

The image features a central, blue, textured face that resembles a stone or metal mask. The face has a serene expression with a slight smile. Above the forehead is a crown-like structure composed of concentric circles and radiating lines. From this crown, numerous bright, multi-colored light rays (yellow, orange, red, purple) burst outwards, creating a starburst effect. The face is framed by a series of black, stylized, leaf-like or petal-like shapes that form a circular border. The background is dark, making the blue face and the bright light rays stand out.
