Pornography Gail Dines,Bob Jensen,Ann Russo,2013-10-31 First published in 1998 No other issue has divided the feminist movement in the past two decades quite like pornography By providing the first book to engage in an empirical investigation of the pornography industry itself the authors each grounded in the radical feminist anti pornography movement move beyond the rhetorical bomb tossing of an often polarized debate The authors engage in a systematic examination of the politics production content and consumption of contemporary mass market heterosexual pornography thereby contributing to a fuller understanding of pornography s role in the cultural construction of gender racial and sexual identities and relations They begin with an overview of the social and political history of the feminist anti pornography movement and the debate over pornography within feminism Then they address the various rhetorical dodges definitional legal and causal used to distort the fact that institutionalized pornography helps maintain the sexual and social oppression of women within a patriarchal system Exploring the beginnings of the commercial pornography industry the book focuses in part on the history of Playboy magazine It also analyzes the content of contemporary mass market videos Dines Jensen and Russo argue that the sexual ideology of patriarchy eroticizes domination and submission with pornography playing a significant role in how these values are mediated and normalized in American society They discuss the effects of pornography on the lives of those who use it and those against whom it is used In so doing the authors hope to contribute to creating a world in which sex is not a site of oppression but of liberation demands from the heart of the movement of movements Based on the work of the first two annual meetings of the WSF this classic collection not only set out the initial aims of the movements that came together it also paved the way for the theoretical study of new social movements their multiple and participatory character Today as many crises affect all our lives it is time to revisit the original demands of a global solidarity movement united in its determination to fight against the concentration of wealth the proliferation of poverty and inequalities and the destruction of our earth and to reconstitute a global left

Why Loiter? Shilpa Phadke, Sameera Khan, Shilpa Ranade, 2011 Presenting an original take on women s safety in the cities of twenty first century India Why Loiter maps the exclusions and negotiations that women from different classes and communities encounter in the nation s urban public spaces Basing this book on more than three years of research in Mumbai Shilpa Phadke Sameera Khan and Shilpa Ranade argue that though women s access to urban public space has increased they still do not have an equal claim to public space in the city And they raise the question can women s access to public space be viewed in isolation from that of other marginal groups Going beyond the problem of the real and implied risks associated with women s presence in public they draw from feminist theory to argue that only by celebrating loitering a radical act for most Indian women can a truly equal global city be created

Black French Women and the Struggle for Equality, 1848-2016 Félix Germain, Silyane Larcher, 2018-10-01 Black French Women and the Struggle for Equality 1848 2016 explores how black women in France itself the French Caribbean Gor e Dakar Rufisque and Saint Louis experienced and reacted to French colonialism and how gendered readings of colonization decolonization and social movements cast new light on the history of French colonization and of black France In addition to delineating the powerful contributions of black French women in the struggle for equality contributors also look at the experiences of African American women in Paris and in so doing integrate into colonial and postcolonial conversations the strategies black women have engaged in negotiating gender and race relations la fran aise Drawing on research by scholars from different disciplinary backgrounds and countries this collection offers a fresh multidimensional perspective on race class and gender relations in France and its former colonies exploring how black women have negotiated the boundaries of patriarchy and racism from their emancipation from slavery to the second decade of the twenty first century

Precarious Lives and Marginal Bodies in North Africa Hervé Anderson Tchumkam, 2021-03-12 Marginal Bodies and Precarious Lives in North Africa Homo Expendibilis presents an examination of North African literature situated at the crossroads of literary analysis political philosophy and sociology The author analyzes social categories in relation to civil and social protections and in particular the ways in which disruptions to these protections can lead to social degeneration The author s analysis starts from the premise that precarious lives in North Africa have become true bodies of exception In other words they are deemed dangerous expendable and unworthy of the rights and treatment accorded to full citizens Thus the author assesses portrayals of violence in contemporary literature as a crystallization of the existing disjunction between the socially disqualified and those who wield colonial political and religious power Moreover the author argues that in order to understand contemporary politics and the current climate of insecurity a deeper understanding of precarity in North Africa from colonial times to the present is crucial By affirming their right to exist the author argues that the marginal bodies of North Africa offer unique insights into the society that marginalized them and thus from the often inaudible and invisible periphery they nevertheless challenge the dominant ideas of the center
