High School Teaching Harl Roy Douglass,1926 This volume addresses teachers and principals presenting a comprehensive treatment of the methods of teaching in high schools The author assumes a familiarity on the part of his readers with the nature of the learning process adolescence and the psychological foundations of interests and motives as they relate to whole hearted pupil activity The fundamentals of both theory and practice are set forth and an attempt has been made to outline and describe the newer types of procedure which are being employed in different subjects in the best secondary schools Throughout the volume the attempt has been made clearly to represent practices rather than to advocate their adoption The reader is permitted to draw his own conclusions The book will appeal to the type of reader who wants to be intelligent about
