Teeth Are Smiling The Persistence Of Racism In Multicultural Australia:

The Teeth are Smiling Ellie Vasta, Stephen Castles, 1996-01-01 This collection looks behind the smiles of multicultural policy to discover a society still affected by racial tension      Borderwork in Multicultural Australia John

O'Carroll, 2020-07-31 Refugees Border protection Ethnic gangs Terrorism History wars Pauline Hanson Australia's faith in multiculturalism has been shaken by fierce attacks from its enemies and a sense of crisis among its friends Multiculturalism has become a political tool to win votes and generate community anxiety What is left of the multicultural ideal Bob Hodge and John O'Carroll take the pulse of multicultural Australia in the wake of September 11 They investigate the hot spots of multiculturalism showing how they cluster around fiercely defended boundaries and borders both literal and symbolic They tackle the issues of racism past and present and show how injustice impacts on many communities in Australia including Aboriginals as well as more recent migrant groups The authors argue that despite appearances multiculturalism is alive and well in Australia and a commitment to tolerance and diversity characterises daily life In fact Australia's multiculturalism is the best kind of borderwork against terrorism racism and injustice A timely original and optimistic discussion of Australia's multicultural past and our possible futures Graeme Turner Director Centre for Critical and Cultural Studies University of Queensland This clearly written book shines a welcome light on the fog of critique of Australian multiculturalism from both the Right and the Left Jock Collins Professor of Economics University of Technology Sydney      Haunted Nations Sneja

Gunew, 2013-04-15 Postcolonialism has attracted a large amount of interest in cultural theory but the adjacent area of multiculturalism has not been scrutinised to quite the same extent In this innovative new book Sneja Gunew sets out to interrogate the ways in which the transnational discourse of multiculturalism may be related to the politics of race and indigeneity grounding her discussion in a variety of national settings and a variety of literary autobiographical and theoretical texts Using examples from marginal sites the settler societies of Australia and Canada to cast light on the globally dominant discourses of the US and the UK Gunew analyses the political ambiguities and the pitfalls involved in a discourse of multiculturalism haunted by the opposing spectres of anarchy and assimilation      Locating Asian Australian Cultures Tseen

Khoo, 2013-10-18 Locating Asian Australian Cultures is a timely and challenging interdisciplinary compilation that sets a contemporary benchmark for Asian Australian studies and its future directions In the dynamic field of diasporic Asian studies Asian Australian Studies is an emerging and contentious area While cognisant of issues and critical developments in North America Europe and Asia Asian Australian studies forges its own specific engagements with questions of identity racialization and nationalisms in a world of globalized cultures and movements This book deliberately engages with international perspectives on Asian Australian studies that offer contingent connections and address crucial questions for fields that are rapidly de-nationalizing The volume focuses on Asian Australian cultural production and identity presenting work that interrogates notions of belonging and citizenship representational politics and disciplinarity in the academy The broad ranging essays examine the politics of Asian Australian art and literature as well as the area's significant interventions in disciplinary formations nationally and internationally Other essays discuss the Vietnamese War memorial in Cabramatta notions of the sacrificial Asian in contemporary films and Chinatown sites in Australia This book will be essential reading not only for researchers in Asian Australian studies but also for those with an interest in Asian diaspora and Australian studies

Sexualised Citizenship Shirlita Africa Espinosa, 2017-08-12 This book considers the intersections of race gender and class in multicultural Australia through the lens of migration to the country Focusing on Philippines born migration it presents the profile and history of this minority group through an examination of their print material culture over the last 40 years Particularly it examines the growth of the production of Filipino cultural identity and the politics of community building in relation to the sexualisation of their acquired citizenship Given the promotion of Australia as a modern multicultural Western nation in the Asia Pacific region the book questions the bases on which this claim stands using the example of Filipino settlement in Australia Considering the social contradictions that continue to shape multicultural politics in Australia it examines how the community makes sense of its migration through print material culture The book analyses the community's responses to their minoritisation to understand how Filipino Australian migration the affective and economic appropriation of women's labour is instructive of the social reality of millions in the global diaspora today Based on archival and ethnographic research this text straddles the interdisciplinary fields of gender and cultural studies and is a key read for all scholars of Asian and Australian area studies

Migration and Insecurity Niklaus Steiner, Robert Mason, Anna Hayes, 2012-11-27 This book presents an interdisciplinary investigation into contemporary migration and social inclusion through an examination of migrant and refugee experience In this edited volume contributors discuss new understandings of individual and community security in a world where legal borders and definitions of citizenship no longer adequately capture the reality of migration Distinguished contributors approach questions of social belonging and inclusion from diverse perspectives Drawing its primary examples from Australia Migration and Insecurity is framed by the wider experience of the Global North with examples from Europe the United Kingdom and United States woven throughout the collection An interdisciplinary approach to migration studies this book integrates local national and transnational spaces in its discussion of new constructs of inclusion and security It considers questions of historical memory ontological security transnational communities the role of civic institutions and social relationships in local spaces to guide the reader towards the wider conceptual questions of migration studies using expertise from the fields of sociology gender historical and political studies Migration and Insecurity will be of interest to students and scholars of transnationalism migration politics and international relations

