Technology Export From The Socialist Countries:

Technology Export From The Socialist Countries Jan Monkiewicz, Jan Maciejewicz, 2019-07-11 Only since the 1970s have the East European Socialist countries known collectively as Comecon participated in the international exchange of technology as exporters In this book Drs Monkiewicz and Maciejewicz analyze the technology export performance of the Comecon countries They begin by defining the nature of technology as a commodity analyzing the structural characteristics of the international market and outlining both the cost and benefits of technology export Later chapters provide an overview of Comecon technological policies in the 1970s with particular attention to the export import factor and Comecon regional technological cooperation In depth analysis is presented through case studies of the experiences of Poland and Czechoslovakia The book concludes with a discussion of the implications of technology export by socialist countries particularly its potential impact on existing global patterns of technological dependence and domination The United States Role in East-West Trade United States. Department of Commerce, Rogers Clark Ballard Morton, 1975 American Role in East-West Trade United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Commerce, 1977 Space Technology Export Controls and International Cooperation in Outer Space Michael Mineiro, 2011-11-08 Export controls definitively impact international cooperation in outer space Civil and commercial space actors that engage in international endeavors must comply with space technology export controls In the general discourse members of the civil and commercial space community have an understanding of their domestic export control regime However a careful reading of the literature on space technology export controls reveals that certain questions relevant to international engagements have not been identified or answered What is the legal political origin of space technology export controls How do they relate to the current international legal structure What steps can be taken to evolve our current unilateral paradigm of space technology within the context of peaceful exploration and use of outer space In this book these and other relevant questions on space technology export controls are identified and assessed through an insightful case study of the U S commercial communication export control regime The findings of this case study are used in an international legal political analysis of international space law public international law and international cooperation Breaking new ground in international legal theory a self justified security dilemma that is manifest in international law is identified and explained as the origin for the current paradigm of space technology export controls Export Licensing of Advanced Technology United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations. Subcommittee on International Trade and Commerce, 1976 Export Controls in Transition Gary K. Bertsch, Steven Elliott-Gower, 1992 Like many cold war artifacts the West s export control policies and institutions are being reevaluated after the tumult in the communist world at the end of the 1980s Policymakers and scholars are being forced to reexamine the premises of export control policy and the very concept of export controls as a tool of national security and foreign policy This volume brings together expert scholars and government officials who provide contrasting perspectives and address the prospects for export controls The contributors discuss the role and function of export control policies from a variety of perspectives security commerce diplomacy the European region and that of the newly industrialized countries Among the topics covered are the problems the United States and the Western export regime will face in the 1990s in light of changing international political alliances and dependencies in defining strategic exports in enforcing export controls and the role of the Coordinating Committee for Multilateral Export Controls Contributors Sumner Benson Beverly Crawford Richard t Cupitt Dorinda G Dallmeyer Paul Freedenberg Martin J Hillenbrand Hanns Dieter Jacobsen Bruce W Jentleson Kevin J Lasher William J Long Janne Haaland Matlary Jere W Morehead Henry R Nau Han S Park Kevin F F Quigley Alen B Sherr Christine Westbrook East/West Trade and Finance in the World Economy Vienna Institute for Comparative Economic Studies,1985-06-18 The Scientific-Technological Revolution and Soviet Foreign Policy Erik P.
