Still In The Race:

A Realist Metaphysics of Race Jeremy Pierce, 2014-12-11 In A Realist Metaphysics of Race A Context Sensitive Short Term Retentionist Long Term Revisionist Approach Jeremy Pierce defends a social kind view of racial categories On this view the biological features we use to classify people racially do not make races natural kinds Rather races exist because of contingent social practices single out certain groups of people as races give them social importance and allow us to name them as races Pierce also identifies several kinds of context sensitivity as central to how racial categorization works and argues that we need racial categories to identify problems in how our racial constructions are formed including the harmful effects of racial constructions Hence rather than seeking to eliminate such categories Pierce argues that we should also make efforts to change the conditions that generate their problematic elements with an eye toward retaining only the unproblematic aspects A Realist Metaphysics of Race contains insights relevant not just to professional philosophers in metaphysics philosophy of race social philosophy philosophy of language and philosophy of science but also to students and scholars working in sociology biology anthropology ethnic studies and political science The Meaning of Race Kenan Malik, 1996-08 This work throws new light on the nature and origins of ideas of racial difference It reconstructs the evolution of the modern discourse of race and investigates its meaning in contemporary society Darwinism and Race Progress John Berry Haycraft, 1895 The Columbia Documentary History of Race and Ethnicity in America Ronald H. Bayor, 2004-07-14 All historians would agree that America is a nation of nations But what does that mean in terms of the issues that have moved and shaped us as a people Contemporary concerns such as bilingualism incorporation assimilation dual identity ethnic politics quotas and affirmative action residential segregation and the volume of immigration resonate with a past that has confronted variations of these modern issues The Columbia Documentary History of Race and Ethnicity in America written and compiled by a highly respected team of American historians under the editorship of Ronald Bayor illuminates the myriad ways in which immigration racial and ethnic histories have shaped the contours of contemporary American society This invaluable resource documents all eras of the American past including black white interactions and the broad spectrum of American attitudes and reactions concerning Native Americans Irish Catholics Mexican Americans Jewish Americans and other groups Each of the eight chronological chapters contains a survey essay an annotated bibliography and 20 to 30 related public and private primary source documents including manifestos speeches court cases letters memoirs and much more From the 1655 petition of Jewish merchants regarding the admission of Jews to the New Netherlands colony to an interview with a Chinese American worker regarding a 1938 strike in San Francisco documents are drawn from a variety of sources and allow students and others direct access to our past Selections include Powhatan to John Smith 1609 Thomas Jefferson Notes on the State of Virginia Petition of the Trustees of Congregation Shearith Israel 1811 Bessie Conway or The Irish Girl in America German Society in Chicago Annual Report 1857 1858 Mark Twain s Salutation to the Century W E B
