Play with Paintings in Picture Books Clare Bradford The End of Empire Communities of the Heart Warren Rochelle, 2001-01-01 Through story through myth through science fiction and fantasy he argues Le Guin takes us into her communities of the heart communities that are truly human Le Guin's rhetoric when placed in historical and sociocultural context becomes the rhetoric of Emerson Thoreau Peirce and Dewey American romantic pragmatic rhetoric a rhetoric that argues for value to be given to the subjective the personal and private the small and the feminine Rochelle studies Le Guin's Earthsea cycle The Dispossessed The Left Hand of Darkness Always Coming Home Four Ways to Forgiveness A Fisherman of The Inland Sea two recent novellas Dragonfly and Old Music and the Slave Women and selected short stories The theorists of language culture and myth discussed include Susanne Langer Kenneth Burke Lev Vygotsky Walter Fisher Carl Jung and Joseph Campbell BOOK JACKET Alternative Worlds in Fantasy Fiction Peter Hunt, Millicent Lenz, 2005-08-15 Edited by Morag Styles and written by an international team of acknowledged experts this series provides jargon free critical discussion and a comprehensive guide to literary and popular texts for children Each book introduces the reader to a major genre of children's literature covering the key authors major works and contexts in which those texts are published read and studied This book provides an illuminating guide to literature that creates alternative worlds for young readers Focusing on the work of Ursula Le Guin Terry Pratchett and Philip Pullman the book considers both the genre of alternative worlds and the distinctiveness of these authors texts including Philip Pullman's The Amber Spyglass Tehanu Ursula K. Le Guin, 2015-07-30 She is unique She is legend THE TIMES Le Guin is one of the singular speculative voices of our future thanks to her knack for anticipating issues of seminal importance to society TLS Book Four of Ursula K Le Guin's award winning Earthsea Cycle Years ago they had escaped together from the sinister Tombs of Atuan she an isolated young priestess he a powerful wizard Now she is a farmer's widow having chosen for herself the simple pleasures of an ordinary life And he is a broken old man mourning the powers lost to him through no choice of his own Once when they were young they helped each other at a time of darkness and danger and shared an adventure like no other Now they must join forces again to help another in need the physically and emotionally scarred child whose own destiny has yet to be revealed Fantastic Spiritualities J'annine Jobling, 2010-07-01 In this work Jobling argues that religious sensibility in the Western world is in a process of transformation but that we see here change not decline and that the production and consumption of the fantastic in popular culture offers an illuminating window onto spiritual trends and conditions She examines four major examples of the fantastic genre the Harry Potter series Rowling His Dark Materials Pullman Buffy the Vampire Slayer Whedon and the Earthsea cycle Le Guin demonstrating that the spiritual universes of these four iconic examples of the fantastic are actually marked by profoundly modernistic assumptions raising the question of just how contemporary spiritualities often deemed postmodern navigate philosophically the waters of truth morality authority selfhood and the divine Jobling tackles what she sees as a misplaced disregard for the significance of the fantasy genre as a worthy object for academic investigation by offering a full length thematic comparative and cross disciplinary study of the four case studies proposed chosen because of their significance to the field and because these books have all been posited as exemplars of a postmodern religious sensibility This work shows how attentiveness to spiritual themes in cultural icons can offer the student of theology and religions insight into the framing of the moral and religious imagination in the late twentieth and twenty first centuries and how this can prompt traditional religions to reflect on whether their own narratives are culturally framed in a way resonating with the signs of the times

Romancing the Novel Margaret Bruzelius, 2007 Romancing the Novel examines the ways in which romance forms characteristic of boys books as exemplified in the novels of Scott Dumas Verne and Stevenson influence narratives not generally put in the same category both psychoanalytical accounts of the psyche and novels by authors as diverse as George Eliot Ursula Le Guin Joseph Conrad and W G Sebald Adventure has been most recently studied largely as a symptom of imperialism s ideological apparatus But as an intensely familiar story available from the earliest reading adventure conditions the narratable its influence is felt from the nursery bed to the analyst s couch By reading Maurice Sendak with Melanie Klein and Peter Rabbit with Daniel Deronda Romancing the Novel argues that the power and depth of the generic constraints of the adventure form have not been recognized simply because they are so ubiquitous Adventure fiction is not merely summer reading whose ephemeral effects dissipate but rather a pervasive code that exerts powerful effects on the imaginable

In the Mirror of the Past Tomasz Ratajczak, Bogdan Trocha, 2014-09-26 These days we are ever more often confronted by overwhelming events Searching for a way to understand them we turn to mythic archetypes still present in our culture The authors of these essays pose questions about the reliability of the archetypes found in tradition history and scattered mythologemes The essays in this collection deal with the presence of mythic time in modern speculative fiction such as fantasy and alternate histories and discuss major mythologemes and their functions in popular literature and extra literary reality The authors show how mythopoeic fiction becomes a genetically modified mythic mirror in which we hope to see answers to vexing questions or just a reality superior to the ordinary one In the Mirror of the Past Of Fantasy and History is a collection of seven essays by American and Polish authors including Brian Attebery Terri Doughty and Marek Oziewicz with Mircea Eliade s concept of return from history to History as their underlying theme
