Teaching Students about Death Robert G. Stevenson, Eileen P. Stevenson, 1996 Handbook of Social Work Practice with Vulnerable and Resilient Populations Alex Gitterman, 2014-05-06 When community and family support systems are weak or unavailable and when internal resources fail populations that struggle with chronic persistent acute and or unexpected problems become vulnerable to physical cognitive emotional and social deterioration Yet despite numerous risk factors a large number of vulnerable people do live happy and productive lives This best selling handbook examines not only risk and vulnerability factors in disadvantaged populations but also resilience and protective strategies for managing and overcoming adversity This third edition reflects new demographic data research findings and theoretical developments and accounts for changing economic and political realities including immigration and health care policy reforms Contributors have expanded their essays to include practice with individuals families and groups and new chapters consider working with military members and their families victims and survivors of terrorism and torture bullied children and young men of color

Complicated Grieving and Bereavement Gerry Cox, Robert Bendiksen, Robert Stevenson, 2018-12-20 Losses may provide a turning point where an individual faces personal and social choices Still one may derive significance through the experience of loss while another may encounter bereavement with less consequence Complicated Grieving and Bereavement Understanding and Treating People Experiencing Loss examines complicated grief in special populations including the mentally ill POW MIA survivors the differentially abled suicide survivors bereaved children those experiencing death at birth death in schools and palliative care death Conference proceedings. New perspectives in science education 7th edition Pixel, 2018-03-19 Handbook of Death and Dying Clifton D. Bryant, 2003-10-01 Dying is a social as well as physiological phenomenon Each society characterizes and consequently treats death and dying in its own individual ways ways that differ markedly These particular patterns of death and dying engender modal cultural responses and such institutionalized behavior has familiar economical educational religious and political implications The Handbook of Death and Dying takes stock of the vast literature in the field of thanatology arranging and synthesizing what has been an unwieldy body of knowledge into a concise yet comprehensive reference work This two volume handbook will provide direction and momentum to the study of death related behavior for many years to come Key Features More than 100 contributors representing authoritative expertise in a diverse array of disciplines Anthropology Family Studies History Law Medicine Mortuary Science Philosophy Psychology Social work Sociology Theology A distinguished editorial board of leading scholars and researchers in the field More than 100 definitive essays covering almost every dimension of death related behavior Comprehensive and inclusive exploring concepts and social patterns within the larger topical concern Journal article length essays that address topics with appropriate detail Multidisciplinary and cross cultural coverage Social Support John D. Morgan, 2020-11-26 None of us could survive in the workplace community or even in our homes if we allowed everyone to see how truly vulnerable we are Yet social support is a necessity if we are to achieve whatever it is we set out to achieve in this life No human being is an island unto himself Social Support A Reflection of Humanity is a how to book In this work the authors examine the nature of social support how it can be offered and how social support differs from other forms of therapy

What Will We Do? Robert Stevenson, 2020-11-26 The second edition of What Will We Do Preparing A School Community to Cope With Crises is a guidebook for educators and parents who wish to understand the importance of both pre and post intervention programs in our schools to assist all parties in coping with crises that arise The book examines the scope and effects including the potential benefits and possible risks of programs that target such issues as loss illness death grief war and violence It presents specific steps that can be taken to help prepare a school community to cope with possible future crises Today s news has shown us with dramatic effect that a crisis can occur at any time often without warning Educators and parents must work together if they wish to help young people and each other when such a crisis occurs What Will We Do is a major step in that direction

Helping the Grieving Child in School Linda Goldman, 2000 Discusses how children grieve and presents ways of dealing with the grieving child in the schools

Resources in Education , 2001-04

Grief in School Communities Louise Rowling, 2003 An essential guide for all members of a school community and other professionals who need to know how to be supportive in times of crisis including social workers psychologists and bereavement specialists The book is firmly based on theory research and practice
