Stig Dagerman:

Stig Dagerman Laurie Thompson,1983 A Moth to a Flame Stig Dagerman,Siri Hustvedt,2019-09-05 A startling novel of ferocious psychological acumen which to my mind deserves a large international readership very much a book for our times Siri Hustvedt from the introduction A literary giant in Sweden Dagerman conjures a Strindbergian atmosphere of shadowy menace in his brief intense novel A Moth to a Flame This moody death haunted novel is well worth reading Evening Standard In 1940s Stockholm a young man named Bengt falls into deep private turmoil with the unexpected death of his mother As he struggles to cope with her loss his despair slowly transforms to rage when he discovers that his father had a mistress Bengt swears revenge on behalf of his mother s memory but he soon finds himself drawn into a fevered and forbidden affair with the very woman he set out to destroy Written in a taut restrained style A Moth to a Flame is an intense exploration of heartache and fury desperation and illicit passion Set against a backdrop of the moody streets of Stockholm and the Hitchcockian shadows in the woods and waters of Sweden s remote islands this is a psychological masterpiece by one of Sweden s greatest writers Dagerman wrote with beautiful objectivity Instead of emotive phrases he uses a choice of facts like bricks to construct an emotion Graham Greene Dagerman can evoke such emotion in a single sentence Colm T ib n There are some writers Kafka and Lorca immediately spring to mind who come to enjoy the status of saint their lives and deaths constitute statements about existence and its proper priorities A saint of this type is the Swedish writer Stig Dagerman Times Literary Supplement This searing tale of bereavement and loathing feels all too relevant today Guardian

A Burnt Child Stig Dagerman,2013-05-01 After the international success of his collection of World War II newspaper articles German Autumn a book that solidified his status as the most promising and exciting writer in Sweden Stig Dagerman was sent to France with an assignment to produce more in this journalistic style But he could not write the much awaited follow up Instead he holed up in a small French village and in the summer of 1948 created what would be his most personal poignant and shocking novel A Burnt Child Set in a working class neighborhood in Stockholm the story revolves around a young man named Bengt who falls into deep private turmoil with the unexpected death of his mother As he struggles to cope with her loss his despair slowly transforms to rage when he discovers his father had a mistress But as Bengt swears revenge on behalf of his mother s memory he also finds himself drawn into a fevered and conflicted relationship with this woman a turn that causes him to question his previous faith in morality virtue and fidelity Written in a taut and beautifully naturalistic tone Dagerman illuminates the rich atmospheres of Bengt s life both internal and external from his heartache and fury to the moody streets of Stockholm and the Hitchcockian shadows of tension and threat in the woods and waters of Sweden s remote islands A Burnt Child remains Dagerman s most widely read novel both in Sweden and worldwide and is one of the crowning works of his short but celebrated career Island of the Doomed Stig Dagerman,1991 Seven castaways await their death on a deserted island that is home to hordes of blind gulls iguanas and a poisonous lagoon Sleet Stig Dagerman,2013 A collection of stories by Stig Dagerman one of the most talented writers of Sweden's post war generation German Autumn Dagerman Stig MacPherson Robin Fulton, 2011 In late 1946 Stig Dagerman was assigned by the Swedish newspaper Expressen to report on life in Germany immediately after the fall of the Third Reich First published in Sweden in 1947 German Autumn a collection of the articles written for that assignment was unlike any other reporting at the time While most Allied and foreign journalists spun their writing on the widely held belief that the German people deserved their fate Dagerman disagreed and reported on the humanness of the men and women ruined by the war their guilt and suffering Dagerman was already a prominent writer in Sweden

The Writer and the Refugee: Paris 1947. Stig Dagerman and Etta Federn. Their Encounter Sparks a Brilliant Play - But Why Is It So Cruel? Nancy Pick, Lo Dagerman, 2019-01-12

