Inherit the Land Gene Stowe, 2006 In the early twentieth century two wealthy white sisters cousins to a North Carolina governor wrote identical wills that left their substantial homeplace to a black man and his daughter Maggie Ross whose sister Sallie died in 1909 was the richest woman in Union County North Carolina Upon Maggie's death in 1920 her will bequeathed her estate to Bob Ross who had grown up in the sisters household and his daughter Mittie Bell Houston Mittie had also grown up with the well to do women who had shown their affection for her by building a house for her and her husband This house along with eight hundred acres hundreds of dollars in cash and two of the white family's three gold watches went to Bob Ross and Houston As soon as the contents of the will became known more than one hundred of Maggie Ross's scandalized cousins sued to break the will claiming that its bequest to black people proved that Maggie Ross was mentally incompetent Revealing the details of this case and of the lives of the people involved in it Gene Stowe presents a story that sheds light on and complicates our understanding of the Jim Crow South Stowe's account of this famous court battle shows how specific individuals both white and black labored against the status quo of white superiority and ultimately won An evocative portrait of an entire generation's sins Inherit the Land Jim Crow Meets Miss Maggie's Will hints at the possibility for color blind justice in small town North Carolina Ur Not Wise Lad Gary McGilloway,2019-02-22 This story starts off with me talking to a friend about an idea that I have going through my head Its about two men who become friends after meeting at support group for out of work Terrorist The two men only know each other by nick names like Orange Crusher an Green Avenger When they finally learn each other's name they have at least become somewhat close Orange Crusher is King William King and Green Avenger is Kiral O Tool He's a real spanner William gets shot by Kiral's brother Patrick who has taken a real spite against William just because he's a Protestant A friend of William's comes back from England where he was living for years William finds out that his friend Scott has Cancer and has come home to die A lot of secrets start to come to light some of Scott and William's wife Jane But the worst of all is about William and Scott and Kiral's parents But before all that Kiral's daughter Mary gets attacked and ends up in Hospital in a coma after been kicked in the head by three little thieving bastards William offers his help to Kiral to get the wee fuckers Light in Bandaged Places Liz Kinchen,2025-07-30 Light in Bandaged Places shows us the harm done when an older man in a position of power convinces a child that sex with him is alright because he loves her This poignant story takes us through the long term wounding of such abuse and the multifaceted path of healing As a lonely girl coming of age in the 1970s Liz has every reason to believe her 8th grade teacher is in love with her Because the sex isn't physically violent and is wrapped in a message of love she learns to exchange sex for attention It feels like love after all But years later as an adult emotional closeness eludes Liz Even after marrying a sensitive caring man she is walled off Struggling through confusing years she believes something is deeply wrong with her Healing begins when an unexpected event takes Liz back to those formative years and she sees for the first time that what happened to her was not love but trauma As she begins to understand how her relationship with her former teacher destroyed her innocence and self worth she begins a spiritual and psychological journey that sets her free Now a meditation teacher and Buddhist practitioner Liz offers her story in hope of helping others along their own paths of discovery and healing Knowing You, Knowing Them Justin Collinge,2010-04-01 A practical workbook explaining why people react the way they do Ever wondered why you get on with some and not others This will book explain why It will also show you how to get the best out of yourself and those you work with A Rebellion of Care David Gate,2025-07-15 A

Troubling Tricksters Deanna Reder, Linda M. Morra, 2010-02-10 Troubling Tricksters is a collection of theoretical essays creative pieces and critical ruminations that provides a re visioning of trickster criticism in light of recent backlash against it The complaints of some Indigenous writers the critique from Indigenous nationalist critics and the changing of academic fashion have resulted in few new studies on the trickster For example The Cambridge Companion to Native American Literature 2005 includes only a brief mention of the trickster with skeptical commentary And in 2007 Anishinaabe scholar Niigonwedom Sinclair a contributor to this volume called for a moratorium on studies of the trickster irrelevant to the specific experiences and interests of Indigenous nations One of the objectives of this anthology is then to encourage scholarship that is mindful of the critic s responsibility to communities and to focus discussions on incarnations of tricksters in their particular national contexts The contribution of Troubling Tricksters therefore is twofold to offer a timely counterbalance to this growing critical lacuna and to propose new approaches to trickster studies approaches that have been clearly influenced by the nationalists call for cultural and historical specificity The Power of Witnessing Nancy R. Goodman, Marilyn B. Meyers, 2012-08-21 Witnessing comes in as many forms as the trauma that gives birth to it The Holocaust undeniably one of the greatest traumatic events in recent human history still resonates into the twenty first century The echoes that haunt those who survived continue to reach their children and others who did not share the experience directly In what ways is this massive trauma processed and understood both for survivors and future generations The answer as deftly illustrated by Nancy Goodman and Marilyn Meyers lies in the power of witnessing the act of acknowledging that trauma took place coupled with the desire to share that knowledge with others to build a space in which to reveal confront and symbolize it As the contributors to this book demonstrate testimonial writing and memoir artwork poetry documentary theater and even the simple recollection of a memory are ways that honor and serve as forms of witnessing Each chapter is a fusion of narrative and metaphor that exists as evidence of the living mind that emerges amid the dead spaces produced by mass trauma creating a revelatory transformational space for the terror of knowing and the possibility for affirmation of hope courage and endurance in the face of almost unspeakable evil Additionally the power of witnessing is extended from the Holocaust to contemporary instances of mass trauma and to psychoanalytic treatments proving its efficacy in the dyadic relationship of everyday practice for both patient and analyst The Holocaust is not an easy subject to approach but the intimate and personal stories included here add up to an act of witnessing in and of itself combining the past and the present and placing the trauma in the realm of knowing sharing and understanding Contributors Harriet Basseches Elsa Blum Bridget Conley Zilkic Paula Ellman Susan Elmendorf George Halasz Geoffrey Hartman Renee Hartman Elaine Neumann Kulp Shabad Dori Laub Clemens Loew Gail Humphries Mardirosian Margit Meissner Henri Parens Arlene Kramer Richards Arnold Richards Sophia Richman Katalin Roth Nina Shapiro Perl Myra Sklarew Ervin Staub
