Abhigyan ,2002 Perspectives on Global Development and Technology ,2005 Economic and Political Weekly
,2001-11 Guide to Indian Periodical Literature ,2004 Business World ,2002 Rural Investment Climate in Indonesia Neil McCulloch,2009 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of the constraints facing the development of rural non farm enterprises in Indonesia Recent years have seen a substantial effort by the Indonesian government to improve the investment climate To date much of this effort has focused on the constraints faced by businesses at the national level However if Indonesia is to be successful in creating jobs and reducing poverty across the archipelago this will require improving the investment climate for the 15 7 million micro and small enterprises that employ more than half of all the non farm workers in the country This book brings together leading Indonesian and international academics to consider seven key constraints that RNFES face labour regulations and practices infrastructure competition and marketing knowledge transfer and technology access to credit and financial services local taxation and user charges and insecurity In each case the authors draw on the Indonesian Rural Investment Climate Survey a unique dataset of more than 2 500 RNFES to identify the size and nature of the constraints the way in which they impact upon enterprise growth and the implications for policy In addition a key chapter estimates the strength of the linkage between agriculture and non agricultural activities in rural areas showing that agricultural revitalization is an essential complement to the development of the non farm economy Understanding the rural investment climate in both slow and fast growing economies has taken on new urgency in the wake of the world food crisis The rural non farm economy often provides half or more of the income of farm families and is especially important for food deficit rural households hard hit by rising food prices The Indonesian Rural Investment Climate Assessment is the gold standard for how to achieve this understanding It is a delight to see it published and available to a wide audience C Peter Timmer Visiting Professor Program on Food Security and Environment Stanford University Non Resident Fellow Center for Global Development Business India ,2002 Disruptive Technology: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications Management Association, Information Resources,2019-07-05 The proliferation of entrepreneurship technological and business innovations emerging social trends and lifestyles employment patterns and other developments in the global context involve creative destruction that transcends geographic and political boundaries and economic sectors and industries This creates a need for an interdisciplinary exploration of disruptive technologies their impacts and their implications for various stakeholders widely ranging from government agencies to major corporations to consumer groups and individuals Disruptive Technology Concepts Methodologies Tools and Applications is a vital reference source that examines innovation imitation and creative destruction as critical factors and agents of socio economic growth and progress in the context of emerging challenges and opportunities for business development and strategic advantage Highlighting a range of topics such as IT innovation business strategy and sustainability this multi volume book is ideally designed for entrepreneurs business executives business professionals academicians and researchers interested in strategic decision making using innovations and competitiveness American Book Publishing Record ,2002 Indian Books in Print

,2003 Globalization, Privatization and Free Market Economy C. Rao,1998-06-25 The three dominant forces shaping societies and economies around the world are globalization privatization and liberalization Because these processes are interrelated they must be addressed collectively The contributors to the volume show that globalization privatization and liberalization are multidimensional phenomena that impact not only the economic considerations of governments but also sociocultural and environmental aspects of societies The three phenomena also affect these units of analysis which Rao and his colleagues identify as regional country industrial and organizational The result is a cogent discussion of these powerful global forces for the academic community professionals in economic development banking finance international investment and global commerce After treating the conceptual issues of meaning definition and differing interpretations and perspectives the volume examines the historical experience with regional economic integration The flow of foreign direct investment a major consequence of globalization privatization and liberalization of economies is considered next This leads to a study of the challenges created for management at the microlevel in organizations such as the intensification of competitiveness and the increased importance of technology and technology management In their examination of country specific issues the contributors show how widely experiences vary with regard to the way in which the three major processes are implemented and how the policies behind them are adopted Finally in their discussion of sectoral and industry specific issues the contributors note that great variations on how different industrial sectors and industries will approach and recreate themselves under the power of the three great processes Developing Countries as Exporters of Technology

Sanjaya Lall,1982-06-18 Advancing Pharmaceutical Processes and Tools for Improved Health Outcomes

Gasmelseid, Tagelsir Mohamed,2016-04-19 There has been a growing concern for the improvement of pharmaceutical services provided by healthcare institutions This concern is also shared by other stakeholders including patients regulatory organizations pharmaceutical companies insurance companies and research institutions Advancing Pharmaceutical Processes and Tools for Improved Health Outcomes presents research based perspectives on the pharmaceutical industry in today s digitally fueled world Focusing on technological innovations for pharmaceutical applications as well as current trends in the industry this publication is ideally designed for use by pharmacists medical professionals administrators in the medical field health insurance professionals researchers and graduate level students Risk Sharing, Risk Spreading and Efficient Regulation T.V.S. Ramamohan Rao,2015-10-22 The book provides an integrated approach to risk sharing risk spreading and efficient regulation through principal agent models It emphasizes the role of information asymmetry and risk sharing in contracts as an alternative to transaction cost considerations It examines how contracting as an institutional mechanism to conduct transactions spreads risks while attempting consolidation It further highlights the shifting emphasis in contracts from Coasian transaction cost saving to risk sharing and shows how it creates difficulties associated with risk spreading and emphasizes the need for efficient regulation of contracts at various levels Each of the chapters is structured using a principal agent model and all chapters incorporate adverse selection and exogenous randomness as a result of information asymmetry as well as moral hazard and endogenous randomness due to the self interest seeking behavior on the part of the participants
