Technology And Empire Perspectives On North America:

Technology and Empire George Grant, 1991-06-01 Brilliant and still timely analysis of the implications of technology driven globalization on everyday life from Canada's most influential philosophers reissued in a handsome A List edition featuring an introduction by Andrew Potter Originally published in 1969 Technology and Empire offers a brilliant analysis of the implications of technology driven globalization on everyday life The author of Lament for a Nation George Grant has been recognized as one of Canada's most significant thinkers In this sweeping essay collection he reflects on the extent to which technology has shaped our modern culture

Collected Works of George Grant George Grant, 2000 Technology and Empire, 1991 George Grant philosopher conservative Canadian nationalist was one of Canada's most significant thinkers and the author of Lament for a Nation In Technology and Empire Grant reflects on the extent to which technology has shaped our modern culture

Modern Technology and the Human Future Craig M. Gay, 2018-12-11 Technology has always shaped human life and our understanding of what it means to be human But does it actually encourage human flourishing By exploring the doctrine of the incarnation and what it means for our embodiment Craig Gay raises concerns about the theological implications of modern technologies and movements such as transhumanism offering an alternative vision to the path of modern technology

Canadian Intellectuals, the Tory Tradition, and the Challenge of Modernity, 1939-1970 Philip Massolin, 2015-05-27 In this well researched book Philip Massolin takes a fascinating look at the forces of modernization that swept through English Canada beginning at the turn of the twentieth century Victorian values agrarian religious and the adherence to a rigid set of philosophical and moral codes were being replaced with those intrinsic to the modern age industrial secular scientific and anti intellectual This work analyses the development of a modern consciousness through the eyes of the most fervent critics of modernity adherents to the moral and value systems associated with Canada's tory tradition The work and thought of social and moral critics Harold Innis Donald Creighton Vincent Massey Hilda Neatby George P Grant W L Morton Northrop Frye and Marshall McLuhan are considered for their views of modernization and for their strong opinions on the nature and implications of the modern age These scholars shared concerns over the dire effects of modernity and the need to attune Canadians to the realities of the modern age Whereas most Canadians were oblivious to the effects of modernization these critics perceived something ominous far from being a sign of true progress modernization was a blight on cultural development In spite of the efforts of these critics Canada emerged as a fully modern nation by the 1970s Because of the triumph of modernity the toryism that the critics advocated ceased to be a defining feature of the nation's life Modernization in short contributed to the passing of an intellectual tradition centuries in the making and rapidly led to the ideological underpinnings of today's modern Canada

The Undiscovered Country Ian Angus, 2013 In this sequence of essays Ian Angus engages with themes of identity power and the nation as they emerge in contemporary English Canadian philosophical thought seeking to prepare the groundwork for a critical theory of neoliberal globalization The essays are organized into three parts The opening part offers a nuanced critique of the Hegelian confidence and progressivism that has come to dominate Canadian intellectual life Through an analysis of the work of several prominent Canadian thinkers among them Charles Taylor and C B Macpherson Angus suggests that Hegelian frames of reference are inadequate failing as they do to accommodate the fact of English Canada's continuing indebtedness to empire The second part focuses on national identity and political culture including the role of Canadian studies as a discipline adapting its critical method to Canadian political culture The first two parts culminate in the positive articulation in Part 3 of author's own conception one that is at once more utopian and more tragic than that of the first two parts Here Angus develops the concept of locative thought the thinking of a people who have undergone dispossession of a people seeking its place and therefore of a people that has not yet found its place

Prometheus Wired Darin Barney, 2011-11-01 From all sides we hear that computer technology with its undeniable power to disseminate information and connect individuals holds enormous potential for a reinvigoration of political life But will the Internet really spark a democratic revolution And will the changes it brings be so profound that past political thought will be of little use in helping us to understand them In Prometheus Wired Darin Barney debunks claims that a networked society will provide the infrastructure for a political revolution and shows that the resources we need for understanding and making sound judgments about this new technology are surprisingly close at hand By looking to thinkers who grappled with the relationship of society and technology such as Plato Aristotle Marx and Heidegger Barney critically examines such assertions about the character of digital networks Along the way Barney offers an eye opening history of digital networks and then explores a wide range of contemporary issues such as electronic commerce telecommuting privacy virtual community digital surveillance and the possibility of sovereign governance in an age of global networks Ultimately Barney argues that instead of placing power back in the hands of the public a networked economy seems to exacerbate the worst features of industrial capitalism and in terms of the surveillance and control it exerts reduces our political freedom Of vital interest to politicians communicators and anyone concerned about the future of democracy in the digital age Prometheus Wired adds a provocative new voice to the debate swirling around the Net and the ways in which it will or will not change our political lives

