Struggle Over Singapore's Soul:

The Struggle over Singapore's Soul Joseph B. Tamney, 2017-10-10 No detailed description available for The Struggle over Singapore's Soul

The Struggle Over Singapore's Soul Joseph B. Tamney, 1996 Singapore is viewed as a model of an orderly economically developing successful society on the Pacific Rim Based on eight years of field work the author analyzes how modernization effects an Asian society and which value conflicts prevail The Singapore government's program to shape its version of a modern yet Asian national identity is described in light of the dominant ideology In addition the values and beliefs of opposition movements are presented The work explores the tensions between these ideological sets and the likely outcome of the complex inconsistent processes currently underway

Constructing Singapore Michael D. Barr, Zlatko Skrbis, 2008 Constructing Singapore studies Singaporean nation building by focusing on two processes elite formation and elite selection It gives primary attention to the role that ethno racial ascription plays in these processes but also considers the input of personal connections personal power class and gender It is a study of the progress of Singapore's state sponsored nation building project to its current state whereby a Singaporean version of Chinese ethno nationalism has overwhelmed the discourse on national and Singaporean identity Based upon archival research and formal interviews this study unpacks the culture of elite governance in Lee Hsien Loong's Singapore today

Asianism and the Politics of Regional Consciousness in Singapore Leong Yew, 2013-11-20 Over the last two decades Singapore has undergone a substantial degree of Asianization Apart from participating in the Asian values debate of the 1990s re-visioning itself as New Asia and a global Asian hub and establishing Asian identities for the commodities it consumes and produces Singapore has also repurposed its modernity cultures and ethos along similar regionalist precepts However even in recent times Singapore continues to vacillate ambivalently between identifying with and differentiating itself from Asia Responding to the challenges Singapore faces in coming to terms with its Asian identity this book examines the complex cultural social and political underpinnings that have shaped Singapore's mainstream discourse on Asia Indeed it argues that its legacy as a colonial port city the exigencies of managing the post independence nation state and the larger forces of imperialism and capitalism all contribute to its politics of Asianism Taking a thoroughly interdisciplinary approach that spans history cultural studies postcolonialism and cultural geography Leong Yew reveals how Asia has been used to narrate Singapore's beginnings revalidate Singaporean ethnic culture and to consolidate its practices of consumption and commodification This book will be welcomed by students and scholars working across a range of fields including Asian culture and society Asian politics cultural theory and postcolonial studies

Singapore Politics Under the People's Action Party Diane K. Mauzy, Robert Stephen Milne, 2002 A comprehensive overview of politics in Singapore since self governance The authors examine how this tiny island has developed into a global financial centre and an economic and social success under the leadership of the People's Action Party which has ruled continuously since 1959 The authors explore the nature of the Singaporean government as well as major issues such as ethnicity human rights and the development of civil society

The Hard State, Soft City of Singapore Simone Shu-Yeng Chung, Mike Douglass, 2025-10-01 With Singapore serving as the subject of exploration The Hard State Soft City of Singapore explores the purview of imaginative representations of the city Alongside the physical structures and associated practices that make up our lived environment and conceptualized space engineered into material form by bureaucrats experts and commercial interests a perceptual layer of space is conjured out of people s everyday life experiences While such imaginative projections may not be as tangible as its functional designations they are nonetheless equally vital and palpable The richness of its inhabitants memories aspirations and meaningful interpretations challenges the reduction of Singapore as a Generic City Taking the imaginative field as the point of departure the forms and modes of intellectual and creative articulations of Singapore s urban condition probe the resilience of cities and the people who reside in them through the images they convey or evoke as a means for collective expressions of human agency in placemaking

Religion-State Encounters in Hindu Domains Vineeta Sinha, 2011-04-07 The historical and empirical project presented here is grounded in a desire to theorize religion state relations in the multi ethnic multi religious secular city state of Singapore The core research problematic of this project has emerged out of the confluence of two domains religion law and bureaucracy and religion and colonial encounters This work has two core objectives one to articulate the actual points of engagement between institutions of religion and the state and two to identify the various processes mechanisms and strategies through which relations across these spheres are sustained The thematic foundations of this book rest on disentangling the complex interactions between religious communities individuals and the various manifestations of the Singapore state relationships that are framed within a culture of bureaucracy This is accomplished through a scrutiny of Hindu domains on the island nation state from her identity as part of the Straits Settlements to the present day The empirical and analytical emphases of this book rest on the author s engagement with the realm of Hinduism as it is conceived structured framed and practiced within the context of a strong state in Singapore today Ethnographically the book focusses on Hindu temple management and the observance of Hindu festivals and processions enacted within administrative and bureaucratic frames
