"My first exposures to health disparities were with my own family. Growing up with parents experiencing chronic health conditions, I had first hand observations of their interactions with the healthcare system. These experiences exposed me first hand to the health inequities that exist for marginalized communities that look like me. As a future African American physician my platform will serve to advocate for health equity while opening doors for future generations of physicians from disenfranchised backgrounds."

Tell Me why Arkady Leokum,1986 A four volume set containing questions and answers about such things as the world around us and how it began the human body how other creatures live and how things are made Tell Me Why

,2010-06-04 A powerful inspiring book for any young person who wants to make a difference I just want to know why do you think that people treat each other the way that they do Is there something that happened to you that made you want to help people And finally what if anything do you think one kid can do to make a difference Responding to the searching questions of a thoughtful thirteen year old more than twenty five influential inspiring figures including Canadians Rom o Dallaire Robert Munsch Marc Garneau Lynn Johnston Rick Hansen and many others have shared their wisdom their experience and their convictions about how to counter suffering cruelty and darkness Eric Walters also profiles five amazing young people who have already found ways to help They have raised money and awareness for causes such as cancer research

homelessness the plight of AIDS orphans and global humanitarian crises Their stories show us that people of any age can create meaningful and important change they just need to make the decision to start Tell Me Why My Children Died

Charles L. Briggs,Clara Mantini-Briggs,2016-05-19 Tell Me Why My Children Died tells the gripping story of indigenous leaders efforts to identify a strange disease that killed thirty two children and six young adults in a Venezuelan rain forest between 2007 and 2008 In this pathbreaking book Charles L Briggs and Clara Mantini Briggs relay the nightmarish and difficult experiences of doctors patients parents local leaders healers and epidemiologists detail how journalists first created a smoke screen then projected the epidemic worldwide discuss the Ch vez government s hesitant and sometimes ambivalent reactions and narrate the eventual diagnosis of bat transmitted rabies The book provides a new framework for analyzing how the uneven distribution of rights to produce and circulate knowledge about health are wedded at the hip with health inequities By recounting residents quest to learn why their children died and documenting their creative approaches to democratizing health the authors open up new ways to address some of global health s most intractable problems Tell Me