Citizenship and Exclusion Veit Bader, 1997-10-06 Citizenship implies exclusion of non members Migrations processes and policies of first admission and incorporation of ethnically and culturally diverse newcomers are among the most hotly contested political issues especially in a world of gross inequalities This comparative and interdisciplinary collection sees distinguished moral and political philosophers historians sociologists anthropologists and political scientists from America Australia and Europe criticize existing institutions and increasingly restrictive policies and look for alternatives more in line with principles and constitutions of liberal democratic welfare states Asian Nationalism in an Age of Globalization Roy Starrs,2013-10-23 Topics include Government Intervention and Economic Growth in East Asia Agricultural Nationalism in the Age of Globalization Japan s Dominance and Multi Racial Coalitions in Malaysia From Multiculturalism to Democratic Discrimination Alberto Spektorowski,Daphna Elfersy,2020-12-10 The effect of Islam on Western Europe has been profound Spektorowski and Elfersy argue that it has transformed European democratic values by inspiring an ultra liberalism that now faces an ultra conservative backlash Questions of what to do about Muslim immigration how to deal with burqas how to deal with gender politics have all been influenced by western democracies grappling with ideas of inclusion and most recently exclusion This book examines those forces and ultimately sees not an unbridgeable gap but a future in which Islam and European democracies are compatible rich and evolving Leading Socially Just Schools Christine Forde,Deirdre Torrance,2023-08-22 Equity and social justice have become central to the work of schools Teachers and leaders are at the forefront of building socially just schools Issues related to equity and social justice in education however are complex and deeply contested Professional learning is critical to enable teachers and school leaders to develop the understandings skills and confidence to grapple with often challenging issues This book brings together a range of contributions from different systems The contributors to this book explore ways in which professional learning can support efforts to bring about socially just schools The authors adopt a variety of perspectives with some looking at professional learning around a broad concept of social justice and the task of the gap between advantaged and disadvantaged learners Other contributors explore the question of professional learning in relation to a specific issue or area of practice to raise awareness and deepen knowledge and skills Barring one all the chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue in the journal Professional Development in Education Honneth and Everyday Intercultural (Mis)Recognition Bona Anna,2018-02-21 This book conducts a critical investigation into everyday intercultural recognition and misrecognition in the domain of paid work utilising social philosopher Axel Honneth s recognition theory as its theoretical foundation In so doing it also reveals the sophistication and productivity of Honneth s recognition model for multiculturalism scholarship Honneth and Everyday Intercultural Mis Recognition is concerned with the redress of intercultural related injustice and more widely the effective integration of ethically and culturally diverse societies Bona Anna analyses the everyday experiences of cross cultural misrecognition in a distinctive ethno cultural group including social norms that have been marginalised in the contexts of employment In this endeavour she deploys key constructs from Honneth s theory to argue for individual and social integration to be conceptualised as a process of inclusion through stables forms of recognition rather than as a process of inclusion through forms of group representation and participation This book will appeal to students and academics of multiculturalism interested in learning more about the usefulness of Honneth's recognition theory in intercultural inquiry including the ways in which it can circumvent some of the impasses of classical multiculturalism      Ethnicity and Globalization Stephen Castles, 2000-07-14 This book written by one of the leading authorities on migration traces the growth of global migration since 1945 showing how it has produced fundamental economic social and cultural changes in most parts of the world Using techniques of comparative analysis the book shows the gap between global migration and policy As the postwar demand for labour outstripped supply flows of ethnic migration were encouraged throughout the developed Western countries The rooting of new ethnicities in different soils was neither planned or managed effectively The book shows how the economic demand for work has been supplemented by the demand from asylum seekers to recognize injustice and oppression The book also examines the emergence of multicultural societies and the impact of this on traditional concepts of citizenship culture and identity      Changing Police Culture Janet B. L. Chan, 1997-03-17 In this case study of police racism and police reform in Australia the author provides a critical assessment of police initiative in response to the problem of police minorities relations      Disciplinary Spaces Andrea Fischer-Tahir, Sophie Wagenhofer, 2017-04-15 This volume looks at territories such as reservations model villages and collective towns as the spatial materialization of forced assimilation and progress These disciplinary spaces were created in order to disempower and alter radically the behavior of people who were perceived as ill suited to fit into hegemonic imaginations of the nation since the 19th century Comparing examples from the Americas Australia North and East Africa Central Europe as well as West and Central Asia the book not only considers the acts and legitimizing narrations of ruling actors but highlights the agency of the subaltern who are often misrepresented as passive victims of violent assimilation strategies      Migration, Belonging and the Nation State Alperhan Babacan, Supriya Singh, 2010-03-08 The book questions how modern migration and globalisation have impacted upon notions of belonging and identity within nation states across the world This book provides theoretical and empirical accounts of the relationship between identity rights nationalism race and ethnicity The authors cover the complexity of the topic as identification has become much more multifaceted The authors cover difficult and cutting edge issues relating to citizenship nation formation identity remittances transnational families migration and asylum in the context of Australia Malaysia Pakistan and Sri Lanka These critical issues inform and shape key policy and program responses of many governments and are subject of topic in international relations forums between nation states      Shape Shifters Lily Anne Y. Welty Tamai, Ingrid Dineen-Wimberly, Paul Spickard, 2020-01-01 Shape Shifters presents a wide ranging array of essays that examine peoples of mixed racial identity Moving beyond the static either/or categories of racial identification found within typical insular conversations about mixed race peoples Shape Shifters explores these mixed race identities as fluid ambiguous contingent multiple and malleable This volume expands our understandings of how individuals and ethnic groups identify themselves within their own sociohistorical contexts The essays in Shape Shifters explore different historical eras and reach across the globe from the Roman and Chinese borderlands of classical antiquity to medieval Eurasian shape shifters the Native peoples of the missions of Spanish California and racial shape shifting among African Americans in the post civil rights era At different times in their lives or over generations in their families racial shape shifters have moved from one social context to another And as new social contexts were imposed on them identities have even changed from one group to another This is not racial ethnic or religious imposture It is simply the way that people s lives unfold in fluid sociohistorical circumstances With contributions by Ryan Abrecht George J S nchez Laura Moore and Margaret Hunter among others Shape Shifters explores the forces of migration borderlands trade warfare occupation colonial imposition and the creation and dissolution of states and empires to highlight the historically contingent basis of identification among mixed race peoples across time and space

