Curacy Express Robert M. Lewis, 2016-06-17 The twenty first century church is increasingly placing recently trained seminary or locally trained clergy in smaller churches where they must stand alone without the training under a senior pastor Since leadership in a church and academic preparation in seminary are two very different things the church historically developed a history of offering curacies or training assistantships to help blend the two disciplines and merge classroom knowledge into practical application Today these formal assistantships are mostly a thing of the past Curacy Express A Training Resource for New Clergy reconfigures this training into a current model New clergy serving in their own church and mentor clergy serving in another church work together over a course of thirty three self paced learning modules In each module the newly ordained person gains valuable skills mentor's observations and reflections new confidence and leadership formation The result is clergy trained to be competent and confident in their roles as clergy in charge Luke

Thomas W. Walker, 2000-11-01 While others might tell stories claiming the world is without promise Luke presents the narrative of Jesus Christ as good news challenge and hope For Luke this is the only story that makes sense of the past offers guidance for the present and secures hope for the future Interpretation Bible Studies IBS offers solid biblical content in a creative study format Forged in the tradition of the celebrated Interpretation commentary series IBS makes the same depth of biblical insight available in a dynamic flexible and user friendly resource Designed for adults and older youth IBS can be used in small groups in church school classes in large group presentations or in personal study Helping Students Become

Climate Stewards Xochitl Bentley, 2025-10-30 This resource examines the way storytelling can play a role in environmental problem solving and climate stewardship Narrative not only builds literacy but also fosters students critical thinking around the ways they inhabit their world The author examines habits myths and mindsets that threaten our planet's ecosystems and presents counter stories you can use to build your middle and secondary students capacity for environmental advocacy

Chapters are organized around a framework for developing environmental literacy each focusing on how storytelling can build the capacity for various roles within the realm of climate stewardship Via practical entry points and pathways for lesson and unit design educators can use narrative to help students envision themselves as systems thinkers communicators activists problem solvers and more Each chapter uses different kinds of narratives from fictional parables to comic storyboards to present practices students can understand and try out They also include case studies writing exercises lesson suggestions planning tool organizers and rubrics applicable throughout different curriculum areas Ideal for any secondary educator grappling with the uncertainties around climate change in their classroom this resource introduces and encourages inquiry investigation through the power of storytelling to cultivate climate stewardship

The Pastor'S Diary William R. Phillippe,2015-09-11 For many years people have asked me to write about my theology and I have consistently said that I could tell them what I thought at that particular day but that it would be different tomorrow which is to say that I strongly believe that theology is a growing thing constantly changing within the context of a changing society The book became much more autobiographical than I intended I discovered that my theology changed because of any experiences I had I have described my story chronologically beginning with my early years and how the myth of Christianity was implanted in my mind I go on to show how I got involved in the church during high school and college and discovered others had different myths than I did This expanding awareness gave me the stimulus to take a hard look at my own myth Several professors at both college and seminary helped me through the changes in my understanding of the Christian faith and I describe via some of my writings what those were In my first congregation a new church development and in subsequent ones I realized that we understate our laity and their desire to learn about new concepts has come with further study of scholars I came to trust that desire and began to preach and teach not only the churchs dogmatics but also the results of creative imagination and the discovery of many scholars throughout the world and from many religious perspectives My final chapter is entitled So What Do You Believe In this I make an attempt to pull together the various and growing concepts of my thought throughout my fifty plus years in the ordained ministry of the Presbyterian Church From experience I know laypersons would be interested in this book In addition pastors and other religious professionals I think would find it helpful as they go through their own theological pilgrimage

The Core and More W. David Crockett,1983 Bible Stories You Never Heard Before - or Not Like This! William R. Phillippe,2020-03-31 This book is a series of stories from the Old Testament as they may have been told around the campfires by our mothers and fathers of our faith The author admits that the way he tells them may not have been the way they were told in those ancient years But he preserves the basic stories and tells them with what he feels was the humor and instruction told around the campfires While he also admits that his conclusions may not have been theirs he feels that the basic education and joy in them leads still to sound enlightenment today
