Stepping Forward Catherine Higgs, Barbara A. Moss, Earline Rae Ferguson, 2002 Annotation Presents the edited proceedings of a conference held at the University of Tennessee in September 1999 at which academics from South Africa Jamaica and the US compare the experiences of 19th and 20th century black women in Africa and African diaspora communities The volume s 18 contributions range from the theme of witchcraft and taxes in the Transkei South Africa to women and the Civil Rights Movement in Claiborne County Mississippi Annotation c 2003 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com The Paradoxes of History and Memory in Post-Colonial Sierra Leone Sylvia Ojukutu-Macauley, Ismail Rashid, 2013-10-10 This anthology reflects the complex processes in the production of historical knowledge and memory about Sierra Leone and its diaspora since the 1960s The processes while emblematic of experiences in other parts of Africa contain their own distinctive features The fragments of these memories are etched in the psyche bodies and practices of Africans in Africa and other global landscapes and on the other hand are embedded in the various discourses and historical narratives about the continent and its peoples Even though Africans have reframed these discourses and narratives to reclaim and re center their own worldviews agency and experiences since independence they remained until recently heavily sedimented with Western colonialist and racist ideas and frameworks This anthology engages and interrogates the differing frameworks that have informed the different practices professional as well as popular of retelling the Sierra Leonean past In a sense therefore it is concerned with the familiar outline of the story of the making and unmaking of an African nation and its constituent race ethnic class and cultural fragments from colonialism to the present Yet Sierra Leone the oldest and quintessential British colony and most Pan African country in the continent provides interesting twists to this familiar outline The contributors to this volume who consist of different generations of very accomplished and prominent scholars of Sierra Leone in Africa the United States and Europe provide their own distinctive reflections on these twists based on their research interests which cover ethnicity class gender identity formation nation building resistance and social conflict Their contributions engage various paradoxes and transformative moments in Sierra Leone and West African history They also reflect the changing modes of historical practice and perspectives over the last fifty years of independence

Gendering Global Transformations Chima J. Korie, Philomina E Okeke-Ihejirika, 2008-11-19 The authors collected in Gendering Global Transformations Gender Culture Race and Identity probe the effects of global and local forces in reshaping notions of gender race class identity human rights and community across Africa and its Diaspora The essays in this unique collection employ diverse interdisciplinary approaches drawing from subjects such as history sociology religion anthropology gender studies feminist studies in an effort to centralize gender as a category of analysis in developing critical perspectives in a globalizing world From this approach come a host of exciting insights and subtle analyses that serve to illuminate the effects of issues such as international migration globalization and cultural continuities among diaspora communities on the articulation of women's agency community organization and identity formation at the local and the global level Bringing together the voices of scholars from Africa Europe and the United States Gendering Global Transformations Gender Culture Race and Identity offers a multi national and wholly original perspective on the intricacies of life in a globalized era

Sorcery and Sovereignty Sean Redding,2006 Publisher description      New Perspectives on the Sierra Leone Krio Mac Dixon-Fyle,Gibril Raschid Cole,2006 The ex slave Krio population of Freetown Sierra Leone an amalgam of ethnicities drawn from several parts of the African continent is a fascinating study in hybridity creolization European cultural penetration the retention of African cultural values and the interface between New World returnees and autochthonous populations of West Africa Although its Nigerian connections are often acknowledged insufficient attention has been paid to the indigenous Sierra Leonean roots of this community This anthology addresses this problem while celebrating the complexities of Krio identity and Krio interaction with other ethnic groups and nationalities in the British colonial experience      Indiana's 200 Linda C. Swain,Elizabeth Anne Payne,Marjorie Julian Spruill,2010-02-01 Some of the women are well known others were prominent in their time but have since faded into obscurity and a few have never received the attention they deserve BOOK JACKET      Africa and the Americas Richard M. Juang,Noelle Morrisette,2008-03-12 This encyclopedia explores the many long standing influences of Africa and people of African descent on the culture of the Americas while tracing the many ways in which the Americas remain closely interconnected with Africa Ranging from the 15th century to the present Africa and the Americas Culture Politics and History explores the many ways Africa and African peoples have shaped the cultural life of the Americas and how in turn life in the Americas reverberates in Africa This groundbreaking three volume encyclopedia offers hundreds of alphabetically organized entries on African history nations and peoples plus African influenced aspects of life in the Americas It also features authoritative introductory essays on history culture and religion demography international relations economics and trade and arts and literature In doing so it traces the complex and continuous movement of peoples of African descent to the West the mechanics and lingering effects of colonialism and the slave trade and the crucial issues of cultural retention and adaptation that are essential to our understanding of the effects of globalization      In India and East Africa E-Indiya nase East Africa Davidson Don Tengo Jabavu,Tina Steiner,Mhlobo Jadezweni,Catherine Higgs,Evan M. Mwangi,2020-02-01 A politician's journey to bring home

