Structure And Society In Literary History:

Structure and Society in Literary History Robert Weimann, 1976 Structure and Society in Literary History Robert Weimann, 1988 Rematerializing Shakespeare B. Reynolds, W. West, 2005-11-01 To rematerialize in the sense of Rematerializing Shakespeare Authority and Representation on the Early Modern English Stage is not to recover a lost material infrastructure as Marx spoke of nor is it to restore to some material existence its priority over the imaginary Indeed this collection of work by some of the most highly regarded critics in Shakespeare studies does not offer a single theoretical stance on any of the various forms of critical materialism Marxism cultural materialism new historicism transversal poetics gender studies or performance criticism but rather demonstrates that the materiality of Shakespeare is multidimensional and consists of the imagination the intended and the desired Nothing returns in this rematerialization unless it is a return in the sense of the repressed which when it comes back comes back as something else An all star line up of contributors includes Kate McLuskie Terence Hawkes Catherine Belsey and Doug Bruster I. A. Richards (Routledge Revivals) John Paul Russo, 2015-06-11 A pioneering critic educator and poet I A Richards 1893 1979 helped the English speaking world decide not only what to read but how to read it Acknowledged father of New Criticism he produced the most systematic body of critical writing in the English language since Coleridge His method of close reading dominated the English speaking classroom for half a century John Paul Russo draws on close personal acquaintance with Richards as well as on unpublished materials correspondence and interviews to write the first biography originally published in 1989 of one of last century s most influential and many sided men of letters The Romance Mode in Philippine Popular Literature and Other Essays Soledad S. Reyes, 1991 History of Psychiatry and Medical Psychology Edwin R. Wallace, John Gach, 2010-04-13 Most of the prefatory issues are extensively elaborated upon in the Prolegomenon which also contains the complete references to the texts and authors discussed below Nevertheless the Preface would be grossly incomplete without touching on some of these issues books and scholars Too many of this book s chapters e g Mora s Marx s D B Weiner s examine and reference important earlier as well as contemporary general histories of psychiatry and specialized monographs in German French Italian and Spanish Also in his 1968 Short History of Psychiatry discussed below Ackerknecht pp xi xii references important nineteenth and earlier twentieth century psychiatric histories in English French and German Such citations will of course not be repeated here Finally thanks to several publishers re editions of dozens of classical psychiatric texts one can consult their bibliographies as well See Prolegomenon for references to these splendid series In a rough and ready sense medical history began in classical Greece for example On Ancient Medicine While traditionally included in the Hippocratic corpus this text seems more likely to have been written by a non or even anti Hippocratic doctor Moreover the Hippocratic and other schools were hardly as secular as we now suppose On Epilepsy for example does not so much declare the prevalent denotation of it as the sacred disease erroneous as it does that it is no more nor less sacred than any other disease Historic Structures

F.W. Galan,2014-10-03 In this first book length study of Czech structuralism and semiotics in English F W Galan explores one of the most important intellectual currents of the twentieth century filling the gap between what has been written of the Russian formalism of the twenties and the French structuralism of the sixties and seventies He records the evolution within the Prague Linguistic Circle of those theories which concern literature s change in time and the place of literature in society In doing so he reveals how the work of the Prague Linguistic Circle in the years 1928 to 1946 vindicate structuralism against its critics charges that the structuralist approach in linguistics literary theory film studies and related fields is inherently unhistorical Overcoming this apparent methodological impasse was the main challenge confronted by the scholars of the Prague School Roman Jakobson and Jan Mukarovsky in particular Interpreting the Theatrical Past Thomas Postlewait,Bruce A. McConachie,1989 Society and the Promise to David William M. Schniedewind,1999-06-03 This study traces interpretations of the Promise to David 2 Samuel 7 1 17 from the inception of the Hebrew monarchy until the dawn of Christianity Salons, History, and the Creation of Seventeenth-Century France Faith E. Beasley,2017-09-29 The first half of the book is a detailed study of how the salons influenced the development of literature Beasley argues that many women were not only writers they also served as critics for the literary sphere as a whole In the second half of the book Beasley examines how historians and literary critics subsequently portrayed the seventeenth century literary realm which became identified with the great reign of Louis XIV and designated the official canon of French literature Beasley argues that in a rewriting of this past the salons were reconfigured in order to advance an alternative view of this premier moment of French culture and of the literary masterpieces that developed out of it Through her analysis of how the seventeenth century salon has been defined and transmitted to posterity Beasley illuminates facets of France s collective memory and the powers that constituted it in the past and that are still working to define it today