A wonderful blend of literary and personal history author Johannes Lichtman Sometimes life presents a mystery An innocuous email from a stranger sets off a passionate journey of discovery Why did Stig Dagerman Swedish literary wunderkind and Lo's father write a shockingly cruel play based on Nancy Pick's relative Etta Federn the once eminent Austro Jewish refugee he encountered in postwar Paris What happened when Stig and Etta met Nancy is determined to reclaim Etta feminist writer single mother radical the relative nobody ever spoke about from the shadows Lo is searching for the father she never knew Each simply has to know Stockholm 1947 Stig Dagerman was the new generation writer on everybody's lips Over the previous two years at breakneck speed he had written two novels and a much praised short story collection made a spectacular debut as a playwright and reported from the ruins of postwar Germany in a book titled German Autumn destined to become a classic Now he was being sent to France to pen a sequel He will indeed write about postwar France but in an entirely unexpected way Instead of a journalistic account he feverishly writes a new play Marty's Shadow The play was modeled on people he'd met in a dank refugee hotel in Paris The Austro Jewish writer Etta Federn and Michel her younger son When Stig meets Etta she is old and ailing Her elder son Jean had died a hero in the French Resistance She had been on the run from Nazis and fascists since 1932 when as a fifty year old single mother a Jew and a radical she had fled Berlin for Barcelona taking her two young sons with her In Berlin she had been widely recognized as a writer most notable are her biographies of Walther Rathenau and Christiane von Goethe the wife of Goethe as an accomplished translator working in sixteen languages and as a radical feminist and anarcho syndicalist in the vein of Emma Goldman In her new life in Barcelona she builds a reputation as someone with the power to interpret character by looking into your hands Paul Federn her brother was a well known psychoanalyst who had worked with Freud In 2011 I am astounded to receive an email from Nancy Pick an American relative of Etta's Nancy has heard of Stig's play about Etta and her sons and wants to know more Anxious but also intrigued I search for a way to break the bad news to her Stig's play is brutal a punch to the solar plexus a monstrous mother murdered by a son Marty's Shadow brings Nancy and me together It confronts us with a shared question but one which we initially want to answer in different ways What could have driven my father the young writer Stig

Dagerman to paint such a cruel portrait of the brilliant heroic refugee Etta Federn This book lays out our search for answers
Lo Dagerman Wedding Worries Stig Dagerman, 2018 Considered by many to be Stig Dagerman's magnum opus Wedding Worries spans the twenty four hours of Hildur Palm's wedding day and night beginning with an ominous knock on her door before sunrise and ending after a fitful night with an uncertain look into her future with her new husband the village butcher Characterized by its stream of consciousness style and perspective shifts between a colorful variety of characters this novel oscillates between chaotic burlesque and sharp meditation tackling themes of loneliness suffering and the human capacity to make do with unalterable circumstances set against the backdrop of rural Sweden The Games of Night Stig examines the whole range of commentary on Strindberg's works and activity in many fields besides the plays for which he is internationally best known. These include his prose fiction and poetry, his work as an historian and natural historian and his relationship to the other arts, most notably his painting. It is concerned with both lasting works of literary and dramatic criticism as well as reviews of his books and plays in the theatre and some more ephemeral material, all of this in several languages. Organised generically and by subject and individual work, the bibliography enables the reader to trace the changing impact of Strindberg and his works in various countries and during different periods. It is thus very much a study in reception as well as a bibliographical record of published material. It traces the developing image of Strindberg and his writing both during his lifetime and in subsequent years and with frequent cross-reference offers a comprehensive overview of a literary and existential project that has rarely been matched for its multifaceted diversity. The bibliography is published in three parts: Volume 2: The Plays (978 0 947623 82 1) and Volume 3: Prose Poetry Miscellaneous (978 0 947623 83 8) are also now available. Michael Robinson is Emeritus Professor of Drama and Scandinavian Studies at the University of East Anglia, Norwich.