Mahatma Gandhi's teachings home to South Africa in the wake of WWII In November 1949 Davidson Don Tengo D D T Jabavu the South African politician Methodist lay preacher and retired professor of African languages and Latin at Fort Hare University in the Eastern Cape set out on a four month trip to attend the World Pacifist Meeting in India The conference brought together delegates from over thirty countries to reflect on how Mahatma Gandhi's life and teachings could inform pacifist work in the post World War II era Jabavu wrote an isiXhosa account of his journey up the east coast of Africa and to different parts of India which was first published in 1951 by Lovedale Press His narrative contains wide ranging reflections on the fauna and flora of the changing landscape on intriguing social interactions during his travels and on the conference itself where he considered what lessons Gandhian principles might yield for oppressed South Africans engaged in struggles for freedom and dignity He incorporates accounts of chance meetings with important figures of post independence India and of the anti colonial struggle in East Africa as well as with members of the American civil rights movement His commentary on non violent resistance and on the dangers of nationalism when coupled with militarism and racism enriches the existing archive of intellectual and political exchange between Africa and India from a black South African perspective This new edition includes Jabavu's travelogue in the original isiXhosa with an English translation by the late anthropologist Cecil Wele Manona Tina Steiner's introductory chapter examines the networks of international solidarity and friendship that Jabavu helped to strengthen in the course of his travels A chapter by Mhlobo W Jadezwi whose updating of the original isiXhosa orthography has made Jabavu's text accessible to new generations of readers considers the richness of Jabavu's isiXhosa style as a contribution to the archive of great African language literature Catherine Higgs provides biographical sketches of D D T Jabavu and Cecil Wele Manona which situate this travelogue within the broader context of their lives Evan M Mwangi's Afterword is a reflection on the historical and political significance of making African language texts available to readers across Africa

Michelle Obama's Impact on African American Women and Girls Michelle Duster, Paula Marie Seniors, Rose C. Thevenin, 2018-08-17 This edited collection explores how First Lady Michelle Obama gradually expanded and broadened her role by engaging in social political and economic activities which directly and indirectly impacted the lives of the American people especially young women and girls The volume responds to the various representations of Michelle Obama and how the language and images used to depict her either affirmed offended represented or misrepresented her and its authors It is an interdisciplinary evaluation by African American women and girls of the First Lady's overall impact through several media including original artwork and poetry It also examines her political activities during and post election 2016

Human Rights, the Rule of Law, and Development in Africa Paul Tiyaambe Zeleza, Philip J. McConaughay, 2011-06-07 Changes in human rights environments in Africa over the past decade have been facilitated by astounding political transformations the rise of mass movements and revolts driven by democratic and developmentalist ideals as well as mass murder and poverty perpetuated by desperate regimes and discredited global agencies Human Rights the Rule of Law and Development in Africa seeks to make sense of human rights in Africa through the lens of its triumphs and tragedies its uneven developments and complex demands The volume makes a significant contribution to the debate about the connections between the protection of human rights and the pursuit of economic development by interrogating the paradigms politics and practices of human rights in Africa Throughout the essays emphasize that democratic and human rights regimes are products of concrete social struggles not simply textual or legal discourses Including some of Africa s leading scholars jurists and human rights activists contributors to the volume diverge from Western theories of African democratization by rejecting the continental view of an Africa blighted by failure disease and economic malaise It argues instead that Africa has strengthened and shaped international law such as the right to self determination inspired by the process of decolonization and the definition of the refugee Insisting on the holistic view that human rights are as much about economic and social rights as they are about civil and political rights the contributors offer novel analyses of African conceptions experiences and aspirations of human rights which manifest themselves in complex global regional and local idioms Further they explore the varied constructions of human rights in African and Western discourses and the roles played by states and NGOs in promoting or subverting human rights Combining academic analysis with social concern intellectual discourse with civic engagement and scholarly research with institution building this is a compelling and original approach to the question whether externally inspired solutions to African human rights issues have validity in a postcolonial world

