Teaching Toward Possibility Maxine Greene And The Unfinished Conversation:

Explicating Maxine Greene's Notion of Naming and Becoming: "I Am ... Not Yet" Christine Debelak Neider, 2021-09-06 This volume offers a Naming praxis with which teachers might more closely align with their ethical ideals in the midst of their daily practice and relationships with students Framed ontologically in Maxine Greene's existential phenomenological notion of Becoming the author explicates Greene's Naming as a praxis within her own early teaching experiences through the interpretive methods of currere and teacher lore This study evolves in epistolary conversation with Maxine Greene teacher colleagues and new teachers It demonstrates the possibilities of applying critical reflective and discursive dialogue to the tensions of a teacher's life of practice in order to identify the obstacles to and the opportunities of the Becoming of the teacher and the student's in the educational encounter A Light in Dark Times Maxine Greene, William Ayers, Janet L. Miller, 1998 A Light in Dark Times Maxine Greene and the Unfinished Conversation features a list of extraordinary contributors who have been deeply influenced by Professor Greene's progressive philosophies While Maxine Greene is the focus for this collection each chapter is an encounter with her ideas by an educator concerned with his or her own works and projects In essence each featured author takes off from Maxine Greene and then moves forward Just as Maxine Greene herself has this unique and fascinating collection of essays will influence a wide range of worlds arts and aesthetics literature and literacy studies cultural studies school change and improvement the teaching of literacy teacher education peace and social justice women's studies and civil rights Handbook of Research for Educational Communications and Technology David Jonassen, Marcy Driscoll, 2003-12-08 First Published in 2008 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Complicating, Considering, and Connecting Music Education Lauren Kapalka Richerme, 2020-05-05 In Complicating Considering and Connecting Music Education Lauren Kapalka Richerme proposes a poststructuralist inspired philosophy of music education Complicating current conceptions of self other and place Richerme emphasizes the embodied emotional and social aspects of humanity She also examines intersections between local and global music making Next Richerme explores the ethical implications of considering multiple viewpoints and imagining who music makers might become Ultimately she offers that music education is good for facilitating differing connections with one's self and multiple environments Throughout the text she also integrates the writings of Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari with narrative philosophy and personal narratives By highlighting the processes of complicating considering and connecting Richerme challenges the standardization and career centric rationales that ground contemporary music education policy and practice to better welcome diversity Women in Pragmatism: Past, Present and Future Núria Sara Miras Boronat, Michela Bella, 2022-07-07 This book offers a selection of the papers of the Women in Pragmatism International Conference held at the University of Barcelona in January 2020 The conference gathered women and non binary scholars from twelve different countries This was the first pragmatist conference organized entirely by women and non binary persons It has initiated a stable network of mentoring and support analogous to other women philosophers organizations The book provides paths to reconstruct the roots of pragmatism integrating the works of women pragmatists of the past and linking them to the current developments of feminist and pragmatist topics Scholars of different countries status and backgrounds serve as a powerful example of the trend toward interdisciplinary cooperation and versatility we might expect for the future of pragmatism The book is of interest for scholars interested in both pragmatism and feminism from various perspectives ranging from psychology to semiotics logic and sociology wishing to expand their horizons and understand their relevant interactions

Contradictions of School Reform Linda McNeil, 2002-09-11 Parents and community activists around the country complain that the education system is failing our children They point to students failure to master basic skills even as standardized testing is widely employed in efforts to improve the educational system Contradictions of Reform is a provocative look into the reality for students as well as teachers of standardized testing A detailed account of how student improvement and teacher effectiveness are evaluated Contradictions of Reform argues compellingly that the preparation of students for standardized tests engenders teaching methods that vastly compromise the quality of education

Wide-Awake in God's World Graham D. Stanton, 2020-10-08 In an expressivist culture effective engagement must acknowledge teenagers freedom to choose their own spiritual path Yet in an evangelical theology faithful formation must hold on to biblical authority As we seek to engage young people with the Bible key questions need to be explored Such questions include how can pedagogical freedom be affirmed without undermining theological authority and how can authority be asserted without diminishing personal freedom This study explores a freedom authority dialectic in theological dialogue with the educational philosophy of Maxine Greene Greene s reflection on the arts and the imagination are brought into conversation with insights from Charles Taylor Garret Green and Nicholas Wolterstorff As a work of practical theology the book concludes with a framework to shape the purpose content and values for Bible engagement in contemporary youth ministry
