Television News Anatomy Process:

Television News Maury Green, 1969 The Cognitive Impact of Television News B. Gunter, 2015-02-17 Research shows that while people around the world consistently nominate television as their most important news source much of the content of news bulletins is lost to viewers within moments In response Barrie Gunter argues that this can be explained by the way in which televised news is written packaged and presented The Broadcast News Process Frederick Shook, Dan Lattimore, 1979 Writing News for Broadcast Edward Bliss, James L. Hoyt, 1994 The authoritative guide to writing for the broadcast medium Television Journalism Stephen Cushion, 2011-11-10 Amidst the glut of studies on new media and the news the enduring medium of television finally gets the attention it deserves Cushion brings television news back into perfect focus in a book that offers historical depth geographical breadth empirical analysis and above all political significance Through an interrogation of the dynamics of and relations between regulation ownership the working practices of journalism and the news audience Cushion makes a clear case for why and how television news should be firmly positioned in the public interest It should be required reading for anyone concerned with news and journalism Natalie Fenton Goldsmiths University of London An admirably ambitious synthesis of journalism scholarship and journalism practice providing a comprehensive resource of historical analysis contemporary trends and key data Stewart Purvis City University and former CEO of ITN Despite the democratic promise of new media television journalism remains the most viewed valued and trusted source of information in many countries around the world Comparing patterns of ownership policy and regulation this book explores how different environments have historically shaped contemporary trends in television journalism internationally Informed by original research Television Journalism lays bare the implications of market forces public service interventions and regulatory shifts in television journalism s changing production practices news values and audience expectations Accessibly written and packed with topical references this authoritative account offers fresh insights into the past present and future of journalism making it a necessary point of reference for upper level undergraduates researchers and academics in broadcasting journalism mass communication and media studies Broadcasting the Local News Lynn Boyd Hinds, 2010-11-01 Television came to Pittsburgh in 1949 when WDTV the forerunner of KDKA TV went on the air Whereas many television stations in the United States began reading news on the air only to comply with FCC requirements WDTV treated news seriously from day one with its first regular program a local news show called Pitt Parade Today KDKA is still highly regarded among journalists for its news programming Although television news may seem familiar to us it was anything but familiar to the men and women of early television Hinds shows how they borrowed liberally from newspapers radio motion picture newsreels theater and even magazines to create by trial and error suitable ways to present the news Rather than instantly replacing radio television news moved slowly from the rip and read radio style format which simply duplicated what came over the wire services and was in the newspapers to the conventions of local newscasts we take for granted today live remotes lead and feature stories sports and weather all brought together by an in studio anchor Pittsburghers will recognize many familiar names in Hinds s account Bill Burns Paul Long Florence Sando Eleanor Schano and others veterans of Pittsburgh broadcasting whom Hinds has interviewed for this book The story they tell is the story of dozens of other stations across the country In the process they tell us much about the early history of television in America Lynn Boyd Hinds spent over twenty years in Pittsburgh television and radio before moving to Penn State University where he was an affiliate producer for WPSX TV the public broadcasting station in Central Pennsylvania There he created and hosted the popular quiz show The Pennsylvania Game Today he is Associate Professor of Broadcast News in the Perley Isaac Reed School of Journalism at West Virginia University The Television News Interview Akiba A. Cohen,1987-06 How and why does television news interviewing differ from country to country In this comparative study of the news in the UK the US Israel and West Germany Cohen shows that while the structure and content of TV news is very similar interviews reflect political social and cultural factors Cohen examines news interviewing from theoretical empirical and practical perspectives Through a comprehensive literature review content analysis and personal interviews with reporters he demonstrates that news interviews should be viewed as social constructs Publisher description Measuring Bias on Television Barrie Gunter,1997 Exploring the important issue of impartiality in news reporting with special reference to news broadcasting on television this book examines the position of impartiality or bias within the context of news objectivity by exploring accusations of bias by aggrieved parties claiming to have been treated unfairly misrepresented or underrepresented

