Television Production Thomas D. Burrows, Donald N. Wood, 1986      Television Production Thomas D. Burrows, Donald N. Wood, Lynne S. Gross, 1989      Television Production Thomas D. Burrows, Donald N. Wood, Lynne S. Gross, 1991      Video Production James C. Foust, Edward J. Fink, Lynne S. Gross, 2017-05-12 This popular book introduces readers to the operations underlying video production. It provides thorough coverage of the theory readers need to know, balancing complexity with practical how-to information about detailed subjects, and it does so in a concise conversational style. The authors have incorporated the major changes that have occurred in recent years, further increased the emphasis on digital non-linear video production, updated and expanded information on mobile technologies, and added more than 25 new or updated figures. The subtitle remains disciplines and techniques because the book's focus continues to be on the fact that students need those foundations in order to be successful in video production, no matter where they may end up. Its affordable, student-friendly price, companion website, and print book and ebook options add to this book's practical nature.      Video Production James C. Foust, Jim Foust, Edward John Fink, Lynne Gross, 2017-09-21 The revised twelfth edition of Video Production: Disciplines and Techniques introduces readers to the operations underlying video production. The book has been updated to incorporate recent changes in the video production pipeline, emphasizing digital video, non-linear video production, streaming platforms, and mobile production. Each chapter includes key takeaways, review questions, and on-set exercises, and a comprehensive glossary defines all the key production terms discussed. An accompanying eResource includes downloadable versions of the forms and paperwork used in the book, in addition to links to further online resources.      Media Studies: Content, audiences, and production Pieter Jacobus Fourie, 2001 This book includes theoretical approaches as well as a production section that focuses on basic techniques and introductory applications of media studies.      Video Production Lynne S. Gross, James C. Foust, Thomas D. Burrows, 2005 This text introduces students to the operations underlying multiple-camera video production. Written in an accessible style that appeals to students, it covers the basics of television production with an emphasis on studio production. While the main focus is on equipment and techniques that students use, Video Production also covers more advanced equipment and techniques used in the professional world. The ninth edition adds information about preparing video material for the Web and for DVDs, updates on HDTV, further detail on graphics construction, and more.      Perspectives on Radio and Television F. Leslie Smith, David H. Ostroff, John W. Wright, 2023-05-31 This textbook describes the field of radio and television in the United States, presents the material in a manner the reader can grasp and enjoy, and makes the book useful for the classroom teacher. Written for adaptation to individual teaching situations, the book is divided by subject matter into logical chapter divisions that can be assigned in the order appropriate for specific course students. Each chapter stands by itself, but the book is also an integrated whole. It is easy to understand at first reading by beginning radio/television majors or nonmajor elective students alike. To give readers a complete picture of the field, subjects such as ethics, careers, and rivals
