Stigmata Escaping Texts:

Stigmata Hélène Cixous, 2005-02-01 A wilful extremist according to the London Times Hélène Cixous is hailed as one of the most formidable writers and thinkers of our time Acclaimed by luminaries such as Jacques Derrida her writing has nonetheless been misunderstood and misread to a surprising extent With the inclusion of Stigmata one of her greatest works into the Routledge Classics series this is about to change Questions that have long concerned her the self and the other autobiographies of writing sexual difference literary theory post colonial theory death and life are explored here woven into a stunning narrative Displaying a remarkable virtuosity the work of Cixous is heady stuff indeed exciting powerful moving and dangerous

Stigmata Hélène Cixous, 1998 This collection of essays explores some poetico philosophical questions that have long been circulating in the Cixousian universe love's labours lost and found feminine hours autobiographies of writing and animal human family ties

Re-thinking Travel Writing Ben Stubbs, Lee Mylne, 2024-03-30 This book stems from the question that we as co authors grappled with for the past 3 plus years while in our own periods of stasis during the pandemic What place does the travel writing genre hold in a post COVID world With the massive interruptions to travel and travel writing across 2020-2023 as the pandemic forced us indoors and into isolation it also raised many other pertinent questions about the practice of and future of travel writing Part of the prompt for this book comes from the post pandemic assumption that in an ecologically fraught less mobile and more uncertain world there may not be a place for travel writing as we know it to exist in any meaningful way We examine the problems and solutions apparent for travel writing as it engages with a period of re thinking prompted by the pandemic though necessary for a plethora of other reasons as well As academics and travel writing practitioners with decades of experience in the field we offer a unique perspective on this topic as we have the in the field experience of professional travel writers and we have the academic grounding to better understand the history theoretical concerns and contradictions of the genre to provide a more in depth perspective to our travel writing colleagues This grounding allows us to access a unique and valuable perspective for Re thinking Travel Writing The Journey of a Genre for academics aspiring travel writers and contemporary colleagues in the field

Theories on the Move Şebnem Susam-Sarajeva, 2006-01-01 Within translation studies books on translating conceptually dense texts such as philosophical or theoretical writings are remarkably few Although the translation of literature has been a favourite topic for many decades the translation of theories on literature has been neglected The phrase theories of translation is everywhere but translation of theories is a rare sight On the other hand the term translation has become a commonplace in literary and cultural studies yet usually as a rhetorical figure describing the fate of those who struggle between two worlds and two languages such as migrants or women Not much attention has been paid to the role of translation proper in contemporary circulation of ideas The book addresses these gaps in translation studies and in literary studies for the first time by examining two specific cases where translation strategies and patterns crucially influenced the reception of imported schools of thought By examining the importation of structuralism and semiotics into Turkish and of French feminism into English it invites the readers to think about the impact of translation on the transmission of ideas across linguistic cultural borders and power differentials It is therefore of particular interest to the scholars working in translation studies in literary and cultural theory and in gender studies

Sexual Feelings Elina Valovirta, 2014-08-15 The present book offers a reader theoretical model for approaching anglophone Caribbean women's writing through affects emotions and feelings related to sexuality a prominent theme in the literary tradition How does an affective framework help us read this tradition of writing that is so preoccupied with sexual feelings The novelists discussed in the book chiefly Erna Brodber Opal Palmer Adisa Edwidge Danticat Shani Mootoo and Oonya Kempadoo are representative of various anglophone Caribbean island cultures and English speaking backgrounds The study makes astute use of the theoretical writings of such scholars as Sara Ahmed Milton J Bennett Sue Campbell Linden Lewis Evelyn O Callaghan Lizabeth Paravisini Gebert Lynne Pearce Elspeth Probyn Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick and Rei Terada as well as the critical writings of Adisa Brodber Kempadoo to shape an individual focused argument The works of the creative artists treated and this volume hold sexuality and emotions to be vital for meaning production and knowledge negotiation across differences be they culturally geographically or otherwise marked that challenge the postcolonial reading process Elina Valovirta is a Post Doctoral Fellow employed by the Turku Institute for Advanced Studies TIAS and stationed in the Department of English University of Turku Finland She has published on Caribbean women's writing in English feminist pedagogy and cultural studies

