Teaching Theatre Today Pedagogical Views Of Theatre In Higher Education:

Teaching Theatre Today: Pedagogical Views of Theatre in Higher Education A. Flitsos, 2009-09-28 Through thirteen essays Teaching Theatre Today addresses the changing nature of educational theory curricula and teaching methods in theatre programs of colleges and universities of the United States and Great Britain

Teaching Theatre Today Anne Flitsos, Gail Medford, 2004-07-23 Teaching Theatre Today addresses the changing nature of educational theory curricula and teaching methods in theatre programs of colleges and universities of the United States and to a lesser extent Great Britain Thirteen essays are arranged to lead the reader from an overview of changing theories of theater education through the teaching of specific types of courses to the study of the African American experience in theatre education to issues of changing pedagogical goals in the United Kingdom and finally to the current state of training for future teachers of theatre This book offers both historical and theoretical insights that drove pedagogy in American theatre education in colleges and universities during the twentieth century and into the twenty first

New Directions in Teaching Theatre Arts Anne Flitsos, Gail S. Medford, 2018-07-20 This book reflects the changes in technology and educational trends cross disciplinary learning entrepreneurship first year learning programs critical writing requirements course assessment among others that have pushed theatre educators to innovate question and experiment with new teaching strategies The text focuses upon a firm practice based approach that also reflects research in the field offering innovative and proven methods that theatre educators may use to actively engage students and encourage student success The sixteen essays in this volume are divided into five sections Teaching with Digital Technology Teaching in Response to Educational Trends Teaching New Directions in Performance Teaching Beyond the Traditional and Teaching Collaboratively or Across Disciplines Study of this book will provoke readers to question both teaching methods and curricula as they consider the ever shifting arts landscape and the potential careers for theatre graduates

Developing Theatre in the Global South Nic Leonhardt, Christopher B. Balme, 2024-04-09 Drawing on new research from the ERC project Developing Theatre this collection presents innovative institutional approaches to the theatre historiography of the Global South since 1945 Covering perspectives from Africa Asia the Middle East and Latin America as well as Eastern Europe the chapters explore how US philanthropy international organisations and pan African festivals all contributed to the globalisation and institutionalisation of the performing arts in the Global South During the Cultural Cold War the Global North intervened in and promoted forms of cultural infrastructure that were deemed adaptable to any environment This form of technopolitics impacted the construction of national theatres the introduction of new pedagogical tools and the invention of the workshop as a format The networks of experts responsible for this foreground seminal figures both celebrated Augusto Boal Efraim Sutherland but also lesser known Albert Botbol Severino Montano Metin And who contributed to the worldwide theatrical epistemic community of the postwar years

Developing Theatre in the Global South investigates the institutional factors that led to the emergence of professional theatre in the postwar period throughout the decolonising world The book's institutional and transnational approach enables theatre studies to overcome its still strong national and local focus on plays and productions and connect it to current discourses in transnational and global history

Interpreting the Play Script Anne Fliotsos, 2011-08-17 One type of analysis cannot fit every play nor does one method of interpretation suit every theatre artist or collaborative team This is the first text to combine traditional and non traditional models giving students a range of tools with which to approach different kinds of performance

Fearless Femininity by Women in American Theatre, 1910s to 2010s Lynne Greeley, 2015-08-06 In this unprecedented fascinating book which covers women in theatre from the 1910s to the 2010s author Lynne Greeley notes that for the purposes of this study feminism is defined as the political impulse toward economic and social empowerment for females or the female identified a position perceived by many feminists as oppositional to ideas of femininity that they see as personally and politically constraining and that femininity comprises social behaviors and practices that mean as many different things as there are women some of which are empowering and others of which are not This book illuminates how throughout the twentieth century and into the twenty first playwrights and artists in American theatre both embodied and disrupted the feminine of their times Through approaches as wide ranging as performing their own recipes energizing silences raging against war and rape and inviting the public to inscribe their naked bodies theatre artists have used performance as a site to insert themselves between the physicality of their female presence and the liminality of their disrupting the role of the feminine Capturing that place of liminality a neither here nor there place that is often unsafe where the established order is overturned by acts as banal as raising a plant women have written and performed and disrupted their way through one hundred years of theatre history even within the constraints of a variably rigid and usually unsympathetic social order Creating a feminist femininity they have reinscribed their place in the culture and provided models for their audiences to do the same This comprehensive tome part of the Cambria Contemporary Global Performing Arts headed by John Clum Duke University is an essential addition for theater studies and women's studies

International Handbook of Research in Arts Education Liora Bresler, 2007-01-26 Providing a distillation of knowledge in the various disciplines of arts education dance drama music literature and poetry and visual arts this essential handbook synthesizes existing research literature reflects on the past and contributes to shaping the future of the respective and integrated disciplines of arts education While research can at times seem distant from practice the Handbook aims to maintain connection with the live practice of art and of education capturing the vibrancy and best thinking in the field of theory and practice The Handbook is organized into 13 sections each focusing on a major area or issue in arts education research