Making Local News Phyllis Kaniss,1997-12-08 Why do crimes and accidents earn more news coverage than development and policy issues affecting thousands of people Filled with revealing interviews with both journalists and city officials Making Local News is the first comprehensive look at how the economic motives of media owners professional motives of journalists and the strategies of media wise politicians shape the news we see and hear thereby influencing urban policy Making Local News by Phyllis Kaniss is significant If we can continue to get smarter about that which journalism leaves out or distorts in its coverage of politics we may eventually get smarter about politics itself Mitchell Stephens The Philadelphia Inquirer View A convincing analysis of the factors and forces which color how and why local issues do or do not become newsworthy Michael H Ebner Journal of Interdisciplinary History This work serves as a reminder of the importance of a medium that is often overlooked until economic realities threaten its very existence Choice Kaniss is truly a pioneer in the study of local news Susan Herbst Contemporary Sociology Resources in Education ,1990 Television News and the Creation of Reality Ronda Lynn Priest,1996 Regulating Broadcast Programming Thomas G. Krattenmaker,1994 The authors argue that TV regulation should be based on the same principles used for print media for which control of editorial content lies in private hands rather than the government Research in Education ,1973 Television News by I. E. Fang Irving E. Fang,1972 Inside Local Television News Richard J. Goedkoop,1988 A History of Chicago Television

News Presentation (1948-1968) Theodore Lynn Nielsen, 1971 Poor Reception Barrie Gunter, 2012-11-12 Published in 1990 Poor Reception is a valuable contribution to the field of Communication Studies Message Dimensions of Television News Robert Shelby Frank, 1973 Common Knowledge W. Russell Neuman, Marion R. Just, Ann N. Crigler, 2018-12-14

Photo opportunities ten second sound bites talking heads and celebrity anchors so the world is explained daily to millions of Americans The result according to the experts is an ignorant public helpless targets of a one way flow of carefully filtered and orchestrated communication Common Knowledge shatters this pervasive myth Reporting on a ground breaking study the authors reveal that our shared knowledge and evolving political beliefs are determined largely by how we actively reinterpret the images fragments and signals we find in the mass media For their study the authors analyzed coverage of 150 television and newspaper stories on five prominent issues drugs AIDS South African apartheid the Strategic Defense Initiative and the stock market crash of October 1987 They tested audience responses of more than 1 600 people and conducted in depth interviews with a select sample What emerges is a surprisingly complex picture of people actively and critically interpreting the news making sense of even the most abstract issues in terms of their own lives and finding political meaning in a sophisticated interplay of message medium and firsthand experience At every turn Common Knowledge refutes conventional wisdom It shows that television is far more effective at raising the saliency of issues and promoting learning than is generally assumed it also undermines the assumed causal connection between newspaper reading and higher levels of political knowledge Finally this book gives a deeply responsible and thoroughly fascinating account of how the news is conveyed to us and how we in turn convey it to others making meaning of at once so much and so little For anyone who makes the news or tries to make anything of it Common Knowledge promises uncommon wisdom Videojournalism Kenneth Kobre, 2024-04-19 Videojournalism Multimedia Storytelling for Online Broadcast and Documentary Journalists is an essential guide for solo video storytellers from backpack videojournalists to short form documentary makers to do it all broadcast reporters Based on interviews with award winning professionals sharing their unique experiences and knowledge Videojournalism covers topics such as crafting and editing eye catching short stories recording high quality sound and understanding the laws and ethics of filming in public and private places Other topics include understanding the difference between a story and a report finding a theme and telling a story in a compact time frame learning to use different cameras and lenses from smart phones to mirrorless and digital cinema cameras using light both natural and artificial understanding color and exposure The second edition of this best selling text has been completely revised and updated Heavily illustrated with more than 550 photographs the book also includes more than 200 links to outstanding examples of short form video stories Anatomy of a News Story a short documentary made for the book follows a day in the life of a solo TV videojournalist on an assignment with a surprise ending and helps readers translate theory to practice This book is for anyone learning how to master the art and craft of telling real short form stories with words sound and pictures for the Web or television A