Travel and the Pan African Imagination Tracy Keith Flemming, 2021-09-02 Travel and the Pan African Imagination explores the African Atlantic world as a productive theater or space where modernity racialized dominance and racialized resistance took form The book stresses the importance of placing three Atlantic figures the Charleston South Carolina based armed resistance leader Denmark Vesey the West African emigration advocate Edward Wilmot Blyden and the Christian missionary and teacher in Liberia as well as the United States Alexander Crummell within an Atlantic context and as African world community figures between the late eighteenth and early twentieth centuries The book also examines the religious origins of Black Power ideology and modern Pan Africanism as products of the intense dialogue within the African world community about concepts of modernity progress and civilization Tracy Keith Flemming identifies how travel and social mobility led to the generation of an ever more complex and dynamic Atlantic world and of a fluid and adaptive African world community imagination for those figures who were forced to operate within and against a racially framed universe The vexing social position and symbolic figure of the African was central to the dilemmas facing the racialized imagination of African world community figures and the discipline of Africology      Upbuilding Black Durham Leslie Brown, 2009-11-17 In the 1910s both W E B Du Bois and Booker T Washington praised the black community in Durham North Carolina for its exceptional race progress Migration urbanization and industrialization had turned black Durham from a post Civil War liberation community into the capital of the black middle class African Americans owned and operated mills factories churches schools and an array of retail services shops community organizations and race institutions Using interviews narratives and family stories Leslie Brown animates the history of this remarkable city from emancipation to the civil rights era as freedpeople and their descendants struggled among themselves and with whites to give meaning to black freedom Brown paints Durham in the Jim Crow era as a place of dynamic change where despite common aspirations gender and class conflicts emerged Placing African American women at the center of the story Brown describes how black Durham s multiple constituencies experienced a range of social conditions Shifting the historical perspective away from seeing solidarity as essential to effective struggle or viewing dissent as a measure of weakness Brown demonstrates that friction among African Americans generated rather than depleted energy sparking many activist initiatives on behalf of the black community

Bush Wives and Girl Soldiers Chris Coulter,2011-03-15 During the war in Sierra Leone 1991 2002 members of various rebel movements kidnapped thousands of girls and women some of whom came to take an active part in the armed conflict alongside the rebels In a stunning look at the life of women in wartime Chris Coulter draws on interviews with more than a hundred women to bring us inside the rebel camps in Sierra Leone When these girls and women returned to their home villages after the cessation of hostilities their families and peers viewed them with skepticism and fear while humanitarian organizations saw them primarily as victims Neither view was particularly helpful in helping them resume normal lives after the war Offering lessons for policymakers practitioners and activists Coulter shows how prevailing notions of gender both in home communities and among NGO workers led for instance to women who had taken part in armed conflict being bypassed in the demilitarization and demobilization processes carried out by the international community in the wake of the war Many of these women found it extremely difficult to return to their families and without institutional support some were forced to turn to prostitution to eke out a living Coulter weaves several themes through the work including the nature of gender roles in war livelihood options in war and peace and how war and postwar experiences affect social and kinship relations