Style in Theory Ivan Callus, James Corby, Gloria Lauri-Lucente, 2012-12-06 What in theory is style How has style been rethought in literary theory Drawing together leading academics working within and across the disciplines of English philosophy literary theory and comparative literature Style in Theory Between Philosophy and Literature sets out to rethink the important but all too often overlooked issue of style exploring in particular how the theoretical humanities open conceptual spaces that afford and encourage reflection on the nature of style the ways in which style is experienced and how style allows disciplinary boundaries to be both drawn and transgressed Offering incisive reflections on style from a diverse and contemporary range of theoretical and methodological perspectives the essays contained in this volume critically revisit and challenge accepted accounts of style and provide fresh and compelling readings of the relevance in any rethinking of style of specific works by the likes of Shakespeare Petrarch Kant Nietzsche Heidegger Deleuze Blanchot Derrida Nancy Cixous and Meillassoux

Disseminating Jewish Literatures Susanne Zepp, Ruth Fine, Natasha Gordinsky, Kader Konuk, Claudia Olk, Galili Shahar, 2020-10-12 The multilingualism and polyphony of Jewish literary writing across the globe demands a collaborative comparative and interdisciplinary investigation into questions regarding methods of researching and teaching literatures Disseminating Jewish Literatures compiles case studies that represent a broad range of epistemological and textual approaches to the curricula and research programs of literature departments in Europe Israel and the United States In doing so it promotes the integration of Jewish literatures into national philologies and the implementation of comparative transnational approaches to the reading teaching and researching of literatures Instead of a dichotomizing approach Disseminating Jewish Literatures endorses an exhaustive comprehensive conceptualization of the Jewish literary corpus across languages Included in this volume are essays on literatures in Arabic English French German Hebrew Hungarian Italian Polish Portuguese Russian Spanish and Turkish as well as essays reflecting the fields of Yiddish philology and Latin American studies The volume is based on the papers presented at the Gentner Symposium funded by the Minerva Foundation held at the Freie Universität Berlin in June 2018

Continental Philosophy and the Palestinian Question Zahi Zalloua, 2017-02-23 From Sartre to Levinas continental philosophers have looked to the example of the Jew as the paradigmatic object of and model for ethical inquiry Levinas for example powerfully dedicates his 1974 book Otherwise than Being to the victims of the Holocaust and turns attention to the state of philosophy after Auschwitz Such an ethics radically challenges prior notions of autonomy and comprehension two key ideas for traditional ethical theory and more generally the Greek tradition It seeks to respect the opacity of the other and avoid the dangers of hermeneutic violence But how does such an ethics of the other translate into real everyday life What is at stake in thinking the other as Jew Is the alterity of the Jew simply a counter to Greek universalism Is a rhetoric of exceptionalism with its unavoidable ontological residue at odds with shifting political realities Within this paradigm what then becomes of the Arab or Muslim the other of the Jew the other of the other so to speak This line of ethical thought in its desire to bear witness to past suffering and come to terms with subjectivity after Auschwitz arguably brackets from analysis present operations of power Would then a more sensitive historical approach expose the Palestinian as the other of the Israeli Here Zahi Zalloua offers a challenging intervention into how we configure the contemporary

Monument and Memory Jonna Bornemark, Mattias Martinson, Jayne Svenungsson, 2015 A century after the World War I studies on the politics of memory and commemoration have grown into a vast and vital academic field This book approaches the theme monument and memory from architectural literary philosophical and theological perspectives Drawing on diverse sources from Augustine to Freud from early photographs to contemporary urban monuments the book's contributors probe the intersections between memory and trauma past and present monuments and memorial practices religious and secular remembrance and forgetfulness Series Nordic Studies in Theology Nordische Studien zur Theologie Vol 1 Subject Philosophy Religious Studies History

