Steven Ehrlich Architects Steven Ehrlich,1998 Steven Ehrlich Architects One of an emerging group of important young architects from Southern California Steven Ehrlich explores the vitality of serene yet kinetic forms and spaces the richness of texture and materials and the relationship of architecture to community The work of Steven Ehrlich Architects is distinctly modern yet informed by the simplicity and directness of vernacular forms and a vigorous sensitivity to the urban conditions of the Pacific Century Their designs represent the intersection of cultural influences as diverse as traditional African mud construction the ancient Chinese discipline of feng shui and California s Latino community Steven Ehrlich Architects encompasses commercial and institutional projects Sixteen houses are presented in the book the majority in Southern California and others near San Francisco and Houston These designs are characterized by the fusion of powerful simple forms with the cultural climatic and contextual particulars of place Accompanying the drawings and luxurious color photography are sketches and source material that reveal the genesis of the design as well as the completed project As Ehrlich says Blurring the boundaries between the built and natural environment our designs merge California modernism with vernacular design elements Through details and materials we maximize the home owner s connection with the site and natural surroundings

Steven Ehrlich ,1995 Architecture like any profession involves the mastery of a systematic body of knowledge and skills acquired through study reflection and repetition But to truly succeed architecture must also achieve a cultural and aesthetic synthesis that enriches our existence through its art This volume surveys 19 projects by Santa Monica architect Steven Ehrlich Like the city of Los Angeles itself Ehrlich s architecture embraces change and is constantly evolving Ehrlich subscribes to a comprehensible culture of Modernism in which tradition and innovation are intricately dependent upon one another with innovation stemming from tradition and tradition based on reinterpretation A dynamic tension runs through Ehrlich s architecture both residential and public a counterpoint between solid primitive surfaces and mass juxtaposed with high tech materials For example the Shatto Recreation Center with its single sweep of galvanized metal roof over an Aztec concrete block box echoes the indigenous structures Ehrlich admired in Africa as it proclaims his interest in the future