The Medium Is the Monster Mark A. McCutcheon, 2018-04-21 Technology a word that emerged historically first to denote the study of any art or technique has come in modernity to describe advanced machines industrial systems and media McCutcheon argues that it is Mary Shelley's 1818 novel Frankenstein that effectively reinvented the meaning of the word for modern English It was then Marshall McLuhan's media theory and its adaptations in Canadian popular culture that popularized even globalized a Frankensteinian sense of technology The Medium Is the Monster shows how we cannot talk about technology that human made monstrosity today without conjuring Frankenstein thanks in large part to its Canadian adaptations by pop culture icons such as David Cronenberg William Gibson Margaret Atwood and Deadmau5 In the unexpected connections illustrated by The Medium Is the Monster McCutcheon brings a fresh approach to studying adaptations popular culture and technology The Worldly Years John English, 2011-09-14 His life changed that of his nation John English illuminates the years of Lester Pearson's greatest eminence and vividly explores his life and times His period as prime minister was to prove one of the most decisive in our history and his policies helped shape Canada's foremost international statesman The Lester Pearson who emerges from the account of these momentous years from the Korean War through the tumultuous sixties to his death in 1972 is a complex paradoxical figure A man uneasy with ambition who shunned the flamboyance of his arch rival Diefenbaker Pearson nevertheless competed for the most glittering prize in Canadian political life World recognition brought him the Nobel Peace Prize yet in his battle to maintain independence for his country he deliberately incurred the wrath of its powerful traditional allies particularly Lyndon Johnson whom he heartily disliked He was oddly unprepared personally to take on Canada's highest political office and led the Liberal Party to the worst defeat in its history yet went on to sponsor astonishing far reaching changes in Canadian society bilingualism biculturalism medicare modern Canadian nationalism and co operative federalism all innovations of the Pearson years And while he has been called our greatest prime minister other see him as the leader of a government that created many of Canada's discontents and crises and scandals that swirled about him Most paradoxically of all perhaps this unassuming man became a national icon winning a lasting place in the hearts and minds of a generation of Canadians In this second volume of his award winning biography John English has had remarkable access to Pearson's personal and political papers drawing on the letters and diaries and private papers of a host of his contemporaries and on personal interviews with his family and friends rivals and foes alike The result is a compellingly readable a richly detailed portrait of Canada and of a remarkable Canadian whose impact was immense Poetry and Culture in Britain, Canada and the United States Jonathan Locke Hart, 2025-03-18 This book is about poetry and the poetic in the cultures and literatures of Britain Canada and the United States Close reading is the primary method The figures discussed in the book were born from 1911 to the post war years after 1945 The volume proceeds from Marshall McLuhan as a poet through Douglas LePan Ted Hughes Leonard Cohen Margaret Atwood Thomas King and Forrest Gander to Hannah Lowe Russell Leong Marilyn Chin Fred Wah interpoetics poetry and culture in Chinese diasporic poetry Louis Riel Pauline Johnson Naomi McIlwraith Indigenous and M tis poetry Gaspar P rez de Villagr Anne Bradstreet Phillis Wheatley Langston Hughes Joan Kane Russell Leong Marilyn Chin and Forrest Gander the multiple makings of poetry of North America Here is a poetry of the North Atlantic world a transatlantic poetics then and now The book reads poetry and the poetic in terms of media aesthetics drama criticism music interpoetics diaspora culture diversity and African Asian and Indigenous poets Canada in the Global Village Heather Menzies, 1997-09-15 This text provides an inter disciplinary critique of the new global economy and information society tracing its roots in the infrastructures of Canada's development from the canoes and ships of the fur trade through the railways and telegraph of industrialization to mass print media radio television and film distribution It draws on the works of four key thinkers Ursula Franklin George Grant Harold Innis and Marshall McLuhan to frame contributions from Pat Armstrong Ellen Balka Robert Babe Pam Colorado James Carey and many others Civilizing the Wilderness A.A. den Otter, 2012-04-05 Eleven essays explore the dichotomy of civilizing and wilderness in 1850s Euro British North America