The Contemporary Ensemble Duška Radosavljević, 2013-08-21 Dr Radosavljević has an excellent and extensive grasp of her subject and deep understanding of not only the history of these groups but how they function and how each contributes to the field of ensemble theatre David Crespy University of Missouri USA Questions of ensemble what it is how it works are both inherent to a variety of Western theatre traditions and re emerging and evolving in striking new ways in the twenty first century The Contemporary Ensemble draws together an unprecedented range of original interviews with world renowned theatre makers in order to directly address both the former and latter concerns Reflecting on the ensemble way of working within this major new resource are figures including Michael Boyd Hermann W ndrich Yuri Butusov Max Stafford Clark Elizabeth LeCompte Lyn Gardner Adriano Shaplin Phelim McDermott and Emma Rice representing companies including The RSC The Berliner Ensemble The Satirikon Theatre Out of Joint The Wooster Group Kneehigh Theatre Song of the Goat The Riot Group The Neo Futurists Shadow Casters and Ontroerend Goed All 22 interviews were conducted especially for the collection and draw upon the author s rich background working as scholar educator and dramaturg with a variety of ensembles The resulting compendium radically re situates the ensemble in the context of globalisation higher education and simplistic understandings of text based and devised theatre practice and traces a compelling new line through the contemporary theatre landscape

The Politics of American Actor Training Ellen Margolis, Lissa Tyler Renaud, 2011-01-13 This book strives to give a fair hearing to persistent questioning voices about our nation s acting training as it stands thereby contributing to the national dialogue the diverse perspectives and proposals needed to keep American actor training dynamic and germane both within the U S and abroad

Artistic Literacy N. Kindelan, 2012-07-25 Exploring the ways undergraduate theatre programs can play a significant role in accomplishing the aims and learning outcomes of a contemporary liberal education Kindelan argues that theatre s signature pedagogy helps all undergraduates become actively engaged in developing critical and value focused skills

American Women Stage Directors of the Twentieth Century

Anne Fliotsos, Wendy Vierow, 2008-06-09 The first reference tool to focus on American women directors Misogyny in American Culture Letizia Guglielmo Ph.D., 2018-10-01 This set surveys American misogyny in all its cultural forms from popular music film and education to healthcare politics and business The work also assesses proposals to confront and reduce such expressions of hatred The essays contained in this two volume set explore misogyny within various areas of American culture to demonstrate its pervasiveness and identify common foundations of its many presentations Beyond a basic definition of misogyny which includes hatred of women and girls and the ways in which this hatred and distrust influences action speech discrimination policy and culture in the United States this project also aims to expand and complicate definitions of misogyny in order to provide readers with a robust introduction to and understanding of the larger topic Given the current political and cultural climate and the more frequent and widespread use of the term misogyny by various media outlets and voters during the 2016 presidential election this book has the potential both to contribute to ongoing conversations on misogyny and among its intended audience of advanced high school beginning college students and the general public to inform a shift currently unfolding in public conversation on the topic

Performer Training and Technology Maria Kapsali, 2020-10-05 Performer Training and Technology employs philosophical approaches to technology including postphenomenology and Heidegger's thinking to examine the way technology manifests influences and becomes used in performer training discourse and practice The book offers in depth discussions of present and past performer training practices through a lens that has never been applied before considers the employment of key digital artefacts and develops a series of analytical tools that can be useful in scholarly and practical explorations An array of intriguing subjects are covered including the role of electric lights in Stanislavsky's work on concentration the use of handheld tools such as sticks in Zarrilli's psychophysical training and Meyerhold's Biomechanics the emergence of new forms of training in relation to motion capture technology and the way the mobile phone complicates notions and practices of attention in learning and training contexts This book is of vital relevance to performer training scholars and practitioners theatre performance and dance scholars and students and especially those interested in philosophies of technology

Journal of Dramatic Theory and Criticism, 2007

Why Do Actors Train? Brad Krumholz, 2023-01-26 How are we to understand the actor's work as a fully embodied process Embodied cognition is a branch of contemporary philosophy which attempts to frame human understanding as fully embodied interaction with the environment Engaging with ideas of contemporary significance from neuroscience psychology linguistics and philosophy Why Do Actors Train challenges the outmoded dualistic notions of body and mind that permeate common conceptions of how actors work Theories of embodiment are drawn up to shed important light on the ways and reasons actors do what they do Through detailed step by step analyses of specific actor training exercises the author examines the tools that actors use to bring life and meaning to the stage This book provides theatre practitioners and scholars alike with a new lens to re-examine the craft of acting offering a framework to understand the art form as one that is fundamentally grounded in embodied experience

Higher Education and Policy for Creative

Economies in Africa Roberta Comunian,Brian J. Hracz,Lauren England,2020-11-04 The book reflects on the role of the creative economies in a range of African countries namely Ghana Kenya Nigeria South Africa and Uganda Chapters explore how creative economies emerge and can be supported in African countries The contributors focus on two key dimensions the role of higher education and the role of policy Firstly they consider the role of higher education and alternative forms of specialised education to reflect on how the creative aspirations of students and future creative workers of these countries are met and developed Secondly they explore the role of policy in supporting the agendas of the creative economy taking also into consideration the potential historical dimension of policy interventions and the impact of a lack of policy frameworks The book concludes by reflecting on how these two pillars of creative economy development which are usually taken for granted in studying creative economies in the global north need to be understood with their own specificity in the context of our selected case studies in Africa This book will be of interest to students scholars and professionals researching the creative economies in Africa across the humanities and social sciences All the royalties from the publication of this book will be donated to the not for profit organisation The Craft and Design Institute CDI <https://www.thecdi.org.za> in South Africa supporting capacity building for young creative practitioners from disadvantaged backgrounds
