Sorrows Company Writers On Loss And Grief:

Sorrow's Company Dewitt Henry, 2001-09-16 In this volume DeWitt Henry has collected some of the finest contemporary writing about loss and the grieving process essays that explore emotional trauma in finely crafted prose Debra Spark recounts her sister's death and reflects on all of the ideas that have helped her come to terms with grief William Gibson writes eloquently of his mother's passing with a new understanding of the cycles of life Andre Dubus describes the terrible loss of mobility he suffered in a freak accident and what his pain and disability taught him about the human will Transported back to her native Antigua and to all the complexities of a difficult childhood Jamaica Kincaid confronts her brother's ostracism and death from AIDS All of the pieces reflect in some aspect the tenacity the strength to go forward and to love that has informed these life journeys and the resolve that what matters is not what becomes of us but what we become This collection offers a unique perspective on loss a depth of insight and compassion that only such masterful writers could summon

Mothering, Time, and Antimaternalism Mary Trigg, 2023-02-24 The book aims to broaden understanding of the diverse positions and meanings of motherhood by investigating understudied and marginalized mothers rural itinerant African American and Irish Catholic American between 1920 and 1960 Fuelled by anxieties around feminism a perception of men's loss of status and masculinity racial tensions and fears about immigration antimaternalism discourse blamed mothers for a wide range of social ills in the first half of the 20th Century Mothering Time and Antimaternalism considers the ideas practices and depictions of antimaternalism and the ways that mothers responded Religion class race ethnicity gender and immigration status are all analysed as factors shaping maternal experience The book develops the historical context of American motherhood between 1920 and 1960 examining how changing ideas scientific motherhood time efficiency devaluation of domesticity racial and religious bias influenced the construction and experiences of motherhood This is a fascinating and important book suitable for students and scholars in history gender studies cultural studies and sociology

Lost Bodies Laura E. Tanner, 2018-07-05 If the dying body makes us flinch and look away struggling not to see what we have seen the lost body disappears from cultural view buried along with the sensory traces of its corporeal presence from the Introduction American popular culture conducts a passionate love affair with the healthy fit preferably beautiful body and in recent years theories of embodiment have assumed importance in various scholarly disciplines But what of the dying or dead body Why do we avert our gaze speak of it only as absence This thoughtful and beautifully written book illustrated with photographs by Shellburne Thurber and other remarkable images finds a place for the dying and lost body in the material intellectual and imaginary spaces of contemporary American culture Laura E Tanner focuses her keen attention on photographs of AIDS patients and abandoned living spaces newspaper accounts of September 11 literary works by Don DeLillo Donald Hall Sharon Olds Marilynne Robinson and others and material objects including the AIDS Quilt She analyzes the way in which these representations of the body reflect current cultural assumptions revealing how Americans read imagine and view the dynamics of illness and loss The disavowal of bodily dimensions of death and grief she asserts deepens rather than mitigates the isolation of the dying and the bereaved Lost Bodies will speak to anyone imperiled by the threat of loss Healing through the Dark Emotions Miriam Greenspan, 2004-05-11 Nautilus Book Award Gold Winner A psychotherapist offers crucial guidance on how to alter fundamentally our fearful relationship to deep feelings from depression and anxiety to grief and fear Los Angeles Times We are all touched at some point by the dark emotions of grief fear or despair In an age of global threat these emotions have become widespread and overwhelming While conventional wisdom warns us of the harmful effects of negative emotions this revolutionary book offers a more hopeful view there is a redemptive power in our worst feelings Seasoned psychotherapist Miriam Greenspan argues that it is the avoidance and denial of the dark emotions that results in the escalating psychological disorders of our time depression anxiety addiction psychic numbing and irrational violence And she shows us how to trust the wisdom of the dark emotions to guide heal and transform our lives and our world Drawing on inspiring stories from her psychotherapy practice and personal life and including a complete set of emotional exercises Greenspan teaches the art of emotional alchemy by which grief turns to gratitude fear opens the door to joy and despair becomes the ground of a more resilient faith in life This remarkable book has taught me a whole new way of thinking Harold Kushner author of When Bad Things Happen to Good People A beautiful piece of work destined to become a perennial classic Martha Beck author of The Joy Diet Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill The New Black Darian Leader, 2008-01-31 The New Black is Darian Leader's compassionate and illuminating exploration of melancholy What happens when we lose someone we love A death a separation or the break up of a relationship are some of the hardest times we have to live through We may fall into a nightmare of depression lose the will to live and see no hope for the future What matters at this crucial point is whether or not we are able to mourn In this important and groundbreaking book acclaimed psychoanalyst and writer Darian Leader urges us to look beyond the catch all concept of depression to explore the deeper unconscious ways in which we respond to the experience of loss In so doing we can loosen the grip it may have upon our lives His orthodox psychoanalytical approach produces an unpredictable occasionally brilliant book The New Black is a mixture of Freudian text clinical assessments and Leader s own brand of gentle wisdom Herald Compelling and important an engrossing and wise book Hanif Kureishi There are many self help books on the market The New Black is a book that might actually help Independent Darian Leader is a psychoanalyst practising in London and a member of the Centre for Freudian Analysis and Research and of the College of Psychoanalysts UK He is the author of The New Black Strictly Bipolar Why do women write more letters than they post Promises lovers make when it gets late Freud s Footnotes and Stealing the Mona Lisa and co author with David Corfield of Why Do People Get Ill He is Honorary Visiting Professor in the School of Human and Life Sciences Roehampton University

Spiritually Integrated Psychotherapy Kenneth I. Pargament, 2011-07-01 From a leading researcher and practitioner this volume provides an innovative framework for understanding the role of spirituality in people s lives and its relevance to the work done in psychotherapy It offers fresh practical ideas for creating a spiritual dialogue with clients assessing spirituality as a part of their problems and solutions and helping them draw on spiritual resources in times of stress Written from a nonsectarian perspective the book encompasses both traditional and nontraditional forms of spirituality It is grounded in current findings from psychotherapy research and the psychology of religion and includes a wealth of evocative case material

Redefining Spiritual Spaces in the Age of Technology Stacey K. Guenther, Xiaoan Li, Michelle A. Scheidt, 2025-08-30 Emerging technologies are entering every aspect of human life including the spiritual realm At the same time spirituality has entered mainstream environments including business education health and healing and tech design This provides an opportunity for technology and wisdom traditions to evolve together due to the widening audiences and worldviews In this open access volume an assembly of experts explores the intersection of spirituality and technology as they are emerging in a variety of contexts in our world Through a mixture of philosophy advocacy presentation of research findings and sharing of practices this book illustrates technology s influence on spirituality and vice versa and its applications to management strategy and leadership At the same time contributing authors identify the surfacing pitfalls shadow material and areas that must be attended to during this time of evolving landscapes Additionally two of the chapters highlight virtual practices that focus on racial healing which are of crucial import at this time in our collective history and another two explore healing justice and liberation through the uses of technology Written in a think piece style this book is accessible to those within and outside of academia This is an open access book
