Cosi Kerrie Piper, 2003 Legends of Our Times Morgan Baillargeon, Leslie Tepper, 2011-11-01 Throughout the world the cowboy is an instantly recognized symbol of the North American West Legends of Our Times breaks the stereotype of cowboys and Indians to show an almost unknown side of the West It tells the story of some of the first cowboys Native peoples of the northern Plains and Plateau Through stories poetry art and reminiscences in this lavishly illustrated work Native people invite the reader on a fascinating journey into the world of ranching and rodeo The book also presents the special relationship between Native people and animals such as the horse buffalo deer and dog which have always played an important role in Native spiritual and economic life By the mid nineteenth century Native people were highly valued for their skills in horse breeding and herding and could take advantage of new economic opportunities in the emerging ranching industry Faced with limited resources competition for land and control by governments and Indian agents many Native people still managed to develop their own herds or to find work as cowboys As the ways of the Old West changed new forms of entertainment and sport evolved Impresarios such as Buffalo Bill Cody invented the Wild West show employing Native actors and stunt performers to dramatize scenes from the history of the West and to demonstrate the friendly competitions that cowboys enjoyed at the end of a long round up or cattle drive The popularity of rodeos also grew within Native communities and arenas were built on many reserves Native rodeos are still held while many Native competitors ride in professional rodeos as well Today Plains and Plateau peoples proudly continue a long tradition of cowboying Legends of Our Times is a celebration of their rich contribution to ranching and rodeo life Jung and the Story of Our Time Laurens van der Post, 1976-10-12 The fascination of Jung is inescapable and van der Post has given us an excellent book eloquent learned and most impressive in its evocation of a devilishly provocative man The Nation That Laurens van der Post should have chosen to write about Jung will come as no surprise to the millions of people who saw the three television programs that he devoted to the story of Jung s life and work Indeed part of the compulsion for putting the experience of his extraordinarily fruitful friendship with Jung into book form was precisely that the limitations of a single film sequence left him with the insistent feeling of a challenge only partially met To present Jung as he knew him not Jung the psychologist but rather Jung the man the discoverer and explorer of a new dimension in the human spirit was the task which Laurens van der Post set himself and which has taken his special gifts to accomplish Realities: Stories from Our Times Carmen Subryan, 2016-08-05 These short stories are meant to reflect issues affecting the lives of many in today's society Most of them have unexpected endings that though sometimes shocking are occasionally results of the situations depicted These stories such as Retribution which focuses on elder abuse Revenge which explores the effects of sexual abuse Resolution which examines elder care issues and Dreamer which pinpoints issues with elder gambling delve deep within the characters consciousness to discover sources of pain The stories should not only start a dialogue about these issues but also help volume of collected short stories and vignettes In Our Time was Ernest Hemingway's first commercial publication. Its appearance in 1925 launched the full-fledged literary career of this century's most famous American fiction writer. And while other later works of Hemingway have eclipsed In Our Time's fame, none of Hemingway's subsequent works would again carry the degree of experimentation found in this distinctly modernist masterwork.

Modernism and Tradition in Ernest Hemingway's In Our Time A Guide for Students and Readers is a well-paced, lucidly written handbook intended to guide university students and teaching faculty towards a better understanding of this complex work. It provides a reading of each story and vignette while simultaneously stressing the status of In Our Time as a discrete volume. Included are discussions of the book's biographical and historical background and considerations of Hemingway's prose style, theories of writing, formal achievements, his literary mentors and influences, and the relation between In Our Time and his later works.

Matthew C. Stewart is Associate Professor of Humanities and Rhetoric at Boston University.

Taken Alive; And Other Stories, With An Autobiography Edward Payson Roe, 2023-02-08 Reproduction of the original.

Short Stories of Our Time Douglas R. Barnes, 1985-04 Short Stories of Our Time is a selection of 13 short stories by contemporary authors, all with 20th-century urban settings. The stories have been chosen to appeal to students who are impatient with the classics but respond to stories which illuminate the reality they know.

