Simms, 2021-12-24 First published in 1986 Forty five percent of black women have at least one child by the time they are turn twenty compared to 19 percent of white women Eight six percent of the births to black teens occurred to unmarried mothers compared to 30 percent among whites Research shows that teenage childbearing has negative medical social and economic consequences and that women who first gave birth as teenagers are more likely to raise their families in poverty In Choice and Circumstance the authors explore tree factors underlying the racial differences in the incidence of early childbearing information about sex pregnancy and contraception need for family planning and abortion services and motivation for postponing parenthood including aspirations for schooling employment plans and desire for children within marriage They consider which teens postpone sex and pregnancy and why and whether the kinds of motivation necessary to prevent early pregnancy vary by race in the United Sates perhaps explaining the race differences in early childbearing

Challenging Choices Erika Dyck, Maureen Lux, 2020-11-18 Between the decriminalization of contraception in 1969 and the introduction of the Charter of Rights and Freedoms in 1982 a landmark decade in the struggle for women s rights public discourse about birth control and family planning was transformed At the same time a transnational conversation about the population bomb that threatened global famine caused by overpopulation embraced birth control technologies for a different set of reasons revisiting controversial ideas about eugenics heredity and degeneration In Challenging Choices Erika Dyck and Maureen Lux argue that reproductive politics in 1970s Canada were shaped by competing ideologies on global population control poverty personal autonomy race and gender For some Canadians the 1970s did not bring about an era of reproductive liberty but instead reinforced traditional power dynamics and paternalistic structures of authority Dyck and Lux present case studies of four groups of Canadians who were routinely excluded from progressive reformist discourse Indigenous women and their communities those with intellectual and physical disabilities teenage girls and men In different ways each faced new levels of government regulation scrutiny or state intervention as they negotiated their reproductive health rights and responsibilities in the so called era of sexual liberation While acknowledging the reproductive rights gains that were made in the 1970s the authors argue that the legal changes affected Canadians differently depending on age social position gender health status and cultural background Illustrating the many ways to plan a modern family these case studies reveal how the relative merits of life and choice were pitted against each other to create a new moral landscape for evaluating classic questions about population control The Construction of Preference Sarah Lichtenstein, Paul Slovic, 2006-08-28 One of the main themes that has emerged from behavioral decision research during the past three decades is the view that people's preferences are often constructed in the process of elicitation. This idea is derived from studies demonstrating that normatively equivalent methods of elicitation (e.g., choice and pricing) give rise to systematically different responses. These preference reversals violate the principle of procedure invariance that is fundamental to all theories of rational choice. If different elicitation procedures produce different orderings of options, how can preferences be defined and in what sense do they exist? This book shows not only the historical roots of preference construction but also the blossoming of the concept within psychology, law, marketing, philosophy, environmental policy, and economics. Decision making is now understood to be a highly contingent form of information processing sensitive to task complexity, time pressure, response mode, framing, reference points, and other contextual factors.

Parenting Teens with Love and Logic Jim Fay, Foster Cline, 2014-02-27 Parents need help to teach their teens how to make decisions responsibly and do so without going crazy or damaging the relationship. Parenting Teens with Love and Logic from the duo who wrote Parenting with Love and Logic empowers parents with the skills necessary to set limits, teach important skills, and encourage decision making in their teenagers. Covering a wide range of real-life issues teens face, including divorce, ADD, addiction, and sex, this book gives you the tools to help your teens find their identity and grow in maturity. Indexed for easy reference.

The Homeschool Choice Kate Henley Averett, 2021-05-04 Honorable Mention Sex/Gender Section Distinguished Book Award given by the American Sociological Association. The surprising reasons parents are opting out of the public school system and homeschooling their kids. Homeschooling has skyrocketed in popularity in the United States; in 2019, a record-breaking 2.5 million children were being homeschooled. In The Homeschool Choice, Kate Henley Averett provides insight into this fascinating phenomenon, exploring the perspectives of parents who have chosen to homeschool their children. Drawing on in-depth interviews, Averett examines the reasons why these parents choose to homeschool, from those who disagree with sex education and LGBT content in schools to others who want to protect their children's sexual and gender identities. With eye-opening detail, she shows us how homeschooling is a trend being chosen by an increasingly diverse subset of American families at times in order to empower or constrain children's gender and sexuality. Ultimately, Averett explores how homeschooling as a growing practice has changed the roles that families, schools, and the state play in children's lives. As teachers, parents, and policymakers debate the future of public education, The Homeschool Choice sheds light on the ongoing struggle over school choice.