The subject of love Sal Renshaw, 2013-07-19 The Subject of Love Hélène Cixous and the Feminine Divine is about abundant generous other regarding love In the history of Western ideas of love such a configuration has been inseparable from our ideas about divinity and the sacred often reserved only for God and rarely thought of as a human achievement This book is a substantial engagement with her philosophies of love inviting the reader to reflect on the conditions of subjectivity that just might open us to something like a divine love of the other Renshaw follows this thread in this genealogy of abundant love the thread that connects the subject of love from 5th century B C E Greece and Plato to the 20th century protestant theology of agapic love of Anders Nygren to the late 20th century poetico philosophy of Hélène Cixous This study will be of particular interest to academics and students of the history of gender cultural studies criticism and gender studies

A Philosophy of Textile Catherine Dormor, 2020-12-10 Textile is at once a language a concept and a material thing Philosophers such as Plato Deleuze and Derrida have notably drawn on weaving processes to illustrate their ideas and artists such as Ann Hamilton Louise Bourgeois and Chiharu Shiota explore matters such as the seam the needle and thread and the flow of viscous materials in their work Yet thinking about textile and making textile are often treated as separate and distinct practices rather than parallel modes This beautifully illustrated book brings together for the first time the language and materiality of textile to develop new models of thinking writing and making Through the work of thinkers such as Roland Barthes Hélène Cixous and Luce Irigaray and international artists like Eva Hesse and Helen Chadwick textile practitioner theorist and writer Catherine Dormor puts forward a new philosophy of textile Exploring the material behaviours and philosophical language of folding shimmering seaming viscosity fraying and caressing Dormor demonstrates how textile practice and theory are intricately woven together

Erotics of Deconstruction Lynn Turner, 2024-11-30 Erotics of Deconstruction takes advantage of over a decade of publications from Derrida's seminars to creatively demonstrate the deep material range of deconstruction and emphasise its under recognised erotic nature It activates psychoanalysis without the long embedded philosophical trajectory that forged the human psychic life and sexuality as categorically distinct from the animal inherent to dialectics and psychoanalysis It generates new conversations with Derrida's feminist contemporaries as they encounter pressing questions in current critical thought From the larger frame of life death and the broadest auto affective relation of inside to outside to the difficult to grasp interface of conceptual and sensible Erotics of Deconstruction does not retreat to a reparative life force or erotics of the good but includes the unsettling friction of an originary relation to violence Parsed by means of case studies from literature philosophy and visual culture erotics in this volume lap at every edge

Derrida and Joyce Andrew J. Mitchell, Sam Slote, 2013-05-01 All of Derrida's texts on Joyce together under one cover in fresh new translations along with key essays covering the range of Derrida's engagement with Joyce's works Bringing together all of Jacques Derrida's writings on James Joyce this volume includes the first complete translation of his book Ulysses Gramophone Two Words for Joyce as well as the first translation of the essay The Night Watch In Ulysses Gramophone Derrida provides some of his most thorough reflections on affirmation and the yes the signature and the role of technological mediation in all of these areas In The Night Watch Derrida pursues his ruminations on writing in an explicitly feminist direction offering profound observations on the connection between writing and matricide Accompanying these texts are nine essays by leading scholars from across the humanities addressing Derrida's treatments of Joyce throughout his work and two remembrances of lectures devoted to Joyce that Derrida gave in 1982 and 1984 The volume concludes with photographs of Derrida from these two events

