Technology And Culture The Film Reader:

Technology and Culture, the Film Reader Andrew Utterson, 2005 Hollywood and War, The Film Reader J. David Slocum, 2023-04-28 Discussing such classic films as Sergeant York Air Force and All Quiet on the Western Front as well as more modern blockbusters like Apocalypse Now and Saving Private Ryan this outstanding volume focuses on Hollywood and its production of war films Topics covered include the early formation of war cinema the apotheosis of the Hollywood war film the ascendancy of ambivalence Hollywood and the war since Vietnam war as a way of seeing For any student of film studies or American cultural studies this is a valuable companion The Film Reader's Guide to James Cameron's Avatar Bryn V. Young-Roberts, 2012-01-30 Director of The Terminator Aliens and Titanic James Cameron's latest movie Avatar is the most viewed cinema release of all time yet to date receives little academic attention Filling the gap editor of www.DeepFocusFilm.com Bryn V Young Roberts researches Avatar's historical and cultural relevance with its first in depth examination while simultaneously discussing the Cameron oeuvre From the perspective of historical contextualisation and cultural analysis we decipher its socially significant subtext encouraging a view that Avatar is not exclusively a generic entertainment spectacle Providing foundations for future studies we examine the film as metaphor for the Iraq War advocator of the Internet as liberation tool and political stance to the Bush administration Fear of the industrial military complex and romantic ideals of Class are also analysed Ultimately the volume summarizes Avatar in relation to Cameron's other work and how it fits into our larger contemporary society The Film Cultures Reader Graeme Turner, 2002 This companion reader to Film as Social Practice brings together key writings on contemporary cinema exploring film as a social and cultural phenomenon Transnational Cinema Elizabeth Ezra, Terry Rowden, 2006 Topics include from national to transnational cinema global cinema in the digital age motion pictures film migration and diaspora tourists and terrorists The Webcam as an Emerging Cinematic Medium Paula Albuquerque, 2025-10-01 All the world's a stage literally so given the ubiquitous presence of webcams recording daily life in cities This footage allegedly documentary recreates cities as cinematic environments as people interact with the multitudes of cameras and screens around them Paula Albuquerque's original research and experimental films presented in this groundbreaking book expose fictionalising elements in archival webcams and explore video surveillance as an urban condition that influences both perceptions of the past and visions of the future Cinematic Chronotopes Pepita Hesselberth, 2014-06-19 The site of cinema is on the move The extent to which technologically mediated sounds and images continue to be experienced as cinematic today is largely dependent on the intensified sense of being here now and me that they convey This intensification is fundamentally rooted in the cinematic's potential to intensify our experience of time to convey time's thickening of which the sense of place and a sense of self presence are the correlatives In this study Pepita Hesselberth traces this thickening of time across four different spatio-temporal configurations of the cinematic a multi media exhibition featuring the work of Andy Warhol 1928 1987 the handheld aesthetics of European art house films a large scale media installation by Rafael Lozano Hemmer and the usage of the trope of the flash forward in mainstream Hollywood cinema Only by juxtaposing these cases by looking at what they have in common this study argues can we grasp the complexity of the changes that the cinematic is currently undergoing

What You See Is What You Hear Dario Martinelli, 2020-01-01 What You See Is What You Hear develops a unique model of analysis that helps students and advanced scholars alike to look at audiovisual texts from a fresh perspective Adopting an engaging writing style the author draws an accessible picture of the field offering several analytical tools historical background and numerous case studies Divided into five main sections the monograph covers problems of definitions history and most of all analysis The first part raises the main problems related to audiovisuality including taxonomical and historical questions The second part provides the bases for the understanding of audiovisual creative communication as a whole introducing a novel theoretical model for its analysis The next three part focus elaborate on the model in all its constituents and with plenty of case studies taken from the field of cinema TV music videos advertising and other forms of audiovisuality Methodologically the book is informed by different paradigms of film and media studies multimodality studies structuralism narratology auteur theory in the broad sense communication studies semiotics and the so called Humanities What You See Is What You Hear enables readers to better understand how to analyze the structure and content of diverse audiovisual texts to discuss their different idioms and to approach them with curiosity and critical spirit
