

A hardened heart may be the start
Of that which leads to sorrow;
For such a state could indicate
A lasting hell tomorrow.

A heart that grieves but never leaves
The sinful life of mortals,
Will never see the majesty
In heaven's lofty portals.

Receptive hearts in many parts,
Wherever truth has entered,
Have set their seal on its appeal;
In God their hearts are centred.

If when you read you do not heed
The message of salvation,
Your heart will be in misery,
With hell your destination.

But if you rate your earthly state
As lacking hope or reason,
Then be assured you can be cured
At any time or season.

If you should wait it may be late
To enter God's salvation;
You'll never find the peace of mind
At any other station.

There's no respect for intellect
As being a credential;
The only must is simple trust
In Christ; it is essential.

A heart can be progressively
Insensitive or hardened;
Yet those who claim the Saviour's name,
Have had their misdeeds pardoned.

Eternity will surely see
Our earthly life reflected;
For those who choose the gospel news
Will have their souls perfected.