In Our Times Don Campbell, 2015-02-25 In Our Times is an eclectic collection of short stories which shimmer like butterflies at once original yet showing traces of colour from such writers as Chekhov, Hemingway, and Borges. The panorama of drug addiction, homelessness, despair, first love, destroyed ambition, and remarkable achievement are witnessed like bright colours in a darkening sky.

Some Eminent Women of Our Times: Short Biographical Sketches Millicent Garrett Fawcett, 2019-12-09 In Some Eminent Women of Our Times: Short Biographical Sketches, Millicent Garrett Fawcett presents a rich tapestry of narratives celebrating the lives and accomplishments of notable women who shaped the socio-political landscape of her era. Ranging from activists to artists, Fawcett employs a biographical style that is both engaging and illuminating, weaving personal anecdotes with contextual analysis to highlight the struggles and triumphs of women in a patriarchal society. The book serves as both an historical document and a compelling argument for women's rights, contextualized within the suffrage movement that deeply influenced Fawcett's own advocacy work, thereby situating these figures as not just individuals but as pivotal agents of change in a transformative epoch.

Millicent Garrett Fawcett was a prominent English suffragist and a public intellectual celebrated for her unwavering commitment to women's rights throughout her life. Her extensive involvement with the suffrage movement, particularly as the president of the National Union of Women's Suffrage Societies informed her understanding of the challenges women faced. These experiences alongside her background in education and activism provided her with a unique insight into the importance of recognizing women's achievements and contributions to society. This meticulously crafted collection is a valuable resource for anyone interested in women's history, social justice, or the evolution of feminist thought. Fawcett's appreciation for her subjects not only inspires admiration but challenges readers to consider the broader implications of women's roles in society. Engaging, informative, and thought provoking, Fawcett's work is an essential addition to both scholarly libraries and the personal collections of those passionate about social reform.

The Spiritual Signature of our Time Ueli Hurter, Justus Wittich, 2021-10-14. What can we read in the fast moving events of recent times? Is there a theme, a spiritual signature that should be recognized and understood? Following on from the book of essays Perspectives and Initiatives in the Times of Coronavirus, key figures from the School of Spiritual Science at the Goetheanum assess critical societal issues in a series of striking lectures. In the context of the continuing Covid 19 pandemic, the speakers address questions such as: Are we making a religion out of science? How is our behaviour mirrored in the ecosystem? and What effects do inner work and meditation have on the healing powers of the human being? Offering scientific, artistic, historic and sociological viewpoints, their research is based on expert knowledge and practice in various disciplines such as medicine, agriculture and education. Uppermost in their analysis, however, is the spiritual dimension of the human being. The book also deals with misrepresentations and misinterpretations of anthroposophy. The School of Spiritual Science, with its centre in Dornach, Switzerland, has eleven sections that are active internationally in research, development, teaching and practical implementation of findings. The work of each of the School's sections seeks to develop anthroposophy as founded by Rudolf Steiner (1861-1925) in a contemporary context through the core disciplines of general anthroposophy, medicine, agriculture, pedagogy, natural science, mathematics and astronomy, literary and visual arts and humanities, performing arts and youth work.

Creatures of Our Time, in a Land Fit for Heroes Dave Diss, 2006. This is the second volume of autobiography after Dizzy. Far from bobbing up and down on the seven seas in the Royal Navy as he had previously been, his wont, Dave Diss is trying his luck as a newly married civilian in the Big Smoke among the toppers and bowlers still worn in the city in those days of 1955, working in the still Blitz-scarred capital of The United Kingdom of Great Britain, pushing a pen as a poorly paid underwriter for The Yorkshire Insurance Company in Cornhill, just around the corner from The Royal Exchange and The Bank of England where the big nobs hang out, and The Stock Exchange in Throgmorton Street.

Our Time After a While Billingsley, Lloyd. Billingsley, Lloyd. Billingsley, 2010-02. All baby boomers are children of their time. In Our Time After a While, writer Lloyd Billingsley backpacks into that time, the tail end of the tail fin era in its very birthplace. In the motor cities of Detroit and Windsor, the streets, schools and parks jostled with a vast cast of characters. The author charts their adventures and the sound track, no border could stop and which would spread around the world. This was long ago, but like Bob Seger, the author is still humming a song.
