Teens With Aids Speak Out:

Teens with AIDS Speak Out Mary Kittredge, 1991 Teenagers with AIDS describe how they became infected and what it is like to live with the disease Teenagers, HIV, and AIDS Maureen E. Lyon, Lawrence D'Angelo, 2006-09-30 Who will want me now It's a heart wrenching question for teenagers infected with HIV The number of HIV AIDS infected teenagers in the United States is increasing Nearly 35 000 U S teenagers now have AIDS Far more have been diagnosed with HIV and an undetermined number have the virus and do not yet know Each year some 1 700 young people aged 13 to 24 are diagnosed with the ravaging end result of this infection AIDS In this volume experts who work with HIV AIDS infected teenagers examine the psychological and social fallout compounding the frightening medical issues faced by adolescents who've received the diagnosis Readers share the challenge with teens as they face the stigma of HIV AIDS and the tough decisions about who to tell of their infection and when to do it We learn the hard truth about health care self care and new treatment options for affected teens And we read about the heartbreaking end of life care issues for dying adolescents Perhaps most important the authors offer resources teens and their families can turn to for information and support And they explain what family friends teachers and other professionals can do to help infected teens maximize their mental health and their quality of life AIDS TV Alexandra Juhasz, Catherine Gund, 1995 Camcorder AIDS activism is a prime example of a new form of political expression an outburst of committed low budget community produced political video work made possible by new accessible technologies As Alexandra Juhasz looks at this phenomenon why and how video has become the medium for so much AIDS activism she also tries to make sense of the bigger picture How is this work different from mainstream television How does it alter what we think of the media's form and function The result is an eloquent and vital assessment of the role media activism plays in the development of community identity and self empowerment An AIDS videomaker herself Juhasz writes from the standpoint of an AIDS activist and blends feminist film critique with her own experience She offers a detailed description of alternative AIDS video including her own work on the Women's AIDS Video Enterprise WAVE Along with WAVE Juhasz discusses amateur video tapes of ACT UP demonstrations safer sex videos produced by Gay Men's Health Crisis public access programming and PBS documentaries as well as network television productions From its close up look at camcorder AIDS activism to its critical account of mainstream representations AIDS TV offers a better understanding of the media politics identity and community in the face of AIDS It will challenge and encourage those who hope to change the course of this crisis both in the real world and in the world of representation Coming Out, Coming In Linda Goldman, 2008 Coming Out Coming In describes the process of coming in to a welcoming and nurturing family Linda Goldman draws on her personal and professional experience to build a common language and a new paradigm for understanding sexual orientation and gender identity as a part of mainstream culture Teens with AIDS Speak Out Mary Kittredge, 1991 Teenagers with AIDS describe how they became infected and what it is like to live with the disease

Reading Programs for Young Adults Martha Seif Simpson, 2015-11-16 School and public libraries often provide programs and activities for children in preschool through the sixth grade but there is little available to young adults For them libraries become a place for work the place to research an assignment or find a book for a report but the thought of the library as a place for enjoyment is lost So how do librarians recapture the interest of teenagers This just might be the answer Here you will find theme based units such as Cartoon Cavalcade Log On at the Library Go in Style Cruising the Mall Space Shots Teens on TV and 44 others that are designed for young adults Each includes a display idea suggestions for local sponsorship of prizes a program game to encourage participation 10 theme related activities curriculum tie in activities sample questions for use in trivia games or scavenger hunts ideas for activity sheets a bibliography of related works and a list of theme related films The units are highly flexible allowing any public or school library to adapt them to their particular needs Healthy Teens, Body and Soul Andrea Marks, Betty Rothbart, 2003-02-04 This breakthrough book covers the head to toe outside inside health needs of today's 10 to 21 year olds Written by experts in adolescent medicine and parent child relationships this comprehensive reference gives no nonsense straightforward guidance on how to talk with teens in a way that will help them take charge of their own health Andrea Marks M D and Betty Rothbart M S W take a unique approach they focus on the interplay of physical mental emotional and social issues that make these years such a challenging time They show how physical health concerns must be considered within the context of the three main goals of adolescence gaining independence clarifying sexual identity Finding a realistic satisfying place in society Combining authoritative information with sound advice on communicating with teens who really do want and need their parents help even though at times it may seem otherwise Healthy Teens Body and Soul will teach parents how to open the lines of communication that will result in healthier happier teens and parents Breaking the Silence Linda Goldman, 2014-06-11 The second edition of this bestselling book is designed for mental health professionals educators and the parent caregiver this book provides specific ideas and techniques to work with children in various areas of complicated grief It presents words and methods to help initiate discussions of these delicate topics as well as tools to help children understand and separate complicated grief into parts These parts in turn can be grieved for and released one at a time A new chapter is included called Communities Grieve Involvement with Children and Trauma It includes information on The Taiwan Earthquake and how the community worked with children a school bus accident in which 36 elementary school children witnessed the death of the bus driver that was driving and how the school system worked with these children and their families a boy who was running on a cross country team and got hit by a car which was witnessed by teammates and how a non profit community grief agency worked with family school and community The last study is from the Oklahoma bombing and the outgrowth of a place for the traumatized children and how they still work with kids and family today This chapter then contains new activities to work with traumatized grieving children The new edition also includes updated resources books curriculums websites hotlines and another new chapter on bullying and victimization issues The chapter for educators has been expanded including the coverage of topics such as at risk students gay and lesbian issues and self injurious behaviors
