New Beginning in US-Muslim Relations Eugenio Lilli,2016-06-01 This book carries out a comparative study of the US response to popular uprisings in the Middle East as an evaluation of President Barack Obama s foreign policy commitments In 2009 Obama publicly pledged a new beginning in US Muslim relations causing eager expectation of a clear shift in US foreign policy after the election of the 44th president of the United States However the achievement of such a shift was made particularly difficult by the existence of multiple and sometimes conflicting US interests in the region which influenced the Obama administration s response to the popular uprisings in five Muslim majority countries Egypt Bahrain Yemen Libya and Syria After providing a detailed analysis of the traditional features of both US foreign policy rhetoric and practice this book turns its focus to the Obama administration s response to the 2011 Arab Awakening to determine whether Obama s foreign policy has indeed brought about a new beginning in US Muslim relations
