Dighton, 2000-09-21 Blink twice for help Something strange has gripped the residents of Douglas County Oregon One by one several people and even whole families have literally fallen down in what looks like a coma It's horrifying for those untouched by the disease to see their loved ones fall beside them mid word without any warning and without any discernible reason It's much more terrifying for the victims however than anyone realizes because the victims aren't in a coma They are fully conscious aware of their surroundings and able to do only two things on their own breathe and blink They have Locked In Syndrome a kind of living death in which they can see hear taste and feel but cannot even twitch their nose Senior Public Health Nurse Nancy Brandauer has the task of finding out what happened to these people and what will bring them out of it before their condition becomes irreversible Her quest is motivated by something much deeper than her commitment to her profession great though that is Her motivation springs from the very core of her soul because her only daughter is one of the victims Into the midst of this emotional whirl the Centers for Disease Control drops someone to help Her first love Zachary Keller a man from whom the parting was not sweet but bitter unresolved and for which Nancy feels a certain guilt Happily married now for many years she draws strength from her husband Ed even as he draws strength from her Their bond is as unassailable as any couple s can be but it faces a rapid succession of challenges that will test its temper as nothing has before Locked In twists and turns going where you least expect it Just when you think you ve rounded the last turn and worked everything out it tosses you another surpriseright up to the very last page     The Harlequin ,1899     Library Journal ,1891     Harper's New Monthly Magazine Henry Mills Alden,1861 Harper s informs a diverse body of readers of cultural business political literary and scientific affairs     Library Journal Melvil Dewey,Richard Rogers Bowker,L.
