Hanson, 2020-10-31 The best selling Mass Communication Living in a Media World presents a highly accessible introduction to mass communication that equips students with the critical thinking skills to become savvy media consumers To help students better retain the material author Ralph E Hanson uses a storytelling approach that weaves in examples drawn from everyday life Readers are encouraged to consider the media industry from the inside out and in doing so discover the many dimensions of mass communication that operate in our society The thoroughly revised Eighth Edition highlights how social and digital media video games and the COVID 19 pandemic are changing the face of media This title is accompanied by a complete teaching and learning package      Philosophy and the Interpretation of Pop Culture William Irwin, Jorge J. E. Gracia, 2006-11-13 Aristotle analyzed the popular art of his time the tragedies and epics

Why should philosophers today not do likewise Perhaps we can learn something from children s stories by subverting the dominant paradigm of adult authority and admitting with Socrates that we don t know all the answers Perhaps Batman has ethical lessons to teach that generalize beyond the pages of comic books Is it better to like Mozart than it is to like Madonna Kurt Cobain gave voice to the attitude of a generation singing Here we are now entertain us Is entertainment a bad thing or could it actually have value and not just instrumental value Broadcasting the Local News Lynn Boyd Hinds,2010-11-01

Television came to Pittsburgh in 1949 when WDTV the forerunner of KDKA TV went on the air Whereas many television stations in the United States began reading news on the air only to comply with FCC requirements WDTV treated news seriously from day one with its first regular program a local news show called Pitt Parade Today KDKA is still highly regarded among journalists for its news programming Although television news may seem familiar to us it was anything but familiar to the men and women of early television Hinds shows how they borrowed liberally from newspapers radio motion picture newsreels theater and even magazines to create by trial and error suitable ways to present the news Rather than instantly replacing radio television news moved slowly from the rip and read radio style format which simply duplicated what came over the wire services and was in the newspapers to the conventions of local newscasts we take for granted today live remotes lead and feature stories sports and weather all brought together by an in studio anchor Pittsburghers will recognize many familiar names in Hinds s account Bill Burns Paul Long Florence Sando Eleanor Schano and others veterans of Pittsburgh broadcasting whom Hinds has interviewed for this book The story they tell is the story of dozens of other stations across the country In the process they tell us much about the early history of television in America Lynn Boyd Hinds spent over twenty years in Pittsburgh television and radio before moving to Penn State University where he was an affiliate producer for WPSX TV the public broadcasting station in Central Pennsylvania There he created and hosted the popular quiz show The Pennsylvania Game Today he is Associate Professor of Broadcast News in the Perley Isaac Reed School of Journalism at West Virginia University Media Studies: Content, audiences, and production Pieter Jacobus Fourie,2001

This book includes theoretical approaches as well as a production section that focuses on basic techniques and introductory applications of media studies On the Evolution of Media Carlos A. Scolari,2023-06-23 This book describes the lifecycle of media in the context of the media ecology presenting a general theoretical framework and a series of methodological procedures to support the construction of an eco evolutionary approach to media change Focusing on a series of processes emergence competition dominance hybridization adaptation extinction this book goes beyond a chronological approach to propose a reticulated and multi layered conception of media evolution If media evolution is a network what are the relationships between media species like What happens when a new media emerges into the media ecology How do new media influence the old ones Can media become extinct How do media adapt when the social and economic context changes How can media evolution be analysed What kinds of quantitative and qualitative techniques can be applied in media evolution research By presenting an innovative research approach and theoretical framework to media studies this book will be of keen interest to scholars and graduate students of new media media history and theory philosophy of technology mass communication and organisational studies Proceedings of the 2022 4th International Conference on Literature, Art and Human Development (ICLAHD 2022) Bootheina Majoul,Digvijay Pandya,Lin Wang,2023-03-14 This is an open access book The 4th International Conference on Literature Art and Human Development ICLAHD 2022 was successfully held on October 28th 30th 2022 in Xi an China virtual conference ICLAHD 2022 brought together academics and experts in the field of Literature Art and Human Development research to a common forum promoting research and developmental activities in related fields as well as scientific information interchange between researchers developers and engineers working all around the world We were honored to have Assoc Prof Chew Fong Peng from University of Malaya Malaysia to serve as our Conference Chair The conference covered keynote speeches oral presentations and online Q A discussion attracting over 300 individuals Firstly keynote speakers were each allocated 30 45 minutes to hold their speeches Then in the oral presentations the excellent papers selected were presented by their authors in sequence
