Techniques Of Ladies Hairdressing Of The 19th Century:

The Techniques of Ladies' Hairdressing of the 19th Century A. Mallemon, Mark Campbell, 1996 Cutter's Research Journal, 1998 The American Beauty Industry Encyclopedia Julie Willett, 2010-05-11 This is the first encyclopedia to focus exclusively on the many aspects of the American beauty industry covering both its diverse origins and its global reach The American Beauty Industry Encyclopedia is the first compilation to focus exclusively on this pervasive business covering both its diverse origins and global reach More than 100 entries were chosen specifically to illuminate the most iconic aspects of the industry's past and present exploring the meaning of beauty practices and products often while making analytical use of categories such as gender race sexuality and stages of the lifecycle Focusing primarily on the late 19th and 20th century American beauty industry an era of unprecedented expansion the encyclopedia covers ancient practices and the latest trends and provides a historical examination of institutions entrepreneurs styles and technological innovations It covers for example the 1911 Triangle Shirtwaist Factory fire as well as how Asian women today are having muscle fiber removed from their calves to create a more Western look Entries also explore how the industry reflects social movements and concerns that are inextricably bound to religion feminism the health and safety of consumers and workers the treatment of animals and environmental sustainability Women of Color and Hair Bias in the Work Environment

Francis, Kula A., Clarke, Anna M., 2023-11-09 Professional women of color identify with various natural Black hairstyles including braids dread locs twists and other natural coiled styles Black women who work in professional settings have historically encountered negative stares remarks and biases They tend to be stereotyped on their level of professionalism and competency if they choose not to conform to mainstream hairstyles Women wearing Black hairstyles are often perceived as less beautiful and less professional than those who wear Eurocentric hairstyles Professional Black women are often challenged in these situations where they must decide how to manage their identity in the work environment Too often professional Black women apply and interview for positions where their natural hairstyle becomes the topic of interest If given the opportunity for employment subtle references may be made about their hairstyles which suggests such hairstyles are not in alignment with the professional climate of an organization This type of pressure makes Black women feel forced to conform to Eurocentric hairstyles These expectations lead to feelings of social inadequacy hurt and discouragement of individuals in their workplace The apprehensions with hair acceptance are even more concerning when considering that the notion of straight groomed hair has been largely expected not only by Whites but also by many people of color as well Women of Color and Hair Bias in the Work Environment explores the experiences of professional women of color who have had encountered feelings of uncertainty self consciousness or differing treatment and or discrimination because of their natural hairstyle choices The intent is to shine a light on the challenges professional women of color face and how these experiences impact their hiring and or work environment Covering topics such as hairstyle empowerment ethics of hair bias and diversity
