Church in China: Faith, Ethics, Structure Aiming Wang, 2009 The Protestant Church in China is growing very fast However the role of the Church in society is still fragile and marginal The Church needs a strong ethical and structural development This study analyses the theological ethical and ecclesiological heritage of the Reformation and it shows how this can build the foundation for the future of the Church in China Four models serve as orientation the Reformers Luther and Calvin and the theologians Bonhoeffer and Barth in the 20th century with their vision of Christian faith and a humane society The critical analysis of the missionary heritage since the 19th century shows its contribution for the acceptance of the tradition of the Reformation for the growing Church in China The author combines this theological and ethical perspective with the inculturation in the strong ethical tradition of the Chinese culture He proposes the encounter between the spirituality of the Western culture and that of the traditional culture of China through the relationship with Confucianism The book also offers elements for the dialogue around modern values such as human rights and civil society In this dialogue Chinese Protestantism can play more and more an important role

Martin Luther's Hidden God Timothy Scott Landrum, 2022-04-05 The presence of evil in a world said by God to be good is perhaps humanity's most vexing challenge Where is God in all this is a universal cry The answers are as numerous and varied as those offering them but little is accomplished it seems to ease the pain of a God who doesn't behave according to law logic or rationale Into this melee Martin Luther waded with his distinction between God preached and God not preached and hiding Though not always appreciated Luther's thought speaks to the various dimensions of the problem and proclaims a definitive answer Martin Luther's Hidden God traces the origins of Luther's thought on the matter explores how his teaching compliments and conflicts with the teaching offered by certain post Reformation Lutheran theologians and philosophers of religion before distilling his thought into a preliminary apologetic for the problem of evil and divine hiddenness that spans the breadth of the issue from a uniquely Lutheran perspective

Christian Character Formation

Gifford A. Grobien, 2019-05-16 Christian Character Formation investigates worship and formation in view of Christian anthropology particularly union with Christ Traditions which value justification by faith wrestle to some degree with how to describe and encourage ethical formation when salvation and righteousness are presented as gracious and complete The dialectic of law and gospel has suggested to some that forgiveness and the advocacy of ethical norms contend with each other By viewing justification and formation in light of Christ's righteousness which is both imputed and imparted it is more readily seen that forgiveness and ethics complement each other In justification God converts a person by which he grants new character Traditional Lutheran anthropology says that this regeneration grants a new nature in mystical union with Jesus Christ By exploring the Finnish Luther School led by Tuomo Mannermaa Gifford A Grobien explains how union with Christ imparts righteousness and the corresponding new character to the believer Furthermore as means of grace the Word and sacraments are the means of establishing union with Christ and nurturing new character Considering Oswald Bayer's suffering the word of Christ Louis Marie Chauvet's symbolic order and Bernd Wannenwetsch's understanding of worship as Christianity's unique form of life Grobien argues that worship practices are the foundational and determinative context in which grace is offered and in which the distinctively Christian ethos supports virtues consistent with Christian character This understanding is also coordinated with Stanley Hauerwas's narrative ethics and Luther's teaching of virtue and good works in view of the Ten Commandments
