Steven Spielberg: Lights, Camera, Emotion Fabricio Sales Silva, 2025-05-06 From a very young age I always knew that my passion for cinema was not just a hobby but a calling I learned very early on that fear can be a great motivator When I was making Jaws I faced numerous technical and logistical challenges that made me question whether we could finish the film But it was this fear that pushed me to find creative solutions which eventually defined the film's success Fear is not a signal to retreat but an impulse to move forward with more courage I understood that curiosity is the key to keeping passion alive I've always strived to tell stories that challenge not only the audience but also myself Exploring themes ranging from the sheer adventure in Indiana Jones to the ethical dilemmas in Minority Report kept me engaged and constantly learning Curiosity is what drives us to explore to discover and ultimately to understand a little more about ourselves and the world around us Finally one of the biggest lessons I've learned is about the power of empathy The ability to see the world through someone else's eyes is what truly enriches our lives It guided me not only as a filmmaker but also as a person Through my films I have tried to open a window into different cultures histories and emotions fostering a deeper understanding and greater connection between people