The Family in Christian Social and Political Thought Brent Waters, 2007-07-19 Brent Waters examines the historical roots and contemporary implications of the virtual disappearance of the family in late liberal and Christian social and political thought Waters argues that the principal cause of this disappearance is late liberalism's fixation on individual autonomy which renders familial bonds unintelligible He traces the history of this emphasis from its origin in Hobbes and Locke through Kant to such contemporary theorists as Rawls and Okin In response Waters offers an alternative normative account of the family's role in social and political ordering drawing upon the work of Althusius Grotius Dooyeweerd and O Donovan

Cash Values Craig M. Gay, 2003 While modern capitalism can perhaps be justified in terms of a number of Christian values Gay observes that the market systems use of money tends to empty the world of substance and meaning Working off the insights of a number of classical and contemporary social theorists Gay encourages the reader to rediscover meanings and values that are able to transcend and to discipline the market systems cash nexus Walter Gordon and the Rise of

Canadian Nationalism Stephen Azzi, 1999 From the 1950s to the 1970s Walter Gordon was the voice of English Canadian nationalism first as chair of the Royal Commission on Canada's Economic Prospects then as a minister in Lester B Pearson's cabinet and finally as founder and honorary chair of the Committee for an Independent Canada In the late 1960s many Canadians heeded Gordon's call for limits on the level of American investment in Canadian industry and joined with him to form a broad movement to limit American influence in Canada Christian Moral Theology in the Emerging Technoculture

Brent Waters, 2016-05-23 We are living in an emerging technoculture Machines and gadgets not only weave the fabric of daily life but more importantly embody philosophical and religious values which shape the contemporary moral vision a vision that is often at odds with Christian convictions This book critically examines those values and offers a framework for how Christian moral theology should be formed and lived out within the emerging technoculture Brent Waters argues that technology represents the principal cultural background against which contemporary Christian moral life is formed Addressing contemporary ethical and religious issues this book will be of particular interest to students and scholars exploring the ideas of Heidegger Nietzsche Grant Arendt and Borgmann Understanding Educational Expeditions

, 2010-01-01 This book explores theory that can be used to inform how educational expeditions are conceptualised planned and facilitated The contributors offer a wide range of perspectives through which expeditions for educational purposes can be considered Eleven accessible chapters examine the following topics The British Youth Expedition Cultural and Historical Perspectives Virtue Ethics and Expeditions Interactionism and Expeditions The Expedition and Rites of Passage Science on Expeditions Choices Values and Untidy Processes Personal Social and Health Education on Educational Expeditions

Expeditions and Liberal Arts University Education Understanding Heritage Travel Story Place and Technology Expeditions for People with Disabilities Ethics for Expeditions Current Issues Aiming to bridge theory and practice each chapter outlines relevant literature highlights key areas for consideration and offers suggestions for real world application The book will be of interest to researchers university students expedition organisers and outdoor instructors Arms Canada Ernie Regehr,1987 First published in 1987 Arms Canada paints a disturbing picture of the Canadian arms industry an industry whose sales then totalled 3 billion annually Beyond Paradise Jack Clayton Swearngen,2007-03-01 Technology is shaping our culture and controlling our lives for better or for worse Often technology s benefits far outweigh its negative impacts and technological advances can seem boundless But the scientific technological worldview tends to override other value systems Indeed this technological way of thinking has influenced many contemporary ideas beliefs values habits and ways of communicating Furthermore in addition to technology s well known environmental impacts social aesthetic and spiritual consequences are now emerging How can we balance positive physical effects of technology with other ambiguous or negative impacts Some of the decisions we face have no precedent from which to draw wisdom For this reason the resources of Scripture and the Christian tradition must be brought to bear on technological questions How is technology used and abused today Does technological progress lead to human progress How can Scripture help us both individually and collectively to manage technology s impact in proactive ways Swearngen uncovers a comprehensive scriptural mandate for managing technology On his way to a theology of technology he evaluates which advances are moving society in directions consistent with God s purposes Beyond Paradise Technology and the Kingdom of God aims to provide practical means for assessing technology s influence and for steering technology and its effects toward biblical ends Walk Away Grant Havers, Lee Trepanier,2019-07-19 This book examines key twentieth century philosophers theologians and social scientists who began their careers with commitments to the political left only later to reappraise or reject them Their reevaluation of their own previous positions reveals not only the change in their own thought but also the societal changes in the culture economics and politics to which they were reacting By exploring the evolution of the political thought of these philosophers this book draws connections among these thinkers and schools and discovers the general trajectory of twentieth century political thinking in the West
