Eros at Dusk Katherine Wasdin, 2018-05-25 This book analyzes the relationship between wedding poetry and love poetry in the classical world By treating both Greek and Latin texts it offers an innovative and wide ranging discussion of the poetic representation of social occasions The discourses associated with weddings and love affairs both foreground ideas of persuasion and praise even though they differ dramatically in their participants and their outcomes Furthermore these texts make it clear that the brief idealized and eroticized moment of the wedding stands in contrast to the long lasting and harmonious agreement of the marriage At times these genres share traditional forms of erotic persuasion but at other points one genre purposefully alludes to the other to make a bride seem like a paramour or a paramour like a bride Explicit divergences remind the audience of the different trajectories of the wedding which will hopefully transition into a stable marriage and the love affair which is unlikely to endure with mutual affection Important themes include the threshold the evening star plant and animal metaphors heroic comparisons reciprocity and the blessings of the gods and sexual violence and persuasion The consistency and durability of this intergeneric relationship demonstrates deep seated conceptions of legitimate and illegitimate sexual relationships By examining these two types of poetry in tandem Eros at Dusk adds fresh insight into the social concerns and generic composition of these occasional poems