Traversing Boundaries: Retrospectives on Gendered Racism in the Lives of African-American Schoolgirls in the 80s Kendra Patrice Cabrera,2009      The Great Black Migration Steven A. Reich,2014-04-17 Treating broad themes as well as specific topics this guide to the Great Black Migration will introduce high school students to a touchstone critical to shaping the history of African Americans in the United States The movement of Southern blacks to the urban North and West over the course of the 20th century had a profound impact on black life affecting everything from politics and labor to literature and the popular arts This encyclopedia provides readers and researchers with a comprehensive reference work on this central topic of African American history exploring the breadth of the black migration experience from its origins in the agricultural economy of the post Civil War South to the return migration of the late 20th century Entries cover such topics as the destinations that attracted black migrants the impact of the Great Migration on black religion the relationship between migration and black politics and the patterns of discrimination and racial violence migrants encountered Unlike more general reference works on African American history each entry in the encyclopedia situates its subject within the context of black migration and articulates connections between the subject of the entry and the overall history of the migration Maria Baldwin's Worlds Kathleen Weiler,2020-01-15 This well written biography of an intriguing black educator is strong on narrative recovering Baldwin s life from obscurity with sound scholarship Jeffrey Aaron Snyder author of Making Black History In the late nineteenth century Maria Baldwin established a unique place for herself as a highly respected educator at a largely white New England school She also used her social standing to advance the African American cause As an activist she carried on the radical spirit of the Boston area s renowned abolitionists In Maria Baldwin s Worlds Kathleen Weiler reveals both Baldwin s victories and what fellow activist W E B Du Bois called her quiet courage in everyday life in the context of the wider black freedom struggle in New England African American sociologist Adelaide Cromwell called Baldwin the lone symbol of Negro progress in education in the greater Boston area during her lifetime Baldwin fought alongside more radical activists like William Monroe Trotter for full citizenship for fellow members of the black community And in her professional and personal life she negotiated and challenged dominant white ideas about black womanhood Identity Re-creation in Global African Encounters John Ayotunde Isola Bewaji,Adedoyin Aguoru,2019-08-07 Identity Re creation in Global African Encounters explores race racial politics and racial transformation in the context of Africa s encounters with non African communities through various perspectives including oppression racialization of ethnic difference and identity deconstruction While the contributors recognize that ethnicity has long been a staple analytical category of engagements between African and non African communities they present a holistic view of the continent and its diaspora through race outside of both colonial and neocolonial binaries allowing for a more nuanced study of Africa and its diaspora The ANC and the Liberation Struggle in South Africa Thula Simpson,2018-10-03 The history of the ANC which is the oldest liberation movement on the African continent is one that has generated a great deal of interest amongst historians in recent years Gone are the days when the history of African nationalism could be relegated to the margins of the study of the South African past Instead with the ANC having ascended to the helm of political power a position it has maintained for over twenty years there can be no question that its history occupies an important and permanent place in the history of the nation This volume gathers together some of the most important contributions to the literature on the ANC s role in South Africa s struggle for liberation Besides important themes such as gender ethnicity and healthcare contributions from leading historians also address why the ANC decided to engage in armed struggle what role the South African Communist Party played in making this decision how the ANC External Mission contributed to the upsurge of mass protest in South Africa in the 1970s and 1980s and the ANC s contribution relative to the other components of the liberation struggle in ensuring the eventual demise of the old racial order The chapters in this book were originally published in the South African Historical Journal the Journal of Southern African Studies and African Studies Edward W. Blyden's Intellectual Transformations Harry N. K.

Odamtten,2019-08-01 Distinguished by its multidisciplinary dexterity this book is a masterfully woven reinterpretation of the life travels and scholarship of Edward W Blyden arguably the most influential Black intellectual of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries It traces Blyden s various moments of intellectual transformation through the multiple lenses of ethnicity race religion and identity in the historical context of Atlantic exchanges the Back to Africa movement colonialism and the global Black intellectual movement In this book Blyden is shown as an African public intellectual who sought to reshape ideas about Africa circulating in the Atlantic world The author also highlights Blyden s contributions to different public spheres in Europe in the Jewish Diaspora in the Muslim and Christian world of West Africa and among Blacks in the United States Additionally this book places Blyden at the pinnacle of Afropublicanism in order to emphasize his public intellectualism his rootedness in the African historical experience and the scholarship he produced about Africa and the African Diaspora As Blyden is an important contributor to African studies among other disciplines this volume makes for critical scholarly reading