Arab-Australians Today Ghassan Hage, 2013-05-24 Arab people first came to Australia in the late nineteenth century Today more than half a million Australians claim some form of Arab ancestry They are a diverse group both socially and economically New South Wales for example appointed Australia s first Lebanese Governor while at the same time it was labelling groups of economically deprived young people as Lebanese gangs Victoria s Premier Steve Bracks comes from a Lebanese background Melbourne has an important Arab business community while newly arrived Arab immigrants have one of the highest rates of unemployment in the country Arab Australians Today raises important questions about immigration settlement marginalisation and participation in Western societies It discusses the way early Arab immigrants were received in Australia and talks about contemporary issues of participation in the Australian political process It examines the lives of diverse groups of people ranging from entrepreneurs to Arab women activists to unemployed youth It analyses issues ranging from the ways Arab Australians grow to call Australia home to the moral panic created around Arab youth and criminality The book offers non Arab Australians a way to better understand the Arab presence in Australia It is also an invitation for Arab Australians to reflect on the history of their settlement in Australia as well as on the current experience of more recent immigrants

Australia and the Middle East Fethi Mansouri, 2006-08-25 What is the history behind Australia s relations with the Muslim world and the Middle East in particular which led Australia to be described as a frontline of the so called War on Terror Australia s encounters with the Middle East have historically been defined through the British Empire the Commonwealth and more recently through its close strategic ties with the US This book traces the nature of the Australia Middle East relationship from an insular White Australia ideology through to the ongoing global impact of September 11 and the decision to send troops to Iraq and Afghanistan Comprehensive analysis of these complex ties provides an essential basis for understanding past encounters evaluating present policies and developing a framework for future interactions Australia and the Middle East draws together the various dimensions and themes of this relationship from trade and migration to increasing strategic interest and military involvement in the region of chapters to the growing theoretical and empirical work being undertaken at the international level on men and migration. The chapters presented here focus on what we might call migratory masculinities: the experiences men have of masculinity upon immigration into another national, ethnic and cultural context. How do these men re-construct their conceptions of masculinity? Where are the points of tension, ambivalence or assimilation in this process? Featuring interviews and data drawn from migrants working and living in Australia, this book explores how the gender identity of men from non-English speaking backgrounds is influenced by the experiences of migration and settlement in an English speaking culture across various cultural spheres such as work, leisure, family life and religion.

Asylum Seekers and the State Claudia

Tazreiter, 2017-03-02. Highly topical in subject matter, Asylum Seekers and the State reveals immigration policy as a political process which has social consequences not only for the newcomer group but also for the wider receiver society. This work considers the obligations which receiver societies have for considering refugee claims but at the same time assesses contemporary security concerns. It also provides an introduction to the roles of non-government organizations as stakeholders in the political process. The book also offers a study of the historical and cultural context of immigration in Germany and Australia which demonstrates the practical impact of these issues. Taking a fresh approach to the issue of asylum seekers and refugees, this book offers unique perspectives from non-state actors as significant brokers and advocates of social and political processes.
