Thinking Skills Carol Rhoder, Joyce N. French, 2012-10-12 Bringing together theory and research on models of thinking this work explores thinking skills strategies content and results in depth providing a framework for their application in the classroom The authors highlight curriculum development instructional procedures and assessment professional roles and responsibilities and teacher training They also explore problem solving and critical and creative thinking and current thinking skills programs The bibliography includes works from 1980 to the present Subject and author indexes are included

Theory of Teaching Thinking Laura Kerslake, Rupert Wegerif, 2018-04-17 Across the world education for thinking is seen as the key to thriving in an increasingly complex globalised technological world The OECD suggests that teaching thinking is key to growing a more successful economy others claim it is needed for increased democratic engagement and well being Theory of Teaching Thinking discusses what is meant by thinking in the context of teaching and takes a global perspective incorporating contributions from neurocognitive technological Confucian philosophical and dialogical viewpoints Questions explored throughout this edited volume include what is thinking how can thinking be taught what does better thinking mean and how can we know it if we see it what is the impact on wider society when thinking is taught in the classroom Extensively researched and at the cutting edge of this field this book provides the context for teaching thinking that researchers teachers and policy makers need As the first book in a brand new series Research on Teaching Thinking and Creativity it is a much needed introduction and guide to this critical subject African American Scenebook Kathryn Ervin, Ethel Pitts

Walker, 1999 First Published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Thinking Across Cultures Donald M. Topping, Doris C. Crowell, Victor N. Kobayashi, 2013-09-05 This volume compares and contrasts contemporary theories of cognition modes of perception and learning from cross cultural perspectives The participants were asked to consider and assess the question of whether people from different cultures think differently Moreover they were asked to consider whether the same approaches to teaching and development of thinking will work in all cultures as well as they do in Western literate societies Teaching Thinking Robert J. Swartz, D.N. Perkins, 2016-07-15 Originally published in 1990 this title attempts to provide for the educational practitioner an overview of a field that responded in the 1980s to a major educational agenda This innovative agenda called for teaching students in ways that dramatically improved the quality of their thinking Its context is a variety of changes in education that brought the explicit teaching of thinking to the consciousness of more and more teachers and administrators Dialogic Readers Fiona Maine, 2015-03-24 Dialogic

Readers Children talking and thinking together about visual texts celebrates the sophisticated and dynamic discussions that primary aged children can have as they talk together to make meaning from a variety of texts and it highlights the potential for talk between readers as a tool for critical and creative thinking It proposes a new dialogic theory of reading comprehension that incorporates multi modal media and adds further weight to the argument that talk as a tool for learning should form a central part of primary classroom learning and teaching The book explores the language of co construction children s critical and creative responses to text the dialogic transaction between text and readers the use of language as a tool for creating a social cohesion between readers This significant work is aimed at educational lecturers researchers and students who want to explore an expanded notion of reading comprehension in the twenty first century realizing how opportunities for children thinking creatively together might transform the potential for learning in the classroom It provides a framework for analyzing co constructive talk with suggestions for promoting children s critical and creative thinking
