Spiritual Theology Simon Chan,2025-10-14 Academy of Parish Clergy Top Ten Book Theology is the doctrine of living unto God wrote the Puritan theologian William Ames Unfortunately post Enlightenment theology has tended to divorce doctrine from living unto God And to the degree that this split has been deepened and perpetuated both theology and spirituality have been impoverished Spiritual Theology is a rare book In it Simon Chan surveys the little explored landscape where systematic theology and godly praxis meet highlighting the connections between Christian doctrine and Christian living and drawing out the spiritual implications of particular aspects of systematic theology Allowing rational formulations to drop into the background he brings the mystery of the faith to the fore Chan begins with the principal doctrines of God sin salvation and the church He then progresses to a reflective consideration of the practice of the spiritual life from prayer to spiritual direction Unabashedly evangelical and truly ecumenical Chan grounds his exploration in the sources of the Protestant Catholic and Orthodox traditions His work is well abreast of contemporary theological currents and crossculturally conversant from an Asian perspective Spiritual Theology is a book for those who care deeply about theology and spirituality and strive to integrate the two It is well worth careful reflection and prayerful reading Love and Friendship in the Western Tradition James McEvoy,2023-08-18 Love and Friendship in the Western Tradition comprises a collection of essays written over a 25 year period by the late Rev Professor James McEvoy on the theme of friendship The book traces the genesis and development of philosophical treatments of friendship from Greek philosophy through the Middle Ages to modern and postmodern philosophy The collection s three major concerns are 1 the history of philosophical discussions of friendship 2 the role of friendship in the cultivation of the philosophical life 3 the marginalization of friendship as a theme for philosophical reflection and practice in the modern period As the author was primarily a medievalist a great deal of the focus of the essays is on the development of the theme of friendship in the Middle Ages in the thought of Augustine Aquinas Aelred of Rievaulx Henry of Ghent Robert Grosseteste etc However this focus while a value in itself also serves to connect philosophical perspectives on friendship from before and after the middle ages It connects to the time before inasmuch as much of the work done on friendship in the Middle Ages is anchored in interpretations of Aristotle and Plato and it connects to the time after by providing a counterpoint to the modern paradigm of what constitutes the philosophical life The collection combines historical with thematic approaches to scholarship on this issue and is one of the only books of its kind to do so It is perhaps unique in its historical sweep and will prove to be a canonical source for further research on this topic

Psychotherapy and Spirituality Agneta Schreurs,2002 Schreurs presents a range of therapeutic situations analogies and case studies in which spiritual concerns may arise and explores them from spiritual and psychological perspectives showing how they connect and differ This engaging book is essential reading for all therapists who feel out of their depth when patients raise spiritual concerns

Educating People of Faith John H. Van Engen,2004 A much needed addition to the emerging literature on the formative power of religious practices Educating People of Faith creates a vivid portrait of the lived practices that shaped the faith of Jews and Christians in synagogues and churches from antiquity up to the seventeenth century This significant book is the work of Jewish Roman Catholic Orthodox and Protestant scholars who wished to discover and describe how Jews and Christians through history have been formed in religious ways of thinking and acting Rather than focusing solely on either intellectual or social life the authors all use the concept of practices as they attend to the embodied contextual character of religious formation Their studies of religious figures community life and traditional practices such as preaching sacraments and catechesis are colorful detailed and revealing The authors are also careful to cover the nature of religious education across all social levels from the textual formation of highly literate rabbis and monks engaged in Scripture study to the local formation of illiterate medieval Christians for whom the veneration of saints shrines street performances of religious dramas and public preaching by wandering preachers were profoundly formative Educating People of Faith will benefit scholars and teachers desiring a fuller perspective on how lived practices have historically formed people in religious faith It will also be useful to practical theologians and pastors who wish to make the resources of the past