factors contributing to the transformation of the university from the site of culture and knowledge to what might be termed an information factory and explores how members of the academic community might continue to dwell in the ruins of the university in a productive and authentic way Decolonising Gender Caroline Rooney,2007-11-13 Through examination of the functions of language and cross cultural readings of literature from African queer reading to postcolonial Shakespeare Rooney explores the nature of the real providing a way out of some of the current deadlocks of feminist theory an anti essentialist approach to gender in which both male and female readers may address a consciousness of the feminine a platform for postcolonial and postmodernist thinkers to engage in a dialogue around the status of the performative in regard to the other a new theory of poetic realism in both canonical and postcolonial literatures a re reading of the Enlightenment legacy in terms of postcolonial liberation theory a comparison of contemporary debates on the real across the humanities and the sciences Exploring current ideas of performativity in literature and language and negotiating a path between feminist theory s common pitfalls of essentialism and constructivism Caroline Rooney argues convincingly that by rethinking our understanding of gender we might also equip ourselves to resist racism and totalitarianism more effectively Literature, theology and feminism Heather Walton,2019-01-04 This book offers an authoritative overview of the broad and complex terrain of feminist theorising concerning the relationship between literature and theology as it has developed over the past several decades It provides the first comprehensive evaluation of the significance of women s literature in the development of feminist theology and offers a critique of the variety of reading practices currently employed by religious feminists As well as illuminating current reading strategies the work argues that it is now appropriate for feminists to develop new ways of reading the divine in women s writing Drawing upon the pioneering work of Helene Cixous Julia Kristeva and Luce Irigaray the work sets out a new framework for feminist religious reading that is both creative and challenging and which will be of interest both to scholars and students in this area Through its artful and compelling feminist reconsiderations the book makes a refreshing and significant contribution to the general field known as literature and theology Hélène Cixous Nicholas Royle,2020-07-28 A lucid original and inventive critical introduction to Helene Cixous 1937 Royle offers close readings of many of her works from Inside 1969 to the present He foregrounds Cixous s importance for English literature as well as creative writing autobiography narrative theory psychoanalysis ecology gender studies and queer theory Joyful Babel ,2021-11-22 Joyful Babel Translating Hélène Cixous is a selection of critical essays on translation and the writing of Hélène Cixous with contributions from translators of her texts into different languages and cultures The present volume is unique in that it is the first collection of essays on the work of Cixous from the perspective of translation It presents new explorations into translating as process theory and practice and new insights on Cixous s fictional and theoretical world It is an international collection open to readings of Cixous s writing including the theoretical fictional and dramatic discourses The variety of intersecting subjects and perspectives provokes interrogates and explores Cixous s theory and writing in ways that will contribute to a deeper understanding of her oeuvre will motivate new debates as well as inspire new research This book is addressed to a wide range of readers from those who initiate themselves to translation or already practise it to readers and critics of Cixous's work linguists and translation theorists scholars interested in gender and postcolonial issues and critics of contemporary literature thus not only academics but also professional translators as well as drama theatre staging practitioners

Hélène Cixous: Live Theory Ian Blyth, 2004-06-08 Hélène Cixous's live theory provides a clear and informative introduction to one of the most important and influential European writers working today The book opens with an overview of the key features of Cixous's theory of écriture féminine feminine writing The various manifestations of écriture féminine are then explored in chapters on Cixous's fictional and theatrical writing her philosophical essays and her intensely personal approach to literary criticism The book concludes with a new lively and wide-ranging interview with Hélène Cixous in which she discusses her influences and inspirations and her thoughts on the nature of writing and the need for an ethical relationship with the world Also offering a survey of the many English translations of Cixous's work this book is an indispensable introduction to Cixous's work for students of literature philosophy cultural and gender studies

The Sense of Sight in Rabbinic Culture Rachel Neis, 2013-08-29 This book studies the significance of sight in rabbinic cultures across Palestine and Mesopotamia approximately from the first to seventh centuries It tracks the extent and effect to which the rabbis living in the Greco-Roman and Persian worlds sought to appropriate recast and discipline contemporaneous understandings of sight Sight had a crucial role to play in the realms of divinity sexuality and gender idolatry and ultimately rabbinic subjectivity The rabbis lived in a world in which the eyes were at once potent and vulnerable eyes were thought to touch objects of vision while also acting as an entryway into the viewer Rabbis Romans Zoroastrians Christians and others were all concerned with the protection and exploitation of vision Employing many different sources Professor Neis considers how the rabbis engaged varieties of late antique visualities along with rabbinic narrative exegetical and legal strategies as part of an effort to cultivate and mark a rabbinic eye

The Top Books of the Year Stigmata Escaping Texts The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoovers "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover expertly weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Stigmata Escaping Texts : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
