

Stuckey

Stuckey's innovative marketing skills were far ahead of his time. Billy Stuckey recalls, "Those red and yellow billboards saying five miles to Stuckey's, four miles to Stuckey's, three, two, one would drive people crazy, but they'd stop there anyway. My father would tell me that it was not the candy, but the billboards, that was the real secret of his success."

Throughout his life, Stuckey had numerous business interests, and he had an overriding, an almost compulsive desire to own land, both farmland and timberland. This land acquisition, considered by many as his hobby, has today grown to a highly successful family business, Stuckey Timberland, Inc.
