The Politics and Poetics of Contemporary English Tragedy Sean Carney,2013-01-01 The Politics and Poetics of Contemporary English Tragedy is a detailed study of the idea of the tragic in the political plays of David Hare Howard Barker Edward Bond Caryl Churchill Mark Ravenhill Sarah Kane and Jez Butterworth Through an in depth analysis of over sixty of their works Sean Carney argues that their dramatic exploration of tragic experience is an integral part of their ongoing politics This approach allows for a comprehensive rather than selective study of both the politics and poetics of their work Carney s attention to the tragic enables him to find a common discourse among the canonical English playwrights of an older generation and representatives of the nineties generation challenging the idea that there is a sharp generational break between these groups Finally Carney demonstrates that tragic experience is often denied by the social discourse of Englishness and that these playwrights make a crucial critical intervention by dramatizing the tragic The Theatre of Howard Barker Charles Lamb,2005 In this second fully revised edition of his acclaimed study of Barker s work Charles Lamb sets out to make emotional sense of the characters and their interactions This is a detailed exploration of the scene of seduction the challenge the secret the abject and the catastrophic processes which dominate Barker s work For Lamb the power of Barker s plays is to be found in the exposure to the irrational and its promotion of a state of unknowing This revised edition includes a new interview with Barker a revised introduction an updated bibliography a full production chronology For students of Barker and for actors and directors working with this unique material Lamb s book is a vital and illuminating text