Working with Adolescents Julie Anne Laser, Nicole Nicotera, 2011-03-03 A state-of-the-art practitioner resource and course text, this book provides a comprehensive view of adolescent development and spells out effective ways to help teens who are having difficulties. The authors illuminate protective and risk factors in the many contexts of adolescents' lives, from individual attributes to family, school, neighborhood, and media influences. An ecological perspective is applied to understanding and addressing specific adolescent challenges, including substance abuse, sexual identity issues, mental health problems, risky sexual behavior, and delinquency. Throughout the book, clear-cut assessment and intervention strategies are illustrated with rich case examples Street Nelson Mwangi, 2016-04-04 You will never live a happy life leave alone achieve your dreams and reach your destiny if you fail to find your purpose in life Every page of this book will help you to not only find your identity but also become conversant about the tenacity you have towards achieving your dream This discovery will subject you to a splendid life of purpose and passion until you get to your destiny This book is for teens and young adults who are looking forward to rise above their fears depart from mediocrity afoot a complete transformation and efficacy of their lives by first realizing who they are and finding their Gods given purpose in life before they embark on a life journey with a sole purpose of becoming successful in all areas of their lives if they adhere to their purpose and live their passion Parents As you embark on a venture to gentrify your teens life this book will enhance your parenting acumen and help you to undertake your parenting responsibility of inculcating your teens and young adults with the moral responsibilities that they need in order to always make positive decisions not worth regrets in their present and future lives Since empowerment is a very vital act of mentorship that fosters self identity and ameliorates an individuals quality of life ignorance is bliss only when the knowledge of God is not involved Its through our relationship with God that we come to find our purpose gain confidence become courageous and suppress our fears in life as we progress towards our destiny As we seek to find our God mandated purpose in our lives its very imperative to know that life comes in phases where victory of your present stage invigorates your progress in the next stage Nevertheless our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure Its our light not our darkness that most frightens us Most of the times we ask ourselves who am I to be brilliant gorgeous talented and successful Actually who are you not to be You are a child of God Your constrained thinking does not serve or impact the world Your life is not a mistake Every human being has a purpose which should dictate him or her to live a purpose driven life We were born to make manifest the glory of God that is within us Its not just in some of us its in everyone As we let our own light shine we unconsciously give others permission to follow suit As we are emancipated from our own fear our presence and perseverance automatically emancipates others The Parents' Guide to Psychological First Aid Gerald P. Koocher, Annette M. La Greca, Olivia Moorehead-Slaughter, Nadja N. Lopez, 2024 The Parents Guide to Psychological First Aid brings together an array of experts to offer parental guidance in helping your child navigate and recover from the everyday stresses they will encounter growing up Clear practical and to the point this is a go to reference that parents will find themselves returning to again and again as their children grow With practical tips nonjudgmental advice and suggestions for additional resources at the end of each chapter this useful and thought provoking book will be of immense value to new and seasoned parents alike Risk: A Very Short Introduction Baruch Fischhoff, John Kadvany, John David Kadvany, 2011-05-26 Risks are everywhere They come from many sources including crime diseases accidents terror climate change finance and intimacy They arise from our own acts and they are imposed on us In this Very Short Introduction Fischhoff and Kadvany draw on both the sciences and humanities to show what all risks have in common Do we care about losing money health reputation or peace of mind How much do we care about things happening now or in the future To ourselves or to others All risks require thinking hard about what matters to us before we make decisions about them based on past experience scientific knowledge and future uncertainties Using conceptual frameworks such as decision theory and behavioural decision research we examine the science and practice of creating measures of risk and look at how scientists apply probability by combining historical records scientific theories and expert judgement Showing what science has learned about how people deal with risks and applying these to diverse everyday examples the authors demonstrate how we move from understanding a risk to making a choice in everyday life Effective Teenagers
