conclusions and recommendations of an Institute of Medicine committee IOM that was convened to provide guidance to the Department of Veterans Affairs VA about the best use of a model to characterize exposure to the troops based on their proximity to herbicide spraying in Vietnam This book s assessment is guided by four primary considerations to be clear about what the assessment model does and does not claim to do to gain understanding of the strengths and limitations of data on herbicide spraying troop locations and health outcomes to consider whether the model locates spraying and troops accurately to consider the potential contributions and pitfalls of using it in epidemiologic studies Of particular interest in these deliberations were the degree to which exposure classification might be improved if the model were to be used and the appropriate interpretation of the results of any such studies In light of the questions that remain concerning herbicide exposure and health among Vietnam veterans and the array of evidence that has thus far been brought to bear on that issue The Utility of Proximity Based Herbicide Exposure Assessment in Epidemiologic Studies of Vietnam Veterans concludes that the application of this model offers a constructive approach to extending knowledge about the effects of herbicides on the health of these veterans and merits the initial steps recommended in our report

The Maximilian Emancipation Charles Conyers, Jr.,2017-06-17 This is Book 1 of 3 in the World Time Diaspora trilogy It s the summer of 2041 One year earlier America elected its first Mexican American president Unemployment is at a record low the economy is humming and opportunities are plentiful but not for everyone The white population is now in the minority with some feeling threatened and surrounded by the changing demographics as if they are on the verge of extinction These folks migrate to the upper northwest of the US to form an unofficial white ethnostate which is mockingly known as the Caucasian Caliphate Some feel the heat of a second Civil War simmering A controversial political talk show host named Gerry Baines makes a proclamation about God's intervention to cure America's woes via an existential breaking point in the form of a major but unknown event. One week later on August 8th three African slave ships appear out of thin air in Kips Bay between NY and NJ. A special team led by Secretary of State Lucy Fender in town for a UN Conference is recruited to investigate the mysterious appearance of the ships. The team includes a quantum physicist named Kiki Bishop, a university professor named Joseph Healey, and his friend and colleague Maxmilian Oroko, an African language specialist and historian. Onorede Madaki is a warrior from the Krou tribe in 17th Century Africa. He embarks on what his village elders believe is an insane mission to seek out and be purposefully captured by the pale face ghosts invading their land and rumored to abduct people from neighboring tribes for nefarious and possibly cannibalistic horrors. While imprisoned on a slave ship during its Middle Passage, he and two of his tribesmen wind up on one of the ships caught in the time travel event. Meanwhile in the 27th Century, a mysterious man has accomplished the impossible but at what cost. Part satire, part historical drama, and spanning over thousands of years, this is a story that asks the question: If you could go back in time, could you prevent African slavery?

Wounds Robert J. Topmiller, T. Kirby Neill, 2015-12-03. The victims of US military campaigns are usually nameless civilians in far away places, but there are also victims closer to home: the soldiers so often used and then discarded by the establishment. Binding Their Wounds is a book about US veterans written by a US veteran. Bob Doc Topmiller fought in Vietnam, founded a school for orphans there, and became a professor of history before he tragically committed suicide. Close friend and scholar Kirby Neill stepped in to complete the book. The result is a history of US veterans and their treatment by the US establishment from the early republic to the recent wars in Iraq and Afghanistan. Binding Their Wounds offers policy recommendations to improve post conflict treatment and care for veterans, which are long overdue.
