Teaching With Authority A Theology Of The Magisterium In The Church:

Magisterium Francis A. Sullivan SJ, 2002-09-30 A striking series of events of the past two decades have tended to raise questions about the exercise of teaching authority in the Catholic Church The Second Vatican Council the Encyclical Humanae Vitae the controversy over Hans Kung's book on infallibility and the subsequent declaration of Rome that he could no longer teach as a Catholic theologian the colloquium to which Edward Schillebeeckx was summoned by the Vatican the pastoral letter of the American bishops on the question of nuclear warfare have all stimulated a lively discussion of the claims of the Catholic hierarchy to authoritative magisterium With all the abundance of literature on the subject a book was still needed that would offer an up to date systematic presentation of Catholic thinking about the nature and function of this magisterium This is what the present volume sets out to provide It takes as its point of departure the belief which a great many Christians besides Catholics share namely that the Church of Christ is maintained in the truth of the Gospel by the Holy Spirit It then examines the various ministries by which the Gospel has been handed on and interpreted for each generation of believers looking especially to the role of the bishops and among them of the Bishop of Rome in settling disputes about the faith Questions concerning papal infallibility the response called for by papal encyclicals the critical role of Catholic theologians vis a vis the magisterium are treated in the light of current theological literature with the non specialist reader in mind

Teaching with Authority Richard R. Gaillardetz, 1997 This book faithfully represents the teaching of Roman Catholicism on the Church's doctrinal authority while pointing to areas where there remains a gap between an ecclesiological vision of the Church informed by Vatican II and the popular understanding and concrete exercise of that authority in the life of the Church today the non specialist reader in mind Magisterium Francis Aloysius Sullivan,1985 Magisterium Francis Alfred Sullivan,1983 By What Authority? Richard R. Gaillardetz,2017-06-07 Authority is exercised in many ways and forms in the Catholic Church today By What Authority offers a helpful introduction to the forms of Church authority that are concerned with authentic Christian belief Gaillardetz G l r d explains what it means to say that the Bible is inspired how Scripture and tradition are related to one another the role of the Pope and bishops in preserving the Christian faith the levels of Church teaching authority how to deal with disagreements with Church teaching the distinctive role of the theologians and the contribution of all the baptized in the formation of Church teaching This book introduces readers to a basic understanding of the nature and exercise of authority in the Catholic Church as understood within the Vision of the Church offered by the Second Vatican Council The chapters conclude by outlining disputed issues regarding the topic of that chapter and a select list of opportunities for further reading Chapters in Part One The Authority of Scripture and Tradition are What Does It Mean to Say the Bible is Inspired What Is the Canon of the Bible and What Is the Relationship Between Scripture and Tradition Chapters in Part Two The Authority of Church Teaching and the Church s Teaching Office are How Do We Understand the Magisterium Today How Do the Pope and Bishops Exercise Their Teaching Authority and What Is Dogma and Doctrine Chapters in Part Three The Authority of the Believer and the Believing Community are What Is the Sense of the Faithful Is There a Place for Disagreement in the Catholic Church and What Is the Proper Relationship Between the Magisterium and Theologians An Introduction to Theology in Global Perspective Stephen B. Bevans,2009 The Joy of Religious Pluralism Phan, Peter C.,2017-02-16 The Development of Moral Theology Charles E. Curran,2013-11-08 Charles Curran in his newest book The Development of Moral Theology Five Strands brings a unique historical and critical analysis to the five strands that differentiate Catholic moral theology from other approaches to Christian ethics sin and the manuals of moral theology the teaching of Thomas Aquinas and later Thomists natural law the role of authoritative church teaching in moral areas and Vatican II Significant changes have occurred over the course of these historical developments In addition pluralism and diversity exist even today as illustrated for example in the theory of natural law proposed by Cardinal Ratzinger In light of these realities Curran proposes his understanding of how the strands should influence moral theology today A concluding chapter highlights the need for a truly theological approach and calls for a significant change in the way that the papal teaching office functions today and its understanding of natural law In a work useful to anyone who studies Catholic moral theology The Development of Moral Theology underscores in the light of the historical development of these strands the importance of a truly theological and critical approach to moral theology that has significant ramifications for the life of the Catholic church Ecclesiology and Postmodernity Gerard Mannion,2017-01-13 What in the world is postmodernity Is it the dominant reality today If it is what does it mean to be a church in a postmodern world It seems that the church had a difficult time coming to terms with a modern world an era ruled by the claims of scientific certainty Having done so more or less it is now confronted by the claims of postmodernity which seem to reverse the whole equation to say that certainty and objectivity are chimeras What is truth Pilate asked and postmodernity at least as caricatured by its opponents responds There s no such thing Gerard Mannion in Ecclesiology and Postmodernity addresses the situation of the church in a postmodern world The fundamental changes in human society and culture wrought by the twentieth century require the church to consider its response in the twenty first century What is the church s moral Vision how does its practice look what is the nature of its aspiration toward holiness in our times Mannion believes that since Vatican II the Catholic Church has been in a kind of limbo awaiting a Vision of its own life for the future Rather than focusing on specific controversies Mannion offers concrete suggestions about how the church can create a better harmony between its own self understanding its ecclesiological Vision and its day to day life its ecclesial practice Gerard Mannion PhD educated at King s College Cambridge University and New College Oxford University is Associate Professor of Ecclesiology and Ethics in the Department of Theology and Religious Studies at Liverpool Hope University UK He is also the director of Church In Our Times Centre for the Study of Contemporary Ecclesiology co director of the Applied Ethics Initiative at Liverpool Hope co chair of the AAR American Academy of Religion Ecclesiological Investigations Program Unit and co ordinator of the Ecclesiological Investigations International Research Network Mannion is the author of Schopenhauer Religion and Morality and co editor of Readings in Church Authority Gifts and Challenges for Contemporary Catholicism both published by Ashgate in 2003 and co editor of the forthcoming volumes The Routledge Companion to the Christian Church and Catholic Social Justice Theological and Practical Explorations
